AN HONORABLE DEFEAT

What is particularly gratifying about the verdict at the polls, says The Montreal Herald, is that no section of the country has any right to complain about it. Its material benefits were manifestly for the Maritime Provinces, for the West, and for the farmers near the border cities. In all classes the potential beneficiaries not merely failed to increase their support for the government but actually failed to accord their former support. They cannot blame anybody, unless it may be that some time they blame themselves for being fooled. But that is their affair. It will be many a long day before any political party in Canada will risk its fortunes on giving them another such opportunity. The farmer has had his turn. He cannot blame the manufacturer very much if he did not take it.

As The Herald says, the Liberal party had to be beaten some time. After fifteen years in office the time could not probably be much longer delayed. No Liberal who values the party's traditions could wish to see it perish in such death throes as the Conservative party went through between 1891 and 1896, or hanging on to life in Ontario after thirty years of Mowat rule.

Even in defeat Sir Wilfrid Laurier makes a splendid figure. He brought his party into office after a keen, clean fight. His premiership will be forever associated in the minds of Canadians with Canada's golden age; he leaves office with his great reputation untarnished, with his party strong and militant, with Canada at the height of that prosperity to which his administration has conducted. Born under a lucky star, he has been fortunate even in defeat. He could not have lost power in circumstances more honorable. What his future is to be it will be for him to say. He is the best judge whether he or another should take up the task which will fall to the lot of the leader of the Liberal party of the Dominion.

For Mr. Borden the luck turned on the third spin of the wheel. He had to win this time or pass out, for no man who loses three general elections has the right to essay a fourth. He has won, and he is fairly entitled to whatever change of office may bring from the dark existence he has led during eleven years of opposition. What his success will be is going to depend very largely upon the judgment he shows in choosing his first cabinet.

In the early months of 1905 seed was sown which has come to a head in 1911, and which has been bad for the Liberal party of Canada. In the convulsions of that year over the bills constituting the new Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, Sifton and Bourassa were blown off from the Liberal party by high winds which carried them in opposite directions. What Borden could not do himself in 1908 he did with their assistance in 1911. Mr. Sifton seems to have exercised a determining influence over an even wider range of close constituencies in Ontario than Mr. Bourassa did in Quebec, and that was wide enough.

The Mail has pleasure in nominating Mr. R. B. Hanson of this city for the position of chairman of the National Transcontinental Railway Commission soon to be vacated by the resignation of Hon. S. N. Parent in tea may mean to you flavor or strength or fragrant richness. Red Rose Tea is blended with such nicety that it is the combination of all three points of merit. Will you try a package.

If York should be assigned a portfolio in the Borden cabinet it will not be the first honor of the kind conferred upon this constituency. York held a portfolio in the Tupper cabinet from June 23rd 1896 until the government resigned about two weeks later. The constituency was then represented by Hon. George E. Foster.

Some of our Tory friends are complaining because Sheriff Howe was not appointed returning officer for York. Not having been burdened with this responsibility the Sheriff was left free to go out and canvas for his party.

"Is Carvell elected?" was the first question Mr. O.S. Crockett addressed on his arrival in the city from Harvey on Thursday night. The answer he received caused a look of disappointment to creep over his face.

The Simon pure Tories of Sunbury and Queens who went about for weeks boasting of their big campaign fund are feeling very sore and spiteful over their defeat.

Dr. Beland, the new postmaster general who ran for two constituencies, was re-elected in Beauce by 1500 majority and defeated in Montmagny, a Nationalist stronghold by 300.

ITALY AND TURKEY MAY GO TO WAR

London, Sept. 26.—The Daily Mail's Paris correspondent learns that if Turkey executes her threat to expel Italian subjects, Italy will instantly declare war. She is willing however, to meet Turkey in any amicable arrangement, permitting Italy to establish herself in Tripoli.

THE STOCK MARKET IS STILL OFF

New York, Sept. 26.—Stocks scarcely held their own in the trading today. Union Pacific was an exception, advancing one point on heavy trading. The steel stocks were dull.

MANY CHANGES MADE IN CANADA'S PARLIAMENT

Large Influx of New Blood in the House
--Some Members of the Old Guard Among the Missing--Ontario Sends Big Delegation of Young Men--The Defeat of Seven Cabinet Ministers a Loss to the Country

(Toronto Globe)

Canada's new parliament will be numerically dominated by comparatively young men. Remarkable changes have taken place in the personnel of the membership. Particularly is this the case with the Ontario membership. In the meagre band of Liberals from the province there will be only one new face, that of Mr. W. A. Charlton, who redeemed Norfolk. He, however, is an experienced legislator and ex-Speaker of the provincial parliament.

LIBERALISM NOT DEAD

The band of Ontario Liberals behind Sir Wilfrid Laurier, though small in number, is unusually vigorous and aggressive. Mr. Fred F. Pardee, the chief Whip, himself a comparatively young man, will have a spirited and capable corps of young associates in Messrs. Duncan C. Ross of West Middlesex, Archie B. McCoig, of West Kent, John Angus McMillan of Glengarry, T. A. Low of South Renfrew, and Edmond Proulx of Prescott, while they will be associated with older parliamentarians in Messrs. Clarke, Guthrie, Charlton, Gordon, Nesvitt and Murphy. Ontario Liberalism will have no reason to blush over the calibre of her representation in the coming parliament.

SOME FACES MISSING

Many of the foremost faces of the past will, however, be missing. Hon. William Paterson, who has been a member of the Government since 1896 and a member of the House since 1872, will be among those missed. The absence of Hon. George P. Graham, who in his comparatively short career as Minister of Railways, established a record as a popular parliamentarian, capable administrator and sound statesman will also be a severe loss to the party, while the progressive career of Hon. Mackenzie King meets an unfortunate rebuff. Among the senior Liberals who will likewise be much missed are genial John Tolmie, the presiding genius at the party caucus; H. H. Miller, the father of the Miller racing bill, and M. Y. McLean, the apostle of early Liberalism. In the defeat of the late Deputy Speaker, Mr. G. H. McIntyre, parliament loses one of its finest men.

LEGISLATURE'S CONTRIBUTION

Ontario Conservatism sends considerable new blood to the national councils. The Provincial Legislature contributes six, all of whom are likely to take an influential part in the party councils. Col. Hugh Clark comes to the House with a reputation as a platform speaker. Mr. W. F. Nickle is a young man of strong convictions and unusual capacity, who is already noted for his independence and aggressiveness in the legislature. His manly stand against the round-robin to secure increased indemnity for the members of that body is still remembered by the public. In Messrs. J. H. Fisher, A. E. Frapp, Gordon C. Wilson and W. J. Paul the Legislature also contributes youth and ability to the larger sphere.

NEW VOICE FROM THE WEST

Western Liberalism is strengthened by the acquisition of Mr. W. A. Buchanan, who defeated the redoubtable Magrath in Medicine Hat. Mr. Buchanan is a former Toronto newspaper man, who went west and rejuvenated The Lethbridge Herald and was for a time a member of the Alberta Provincial Ministry under former President Rutherford. In view of the attacks made upon him, it is significant that in his home city in that province Hon. Frank Oliver rolled up the huge majority of 2,000 over his opponents. Dr. Michael Clark, the eloquent western apostle of free trade, also returns to represent the constituency of Red Deer.

LABOR LOSES GOOD FRIEND

In Brandon, Manitoba, Mr. J. A. M. Atkins, a prominent Winnipeg lawyer, who possesses a wide reputation as a Conservative campaign orator, succeeds Hon. Clifford Sifton who dropped out, while Mr. Duncan Ross, a former member, returns to the House to represent Comox-Atlin in British Columbia, the only Liberal from that Province. In the defeat of Mr. Ralph Smith in Nanaimo the labor interests lose a vigorous parliamentary champion.

Mr. George W. Fowler returns to the representation of King's and Albert in New Brunswick. In this Province also Hon. Dr. Pugsley and Dr. Daniel have exchanged seats, the Minister of Public Works capturing St. John City, formerly represented by Daniel, and the latter securing Dr. Pugsley's old seat.

SUCCESS OF STUDENT LAD

Mr. A. DeW. Foster, who defeated Sir Frederick Borden in King's, Nova Scotia, is a mere lad. He is an undergraduate of Acadia College, who has yet another year to put in ere he secures his arts degree. His father is a cousin of Hon. Geo. E. Foster. Mr. F. B. McCurdy, who won Shelburne and Queen's from Hon. W. S. Fielding, is a wealthy Halifax banker and broker, while Mr. W. F. Carroll, who redeemed the mining constituency of South Cape Breton to Liberalism, defeating Mr. J. W. Maden, is a lawyer.

BLACK EYE FOR BOURASSA

Mr. A. Gilbert, the playman of the lonely furrow, who won Drummond-Arthabaska in the Nationalist interest at the famous "navy" bye-election, had a short public career. He was defeated by Mr. O. Brouillard, the Liberal candidate, who is heralded as one of the most capable new French Canadian members. In Soulanges, where Dr. Lortie was defeated by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Henri Bourassa loses one of his most ardent apostles, while Mr. Oliver Asselin, the clever young newspaper man who wrote the propaganda of Nationalism, was rejected in St. James.

Dr. Normand, Mayor of Three Rivers, who downed Mr. Jacques Bureau, the Solicitor General, in that riding, is one of the most eloquent exponents of the Bourassa tenets. The Nationalists will have some twelve seats in the new House.

Mr. G. H. Baker, the successful opponent of Hon. Sydney Fisher in Brome, is reputed to be a fluent speaker and vigorous campaigner.

CONFIRMED NEARLY 1300.

His Lordship Bishop Casey returned to St. John on Saturday evening after a confirmation tour through Westmorland County. His Lordship administered the sacrament of confirmation to nearly 1,300 children and adults, the former, of course, being greatly in the majority. His Lordship was away since Thursday, Sept. 14, and his tour ending on Saturday, probably finished his duties in confirmation for this year. The places visited, with the approximate number confirmed, are as follows: Moncton, 107; Schodouc, 85; Shediac, 130; Barachois, 108; Abouagagne, 95; Cape Bald, 200; Port Elgin, 35; Melrose, 37; Sackville, 63; Dorchester Penitentiary, 11; St. Edwards' church, Dorchester, 33; Memramcook, 350; and Irishtown, 35.

TWO OF A KIND

Among the many congratulatory telegrams received by the Montreal Star on the result of the elections were the following from Fredericton:

MR. S. MERNER
Fredericton, Sept. 22.
Editor of The Star, Montreal.

Your paper has helped us to win. Congratulations.

S. MERNER.

(Mr. Merner is supposed to be a near relative of Mr. S. Kerner a Queen Street dry goods merchant.)

MR. R. B. HANSON
Fredericton, N.B., Sept. 22.
Editor of The Star, Montreal.

The people of York, irrespective of party, have nobly responded to the call of Canada for Canadians and British connection. While admiring our neighbors to the south, we prefer to attend to our own affairs. The people of Canada highly appreciate the untiring efforts of The Star and the success of its campaign is nowhere more apparent than in New Brunswick.

R. B. HANSON

The Halifax Chronicle suggests that as Sir Wilfrid Laurier holds two Quebec seats he should hand over one of them to Hon. W. S. Fielding.

The defeat of reciprocity does not seem to have caused much of a boom in railway stocks either Canadian or American.

EXHIBITION ACCOUNTS

All persons having accounts against the Fredericton Exhibition will please present them at the secretary's office as soon as possible.

W. S. HOOPER,
Secretary.

The Tory lawyer who has been going about town threatening Liberal office holders with dismissal may wake up one of these fine days to the fact that he has not all to say about it.

As a patriotic citizen of Fredericton and the County of York, it would seem to be the duty of Mr. Stipp, M.P.P., to back up our Mr. Crockett in his fight for a portfolio.

The electors of New Brunswick were willing to give reciprocity a trial.
