THE EEL WON FREE FOR ALL PACE AT BROCKTON

Canadian Horse had Walkaway--Collision in 2.14 Pace--No Drivers Hurt in Mix up

Brockton, Oct. 6.—The harness racing card yesterday was too long to be completed, although racing was started at ten in the morning. Three races were left over from yesterday, including the big free-for-all pacing event which promised to be the feature race of the entire meet, but proved to be a walkaway for The Eel in each heat McEwen held back until the last quarter and then took the lead without difficulty.

When the racing was ended shortly before six o'clock, the 2:14 class, pacing, and the 2:16 class, trotting, were left unfinished, while the 2:09 class, pacing, was not even started. These races will be added to tomorrow's program.

In the third heat of the 2:14 class, pacing, the sulkies of Queen Direct, Alcyde and Edward T collided on the back stretch and the drivers were thrown, but not injured.

CHARLIE MITCHELL WON TRANSYLVANIA AT LEXINGTON

Dolly S. Sprang Surprise in 2.11 Trot --King Daphne Won Kentucky Futurity

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5—Charlie Mitchell, sporting the red, white and blue of the Murphy stable, won the 23d renewal of the famous Transylvania purse this afternoon, outclassing his field in time now considered slow for the event, 2.07¾, 2.07¼, 2.07¼.

The usual Transylvania crowd turned out, and if the feature race was a disappointment the balance of the card furnished excitement enough to please the most exciting. The pacing division of the Kentucky, for the first time in many seasons, found a field of closely matched three-year-olds taking the word, with the result that at sunset King Daphne had two heats to his credit and Miss DeForest one, while the favorite, Braden Direct, had failed to show in front. The time, 2.06¾, 2.07¼, 2.10, was very fast.

Dolly S, a pacing bred trotter from the half-mile tracks, gave the talent a shock by easily handling the favorite, the highly touted syndicate horse from Cleveland, Wilmering, and the second choice, Eva Tanguay, when Jamison turned her loose.

The trotting race brought over from Wednesday went to the blind stallion, Olcott Axworthy, who had several seconds on the field when he kept to his gait.

What interest there was in the Transylvania centered in the fight for second money, the New England delegation making Chatty Direct, owned by Charles Tappen of Attleboro, favorite over Stroller, 2:05¼, and Dorothy Hansboro, 2.06¼. The 4-year-old from the North Country had no difficulty in making good, Norman Tallman handling her nicely.

The money was down on Braden Direct in the pacing futurity, despite the fact that Miss DeForest has five victories behind her. The local colt, King Daphne, was entirely overlooked but he looks now to be a certain winner.

Minor Heir, in an effort to better his pacing record of 1.59¼, could do no better than even time. The summary:
