THREE RED SOX BOUGHT

BY SACRAMENTO CLUB

The Sacramento club has purchased the release of Chris Mahoney, Burt Lerchen and C. D. Thomas from the Boston Americans.

MULLIN WITH DETROIT

Detroit, Dec. 28.—George Mullin, the veteran pitcher of the Detroit American League team, signed a Detroit contract for 1912 today.

DRISCOLL AND MORAN
MAY MEET IN BOSTON

Jim Driscoll, the champion featherweight of England, will sail for this country next month. With Owen Moran already here, it will be no surprise if the match between them, which was stopped in England, will be decided in Boston.

HOOF BEATS

The 45500 pacer, Our Colonel, 2.13 1/4, will be raced down the Grand Circuit next year by Fred Jamison, the Butler, Penn., trainer, who won 38 races and 28 second money this past season.

Joan, 2.04 1/4, has recovered from the accident which cut short her campaign early in September.

E. E. Smathers has bought the stable in New York made famous by the late Frank Work. The former plunger of the Grand Circuit has lost none of his love for trotters, but gets his pleasure from them under saddle.

The yearling son of Vice Commodore, 2.11, and Franela, 2.13, who took a record of 2.27 under the name of John E. Madden, is now owned by Joseph and Edward Madden, and in the future will be known as Magowan.

The Far Western pacer Balneche, picked up $10,725 in purse money this past season. She won 13 races in 19 starts and never failed to get more than her entrance money back. T. E. Pollock of Flagstaff, Ari, lately bought her for $1500.

TEAMS OF PRO

LEAGUE BEGIN TO GET INTO SHAPE

Halifax Socials Play at Moncton and Halifax Crescents at New Glasgow Tuesday Night

With so much talk about the various players to take part in the Maritime Hockey League, and with the numerous "on and off agains," the public is somewhat at a loss to know just who are to play in the games next Tuesday, when the Socials play at Moncton and the Crescents at Halifax against New Glasgow. A good idea, however, can be had from the list of players signed by the various clubs:

Halifax Socials—Hilton, Halifax; Laing, Halifax; Twaddle, Amherst; Dey, Ottawa; Mike Murphy, Fredericton; Wilkie, Sydney; Dumphy, Sydney; McPherson, Halifax.

Moncton Victorias—Wortman, Moncton; Povey, Sherbrooke; Ras Murphy, Ottawa; Crockett, Moncton; Tommy Smith, Ottawa; Norman, Moncton; Cushing, Moncton.

Halifax Crescents—Adams, Halifax; Weaver, Halifax; Condon, Halifax; Segin, Montreal; Murray, Amherst; Black, Amherst; Hummel, Morrisburg.

New Glasgow—Morrisson, Sydney; Power, Quebec; Scott, Fort William; Miller, Edmonton; Stuart, Sydney; Murphy, Chisholm or Simpson, New Glasgow; Gaul, Ottawa, is also reported signed with New Glasgow.

OVERALL THROUGH WITH BIG LEAGUES

Youngstown, Dec. 29.—Orvie Overall, former Chicago Cub pitcher who came here to have his pitching arm treated by "Bonsetter" Reese, announced he is through with major ball.

Overall says he will confine himself to his mining business, with occasional independent ball on his return to California next week.

Overall is the guest of James McAleer of the Boston Red Sox while here.

OWEN MORAN AGAIN

AFTER AD WOLGAST

New York, Dec. 27.—Owen Moran, the English fighter, arrived on the Olympic tonight with defiance for everybody in the lightweight division. "I have come here to make a match with Ad Wolgast," he said, "and I hope to defeat him or any others who regard themselves as champions."

"To prove that I am capable, I will take on any other men in Wolgast's class and deal with them first, giving away weight to some of them and fighting any man at 133 lbs."

RING NOTES

Billy Allen and Billy Ryan, the rival lightweights, are to meet again at Syracuse Jan. 15.

Bob Moha, the Milwaukee middleweight, has signed to box Jack Dillon at Pittsburgh Jan. 10.

Johnny Connelly, the Scotch lightweight, has been signed to box Kid Fleming in Augusta, Me., Jan. 11.

Frankie Burns, the Jersey City bantam, is to be married, but he has promised his manager not to make the jump until after he has met Johnny Coulon, which probably will be soon.

Jimmy DeForest, manager of Pal Moore, writes that the reports sent out from Philadelphia last Monday night about Charley Turner defeating Moore were wrong. DeForest says that Moore outpointed Turner.

Pal Moore, the Philadelphia lightweight, who recently got married, need not box again if he does not want to, for he has a bankroll that he saved out of his earnings in the ring, and his wife also has a big bank account.

Gunner Moir, the ex-champion heavyweight of England, is after champion Bombardier Wells to box him again for the title and a big side wager.

It will be useless for the San Francisco and Los Angeles promoters to try and sign Jack Johnson for a son has not forgotten the time he spent in either of those cities. Johnson was arrested in San Francisco for speeding, and he draws the line on California.

Promoter McIntosh must figure McVea a better boxer than Langford, and that McVea earned the award in his recent bout with Langford, when he cables to Johnson to go to Australia to meet McVea. McIntosh guarantees Johnson the price he has placed on his services, together with the privilege of a liberal percentage.

MANY PLAYERS

AFTER THE LYNN

MANAGERSHIP

Teddy McGovern and Tom Bannon Most Likely Candidates—Fred Mitchell also Running

Lynn, Dec. 28.—The directors of the Lynn, New England League Club, at their meeting tonight again failed to name a manager for next season and it is said the matter had now practically been assigned to the executive committee.

Among the leading applicants for the place are Malachi Kittridge, who has recently been with Scranton; Jimmy Connors, formerly of Danvers, but now of Providence, a one-time big leaguer; Win Clark, who used to manage the Manchester, N. H. team, and Fred Mitchell, who has been with the New York Americans and the Rochester team.

Among the more active candidates are Terry McGovern, captain of last year's team, and Tom Bannon, who has been in the New England League for years.

Fred Lake, who conditionally accepted the management of the team before taking up with Providence, is backing McGovern, but Lake's friendship for the owners of the team is so strong that the chances of procuring some of the spare Providence players would not be lessened if McGovern dots not get the place.

TWELVE THOROUGHBRED

MARES FOR CANADA

Grant Hugh Browne, of New York, is preparing to ship twelve thoroughbred mares from his Brownleigh Park Farm to Canada, and will leave them under the eye of the National Bureau of Breeding. These choice mares are all in foal to King Cobalt, the famous thoroughbred sire, donated to the bureau by Mr. Browne last Fall, and now at Dr. Patridge's stables, Argyle Street. They will be bred back to bureau sires.

Six of these mares will be placed on the Island of Montreal, on the farm of D. Raymond, and the other six will be put on a farm near Toronto. Their foals will be eligible for the King's plate at Toronto and Montreal, and for all Dominion bred mares.

The stallion Fort Hunter, which was here last year, has been placed at the Army barracks at St. John's, P. Q. He is a magnificent horse and now weighs over 1200 pounds.

MCGILL TRIMMED

BROOKLYN CRESCENTS

New York, Dec. 29.—The McGill University hockey team of Montreal, defeated the Crescent Athletic Club seven of Brooklyn, at the St. Nichols rink tonight, by a score of 4 to 3. The play was fast and many penalties were imposed. At the end of the first half the score was even, 1 to 1. McGill got a lead, but the Crescents evened up again, and excitement ran high until Sargeant of the visitors, caged the puck in the last minute of play.

BASEBALL NOTES

The Milwaukee team of the American Association will do its early spring training at Cairo, Ill.

Next season President Ban Johnson will publish the American league averages every month instead of twice a year.

Indications point to a peace pact between Horace Fogel and Charley Doolin and Doolin once more lead the Philadelphia Nationals.

Pitcher Roger Salmon showed so much class in the few games he took part in at Princeton that Connie Mack grabbed him for the Athletics.

Charley Murphy, the Cubb boss, is in Panama looking over the canal. If the big ditch looks good to him he will but in and give it to Roger Breenahan.

Let "Rube" Waddell play the part of a fireman and give him a swell fire-scene he would have "No Father to Guide Her" and "The News-girl" beat to death.

Fred Mitchell, who was a pitcher and afterwards a catcher in the big show, will perhaps manage the Lynn, Mass. team next season. Mitchell was with Rochester last season.

Cupid has been hitting about .700 in Boston of late. Since the close of last season Bill Sweeney, Duffy Lewis, Charley Hall and Joe Wood have all signed managers for life.

Now they say that if Hank O'Day doesn't make good as manager of the Cincinnati Reds he can go back to umpiring. Fine encouragement for a man who hasn't even started in on the job yet.

HOOF PRINTS.

Dennis Neyland has sold to Far Western parties, through Jimmie McQuillan of Bozeman, Mont., the three-year-old colt, Benboe, by Bingen, out of Nanita, 2.17 1/4. Benboe is a first-class individual and something of a trotter, as Dennis worked him better than 2:30 as a two-year-old and quarters in 33 seconds. McQuillan, who is a Boston raised young trainer, will have Benboe, and will winter him with the balance of his stable in California.

Lon McDonald writes from Indianapolis that there is no foundation for the rumor that he is to train exclusively for David M. Look of Castle Farm. As for the past few years Lon will continue to have a public stable, and early in the new year will go to Memphis for the balance of the winter.

What is probably the first championship belt of the world is to be sold at auction in London. It was won by Bendigo from Jim Ward. Another championship belt won by Bendigo from Ben Caunt in 1845 will be auctioned at the same time.
