FREDERICTON, N. B.THE FLAG FLAPPERS
AND THE SOUL SAVERS

(Halifax Chronicle)

Probably most Flag-Flapper newspaper readers are aware that Mr. Kipling wrote some doggerel verses with reference to the recent Canadian elections. Those verses were printed prominently enough to compel the attention of any but the blind. But comparatively few Canadians, we venture to think, knew that Mr. Kipling supplemented his doggerel with more of the same stuff in admitted prose. The following is what Mr. Beckles Willson, in his Nineteenth Century article has to say about Mr. Kipling's outbreak:

"Exactly a fortnight before the recent Canadian elections there appeared in the Times (London) a Montreal telegram headed 'Reported message turned out to be a vehement appeal to the people of Canada to reject the Reciprocity proposals. Doubtless steady-going readers who read that paragraph felt somehow that an impropriety had been committed. The careless ones scoffed, and even the poet's admirers regretted his renewed incursion into politics. Politics was not the business of poets; let Mr. Kipling keep to his rhymes and his romances. And, 'Reported Message from Mr. Kipling,' thus the shocked Times sought charity to cover up the indiscretion; and it was the very last we heard of it in those columns. One or two authenticity or referred to it as an other journals either doubted its aberration in a man of genius."

"Apparently not a single newspaper in this country attached any high value of this 'message'; and yet, even then, some of us who knew Canada and the temper of the Canadian people, who realized what the situation was in esse and posse, the real character and aims of the two party leaders, the motives that lurked behind the Reciprocity proposals, and the danger to be apprehended if Reciprocity with America were again to be consummated (as it had been in 1854), we could not believe that such an appeal would fall on deaf ears."

I do not understand (wrote Mr. Kipling) how nine million people can enter into such arrangements as are proposed with ninety million strangers on an open frontier of four thousand miles, and at the same time preserve their national integrity."

"It is her soul that Canada risks today. Once that soul is pawned for any consideration, Canada must inevitably conform to the commercial, financial, social and ethical standard which will be imposed upon her by the sheer admitted weight of the United States."

"We knew and said so that our countrymen must be already greatly altered in character, if such a down right utterance as the foregoing left them cold."

Thus Mr. Beckles Willson. Could anything be funnier? The "we" who knew and said that wise thing about "our countrymen" was Mr. Beckles Willson himself, and none other."

Mr. Beckles Willson apparently finds himself even more perturbed than Mr. Ruyard Kipling concerning Canada's "soul." Everybody, of course, has read of beings with their "souls in their eyes." But who ever heard of a country with its "souls" in the eyes of its potatoes, or of its dead fish, or of its "bird-eye maple"? Yet these are among the chief natural products which Canadians were going to have an opportunity to sell to Americans under Reciprocity, without intervention of the Customs House tax-gatherer."

Mr. Beckles Willson and Mr. Ruyard Kipling are great "souls" preachers. These is none like unto them now, nor ever shall be hereafter.

STOCK MARKET RATHER FIRM IN TONE TODAY

New York, N. Y., Dec. 19.—The development of weakness in yesterday's stock market was due partially to the announcement that the supreme court had failed down a decision in the anthracite suit, which led some people to infer that there was some doubt of a victory for the roads concerned and partially to the fore knowledge of the Wabash receivership which was formally granted at St. Louis late yesterday with respect to this form of the inference referred to was wholly thought warrant. As to the Wabash it has been recognized for some time that a readjustment of its affairs was necessary and highly desirable.

CAUGHT A BAD COLD.

DEVELOPED BRONCHITIS.
SHE COULD HARDLY SPEAK.

Bronchitis begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty of breathing, hoarseness, and there is a dry, harsh, croupy cough.

After a few days mucous begins to be raised. This is at first white, but later of a greenish or yellow color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

Cure the first symptoms of bronchitis by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thus prevent it becoming chronic and perhaps turning to consumption.

Mrs. Edward Travers, Campbellton, N.B., writes:—"I thought it my duty to write and let you know what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I caught a very bad cold which developed into bronchitis! I was so choked up I could hardly breathe. I tried many medicines but they did me no good, and I had almost given up in despair. A friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle and felt much better, and by the time I had taken four I was completely cured, and I can assure you I cannot say too much in its praise, as it is all you claim for it, and more."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

DEATH IN LONDON
OF K. N. MacFEE

(St. John Globe)

General regret will be felt at the news received today that Mr. Kunitzoff Nicolson Macfee who has been ill for some time with appendicitis, died this morning in London, Eng. The news came in a message from Hon. W. S. Fielding, Ottawa to Messrs Rankine, uncles of Mrs Macfee. Mr. Fielding adding that he would probably leave on Wednesday for London, successful business man in London. The Montreal Gazette once described him as "one of those Canadians whose ability, probity and patriotism lo credit to their native land." He was born in the province of Quebec, and was educated at McGill University, from which he emerged with his B. A. degree and honors in mental moral philosophy. He subsequently went through the French Law School in Paris, from which he was given the degree, of B. C. L. Returning to Canada, Mr. Macfee was called to the bar of Quebec, and subsequently practised his profession in Montreal, Winnipeg, and, for a time, at Minneapolis, Minnesota. In 1889 he removed to London and began business as a dealer in Canadian securities in which his legal knowledge proved of much service in safeguarding the interests of customers of the firm. Mr. Macfee always took a keen interest in matters connected with Canada. In 1910 he was married at Ottawa to Janet Louise Fielding, eldest daughter of the Hon. W. S. Fielding. Mr. Macfee was one of the best known and most popular men in Anglo-Canadian circles in London. He lived at Wyndham House, Sloans Gardens, S. W., was a member of the Conservative Club, and also of the Grosvenor Club, of which latter he was on the committee. Much sympathy will be felt for Mrs. Macfee and Hon. W. S. and Mrs. Fielding.
