UNITED STATES POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Governor Wilson of New Jersey has been invited to address the Georgia legislature.

The Prohibition National Committee will meet December 6 to choose the time and place for choosing the party's presidential convention.

Arthur P. Gorman, son of the late Senator Gorman is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Maryland.

Senator James B. McCreary, the Democratic nominee for the Kentucky governorship, filled that office something like a generation ago.

Thomas L. Hilsen, who was the Independence League candidate for President three years ago, denies the report that he intended to run for governor of Massachusetts this year.

Representative George W. Norris of the fifth Nebraska district has made definite announcement of his intention to be a candidate for the United States senate against Senator Norris Brown whose term will expire in 1913.

On September 11 the voters of Maine will decide upon the question of repealing the constitutional amendment has been in force for twenty-seven years.

After a long and bitter fight Timothy L. Woodruff, former Lieutenant Governor of New York and former chairman of the Republican State Committee, has been forced to relinquish control of the Republican organization in Kings County (Brooklyn), where he lives.

In case Governor Deneen seeks a third term, which now appears a probability the primaries in Illinois next spring will see all the outgoing State officers candidates for renomination, with the solitary exception of the State Treasurer, who is barred by constitutional provision from succeeding himself.

The Republican leaders in Pennsylvania hope to reduce the Democratic delegation from that State by the election of a Republican from the Fourteenth district, where a vacancy exists by the death of Representative George W. Kipp, Democrat. A special election to fill the vacancy will be held next November.

Charles R. Jones of Chicago, chairman of the Prohibition National Committee has been making an extensive tour of the far West consulting with the leaders of the party in regard to the advisability of holding a prohibition convention in that section of the country.

Wilbur F. Wakeman of New York, treasurer-general and secretary of the American Protective Tariff League, the organization of the advocates of a high protective tariff, has announced himself as a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Elgin Root, whose term of office will expire March 3, 1915.

THE FARM STANDS FIRST.

(Toronto Globe.)

The amount of misinformation that is being spread abroad throughout the country in connection with the reciprocity discussion is amazing. The blind are leading the blind on a thousand highways. Take the case of The Guelph Herald, which stated the other day that "the one article of farm produce of which there is more than the home market needs is wheat."

The Guelph Herald is a pretty decent paper. The man who wrote that statement probably believes it. He would not feel comfortable were he presenting to the readers of The Herald what he knew to be untrue. But it seems incredible that a man writing in Guelph, in the heart of a stock-raising and dairying region, with a famous Agricultural College library within reach, should know so little of the conditions of farming as to tell his readers that "the one article of farm produce of which there is more than the home market needs is wheat."

Were Canada's exports of farm products confined to wheat the grass would be growing in the streets of Guelph, and the editor of The Herald would be in full flight toward a land of greater opportunity. The very foundation-stone of Canada's prosperity is its export of farm produce. Great Britain has taken over a hundred and ten million dollars' worth of Canadian cheese in the past five years. Of animals and their produce, a classification which has nothing at all to do with wheat, the United States took almost forty million dollars' worth in the same period. Here are the chief items of imports and exports of farm produce in the year ending March 31, 1910, as taken from the Trade and Commerce report. The exports are in each case Canadian produce:

	Exports	Imports
Living animals,	$12,107,971	$ 3,118,217
Grain of all sorts,	56,750,571	17,698,534
Flour and other grain products,	17,897,361	570,619
Fruits, green and ripe,	4,722,157	5,738,789
Hay,	1,805,849	188,423
Provisions, butter, cheese, lard, eggs and meat,	30,806,680	4,406,363
Seeds,	4,602,797	1,181,173
Vegetables,	1,534,328	1,313,631

The Guelph Herald owes an apology to the readers it deceived with the statement that "the one article of farm produce of which there is more than the home market needs is wheat." There is practically not a thing animate or inanimate grown on Canadian soil except Indian corn and tobacco, of which Canada does not export more than she imports.

Canada's exports of farm produce are increasing so fast that the need for larger markets is imperative. It is of the greatest significance that the exports of agricultural produce, which does not include animals and their products, are increasing far more rapidly than any other class of Canadian exports. In 1882 they ran up as high as thirty-one millions, but by the time Mr. Foster had finished his work as Minister of Finance in 1896 they had sunk to fourteen millions. In the fiscal year ending March, 1910, they totalled over ninety millions. In the present year, that of 1911-12, they will total over a hundred millions. Is it any wonder that the Liberal campaign cry is "Laurier and Larger Markets"?

NEW MARKET

New Market, Aug. 14—Owing to the fine dry weather most all of the farmers have finished haying and report the hay crop to be up to the average.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy gave a very enjoyable dance at their hospital home on Tuesday evening Aug. 1st. About fifty invitations had been issued to their friends.
Refreshments were served at midnight in a very genial manner. The party broke up at early dawn all starting for their respective homes hoping to meet again in like manner in the near future.

Mr. Hugh Foley is kept very busy lately thrashing grain with his gasoline thrasher.

national campaign expects to devote special attention to Wisconsin, which has been regarded as safely Republican for many years past. The Democrats are now inclined to look upon it as a doubtful State. As a basis for this view, prominent Democrats point to the Republican situation and affirm that the fight between Taft and La Follette, supporters will be so intense and so productive of bitterness that Wisconsin can well be claimed as doubtful.

Vienna, Aug. 17—The venerable Emperor Francis Joseph will be eighty-one years old tomorrow. Beyond receiving the customary congratulations he will make no special observance of the anniversary, but will pass the day in quiet at Ischl, where he has resided the most of the time since his recent illness. His subjects throughout the dual empire, however, will celebrate the day as usual with national rejoicings.
