prices for a month. They are the prices for a year, the average price in each city during twelve months.

"Moreover, the export from the United States of these products is decreasing rapidly. In 1906 their export of butter was $24,000,000. Last year their export was about $3,000,000. Their import of butter in 1906 was about $25,000. Last year their import was nearly $9,000,000. With cheese it is much the same. Export trade is decreasing rapidly, while import trade goes up and up.

KEPT OUT BY LAW.

"And just a word about cheese. Canadian butter and Canadian cheese are very good. The Anti-Reciprocity League has been sending out a number of pamphlets, and in one of them they state that if reciprocity comes the Canadian market will be flooded with inferior butter and cheese from the south. This inferior produce is made of skimmed milk, and the cheese is what is known as 'filled cheese.' In Canada we have a law against the making of these inferior kinds of butter and filled cheese. This law will apply to all imports just as severely as it applies to the Canadian-made article. The law will keep these things out.

"As a general rule we are better cheese-makers than the United States. Our English reputation proves this. The United States imports large quantities of fancy brands of cheese from Europe. Canadian makers are just beginning to manufacture these brands. If reciprocity comes into effect there is no reason why Canada should not capture this trade. The market is a wonderful one. The United States imports forty old million dollars worth of this cheese every year. The dairymen of this province could compete with the European makers. The market is at our doors. And the makers of this cheese could afford to pay from twenty-five to thirty-five per cent. more for the milk that they use in the making than they now pay to make the common Cheddar cheese.

SHORT ON TRUTH OR KNOWLEDGE

"In another of these Anti-Reciprocity League pamphlets it is stated that the price of hogs in lower in the United States than in Canada. The man who wrote that either knew nothing of hogs or he knew nothing of the truth. He took the Chicago quotations of the run of the market and you all know that the run of the market means anything from bacon hogs to old stags for the packing factories. Then he dishonestly compared this price with the bacon hog price in Montreal and Toronto.

"I have gone into this subject and have obtained the real prices for bacon hogs in the Buffalo and Toronto markets. In seventeen months there were only three days when the Buffalo market was not higher than the Toronto market and there was not a day in that same period when were not higher than those of Montreal, New York and Boston prices real.

"If you want the advantage of these markets and these prices you must vote for reciprocity and the Laurier Government, for Mr. Borden has gone through this country stating that if he comes into power he will throw the proposed pact back into the faces of the people of the United States.

WONT TAKE LOWER PRICES

"And our opponents state that Canada is to be flooded with American produce. Mr. Sifton who is fighting reciprocity has had the decency and the honesty to state that prices are higher in the United States. Are the farmers to the south going to send their produce up here where it will bring less money? I believe that eventually there will be an equalization of prices. The consumer on the other side will obtain a slightly reduced rate. There will probably be some fluctuations at first.

"The United States is a highly protected nation. We are the only nation that she discriminates against. Our opponent say that the British market is better. But there is no discrimination there. We must meet the entire world and compete with them.

THE FAVORED NATION'S CLAUSE

The speaker explained that Argentine is chosen because she comes under the Favored Nations clause. The Favored Nations Treaty was made by Great Britain before Canada had become a nation, and by it some twelve countries enjoy any reduction in tariff granted to any foreign nation by any part of the Empire. Thus Argentine stands on the same footing as the United States.

"It has been a bone of contention for years between Canada and England." Mr. Fisher stated. "Belgium and Germany were mentioned in it; but they were struck off the list by Great Britain on the request of Canada. That was the first Imperial concession obtained by the Laurier government. The Conservative government endeavored to obtain this concession but were unable to do so.

"But how about Australia? Can you compete with her in the English market?" asked some one.

"So far as Australia is concerned, let me say," answered Mr. Fisher, "that we grant no favors to any foreign country that are not granted in every part of the empire. In many things we can compete with Australia. In other things we cannot. Australia even ships mutton to Canada.

GONE IN TWO YEARS

"At the last Imperial Conference, just concluded in London, Sir Wilfrid Laurier proposed a course by which the Overseas Dominion can get rid of this favored nations list, and I think I can safely state that in two years we will no longer be bothered with it.

"So far as the annexation bogey is concerned I do not think that it is very serious today. The insult to the intelligence of the Canadian people has become too patent."

The speaker showed that during the past year our trade with the United States was almost two-thirds of our trade with the entire world. Yet we were not accused of being disloyal.

SIR JOHN'S APPEAL

"I have a pamphlet here, issued by the Anti-Reciprocity League, entitled 'An Appeal to the British Born.' It states that reciprocity means the beginning of the disintegration of the British Empire.

"Sir John A. Macdonald voiced the greatest sentence in Canadian politics when he said 'A British subject I was born, a British subject I will die.' When did he speak those words? It was in 1891, after he had dissolved Parliament to appeal to the people for the permission to go to the United States and ask for reciprocity."

BIRTHDAY OF OLDEST PEER

London, August 4—Probably because the House of Lords is so much to the fore front in public discussion these days, nearly all of the London newspapers made mention of the fact that today is the birthday anniversary of the venerable Earl of Wemyss who has the distinction of being the oldest member of that body. Though ninety-three years old, the Earl shows no signs of mental decrepitude and few persons have displayed keener interest in following the recent progress of events at Westminster than he.

Lord Wemyss is regarded as one of the most remarkable members of the British peerage. Though he long ago passed the age when most men are supposed to have something more than one foot in the grave, he drives his own motor car, shoots and fishes makes speeches, writes books and be-guiles what leisure he has left at his favorite hobby sculpture.

The venerable Earl is known as a prophet of woe. Ever since he entered public life—and that was long before most of those now conspicuous in it were born—he has preached a doctrine of national pessimism. The times to him have been always out of joint, but he has never believed against the spite, however, unbelieved which has caused his creation to set it right.

But his sincerity and patriotism have never been disputed. No man has done more to foster the volunteer movement. It was more than half a century ago that he first assumed command of a corps, and his gift the Elcho challenge shield, still testifies to his practical interest in the body whose motto is "Defense, Not Defiance."

He has the courage of his convictions at all times and is never bothered by considerations of consistency. He once opposed the habitual inebriates bill in the House of Lords on the ground that every Englishman ought to be allowed to get drunk when it pleased him to do so.

Christiana, Aug. 3.—Flags were displayed and the customary salutes fired today in celebration of the thirty-eighth birthday anniversary of King Haakon VII. The King and Queen have but recently returned from England, where they were prominent participants in the coronation festivities.

BABY GIRL BORN TO "SOO" MURDERESS

Mrs. Napolitano was sentenced to hang on Wednesday next by Justice Britton at the assizes for the murder of her husband with an axe on Easter Sunday morning.
