

YOUTHFUL BURGLAR CONFESSED TO POLICE

New York, Nov. 15.—The choir boy face of Raymond Breka, a fourteen year old Brooklyn blue eyed and golden haired, made burglary so easy that he told the police today he had robbed so many places he could not remember them all. When the police find a buried can full of jewelry to which the lad had directed them, they expect to learn more about his exploits. Raymond was arrested last night in a theatre. His love of the foot-lights caused him to use a stolen ticket and this led to his detection.

TO SAVE THE BABIES

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 16.—The American Association for the Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality, which was organized several years ago at a meeting in New Haven, assembled at the Hotel La Salle in this city today and began what promises to be the most notable and profitable meeting in its history. Before an adjournment is reached next Saturday it is expected plans will have been completed for a nation-wide campaign to save the lives of the babies.

Suffered With Nerve Trouble For Two Years.

IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO SLEEP.

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be sound while the nervous system alone may be diseased, therefore it is necessary for anyone suffering from any nervous trouble to procure a remedy which will at once quieten the nerves and build up the system.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will do this for you, providing you give them a fair trial.

Mr. Chas. W. Wood, Montreal, Que., writes:—"For two years I had suffered with nerve trouble, and it was impossible for me to sleep. It did not matter what time I went to bed, in the morning I was even worse than the night before. I consulted a doctor, and he gave me a tonic to take a half hour before going to bed. It was all right for a time, but the old trouble returned with greater force than before. One of the boys, who works with me, gave me half a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I took them and I got such satisfaction that I got another box, and before I finished it I could enjoy sleep from 10 p.m. until 6 a.m., and now feel good."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

NEW YORK WON FIGHT WITH GARBAGE MEN

New York, Nov. 15.—No doubt remains that the city has won its fight with the garbage men. The collection of refuse which was abandoned, when the drivers of the street cleaning department struck a week ago, progressed almost as fast today as under normal conditions. The city administration has emerged victorious from its first serious strike and established its right to dictate hours of labor to its many thousand employees. Night work to avoid which the drivers struck will be resumed as soon as the department can get its force of green men going smoothly.

A GIFT WITH A THOUGHT IN IT

What other Christmas present costs so little and means so much as a subscription to The Youth's Companion—52 weeks to any Canadian subscriber for $2.00? It is a gift which benefits not only the one who receives it, but every member of the household.

With many Christmas presents the sense of novelty wears off by the week's end, but The Youth's Companion is as new and sought after the fifty-second week of the year as the first. It is elastic in its adaptability, too; for it does not matter whether the parent is for a boy or a girl, young married people, sedate couples, grand-parents—there never was one yet who did not set store by The Youth's Companion. You cannot make a mistake if you give The Companion—and it is only $2.00 a year now to Canadian subscribers. On January 1, 1912, the price will be advanced to $2.25.

The one to whom you give the subscription will receive free The Companion's Calendar for 1912, lithographed in ten colors and gold, and you, too, as giver of the subscription will receive a copy of the Calendar.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.

HER SKIN SEEMED ON FIRE

Every Other Treatment Failed
But "Fruit-a-tives" Cures

GRANDE LIGNE, QUE., Jan. 2nd, 1910.

"My wife was greatly distressed for three years with chronic Eczema on the hands, and the disease was so severe that it almost prevented her from using her hands. The doctor gave her several ointments to use, but none of them did any good. He also advised her to wear rubber gloves and she wore out three pairs without getting any benefit. As a last resort, I persuaded her to try 'Fruit-a-tives', and the effect was marvellous. Not only did 'Fruit-a-tives' entirely cure the Eczema, but the Asthma, which she suffered from, was also completely cured."

We both attribute our present good health to "Fruit-a-tives". N. JOUBERT.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Eczema or Salt Rheum because "Fruit-a-tives" purifies the blood, corrects the Indigestion and Constipation, and tones up the Nervous System.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices and valuable tonics, and is the greatest of all blood-purifying remedies.

50c. a box—6 for $2.50 or trial size, 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

TRANS-MISSISSIPPI CONGRESS

Kansas City, Nov. 14.—Nearly every State in the Union was represented in the vast audience that filled the Convention Hall today at the opening of the annual meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress. The attendance was the most representative in the history of the congress which was organized more than twenty years ago to aid the commercial development of the West. Many of the delegations today were headed by the governors of their respective States. The governors and other distinguished visitors were given seats upon the platform and in the boxes, while the arena floor was reserved for the delegates who were arranged by States.

The programme of the first day's proceedings included the annual address by Col. F. W. Fleming of Kansas City, president of the Congress, who delivered his message at the opening session. The remainder of the session was taken up with the exchange of greetings, the roll call and the appointment of committees.

The session which began today will continue until Saturday. In recent years the Congress has broadened the scope of its activities and many of the subjects scheduled for discussion at the present session are of live interest not only to the trans-Mississippi territory but to the country at large. Former Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island is here to address the congress on the subject of monetary reform. Arnold Shanklin, consul general of Mexico will speak on the cultivation of trade relations with the southern republic and Lieutenant Goethals, U.S.A., will tell of the progress of work on the Panama Canal. Governor Hadley of Missouri, Governor Stubbs of Kansas, Governor Shafroth of Colorado, Secretary of War Stimson and other public men of national prominence will be heard on a wide range of topics connected more or less directly with the country. The reclamation of western lands the transportation problem and the question of good roads are matters that have a foremost place in the agenda. Other matters that will receive attention are the development of the live stock industry, municipal government, technical and industrial education, insurance, the conservation of natural resources public health, and the development and use of inland waterways.

MINTO

Minto, Nov. 11.—On Nov. 4th the Orangemen of Queen's Blue, No. 25, held an oyster supper in their hall at Newcastle Bridge. After tea refreshments were sold and games indulged in. They cleared about $45.

The Famous Rayo Lamp

The best part of the day is the evening, when the whole family is gathered together around the lamp.

The old days of the smoky fireplace and flickering candle are gone forever. In their place have come the convenient oil stove and the indispensable Rayo Lamp.

There are to-day, in the United States alone, more than 3,000,000 of these Rayo lamps, giving their clear, white light to more than 3,000,000 homes.

Other lamps cost more, but you cannot get a better light than the low-priced Rayo gives. It has become so popular we may almost call it "the official lamp of the American family."

The Rayo is made of solid brass, with handsome nickel finish—an ornament anywhere. Ask your dealer for a Rayo lamp; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of been down to her old home.

The Imperial Oil Company, Limited

We are sorry to hear that the May Queen makes her last trip today.

About a dozen boys and girls gave Miss Mabel Bauer a pleasant surprise on Wednesday evening when they all walked in to spend the evening with her. A very pleasant evening was spent in playing games and music. Just before lunch Douglas Horton presented Miss Bauer with a silver mounted handbag on behalf of those present. Miss Bauer has been visiting her brother Mr. Harry Bauer for a few weeks. She intends returning to her home in Moncton on Saturday.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley returned to Ottawa last night from St. John.

An English Chemist Has Discovered How to Grow Hair

In England the ladies have entirely abandoned wearing rats, which is due entirely to this new discovery.

It has been proven that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.

The Americans are now placing on the market a preparation containing the extract from Henna leaves, which is having a phenomenal sale.

This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. Ryan, your druggist is the first to import this preparation into Fredericton and a large, generous bottle can be purchased for 50c.

THE DOUBLE CROSS

I began donning the uniform, while the padre told me how he had learned of Felipe's whereabouts.

"Swastika," he said, "received a note this evening from Bartolome. A cargador brought it out from Guanajuato. The note said that Bartolome had forced his wife to confess that Felipe was a prisoner in the house—having been brought there by Ruiz last night and held there under the watchful eye of Senora Bartolome."

"Which shows," I said, "that he has enticed her virtually as a prisoner—and hence not as a free agent, as I had supposed, aboard of the very train on which he brought me up to Guanajuato."

I then told the padre of the conversation I had overheard between Felipe and Joaquin at the railroad station at Mexico City.

"No, she was not a prisoner then," the padre said. "Joaquin had told her that the Aztecs had captured you and had taken you up to La Luz—thus luring her away from Mexico City. Bartolome's wife, it seems, is an evil woman. For the gold that Joaquin gave her she received Felipe into her house—for Joaquin enticed Felipe there by telling her that you had escaped and taken refuge there."

Bartolome, helpless on his sick bed, felt that something wrong was taking place in his home—and forced his wife to confess the truth. He immediately sent a cargador out to Swastika with the note of which I have told you."

"But now," the padre added, anxiously, "I do not know how I am to get you away from the hacienda."

"By the door opening on the trail," I said. "Yaqui, the mayor-domo, has the key. And oh, padre, let me think. If—"

"But the Aztecs, hidden from sight, are watching that door," the padre protested.

"That's the flaw in their plans," I said. "When they see an officer come out, they will suppose he entered by the patio door and is leaving thus by the door on the trail. Now, padre, if I get safely away from here—and if I come safely out of the fight to get Felipe out of Joaquin's hands—then I'll make straight for San Luis Felipe and will need some one to guide me to San Luis Felipe. Yaqui knows the trail—I'll take him."

"Yes, Yaqui is friendly to you," the padre assented. "I'll see him at once."

"And tell him," I said, "to saddle a black horse for me—so I'll carry out the Black Cavalry idea—and bring that horse and his own to this outer door and open it with his key. And tell Yaqui to bring two revolvers."

I spent an anxious quarter of an hour, and then Yaqui opened the door and at once handed me the revolver. I stepped out and mounted a black horse, all with an appearance of taking my time, and off Yaqui and I started down the trail.

Once again I was free. An Aztec crossed the road in front of us—but in the dark he beheld merely Yaqui and an officer of cavalry. And as we proceeded, another and yet another Aztec loomed up in the road, but none challenged us.
