VICTORY FOR GOVERNMENT IS ALREADY ASSURED

Tories Practically Admit that Their Cause is Hopeless--See no Chance of Making Gains in the Maritime Provinces--Their Only Hope is Ontario but Liberals are Confident of Dividing that Province on Reciprocity

Ottawa, Aug. 1.—Earl Grey left again today for Murray Bay, where he is spending the summer. The governor general returned to Ottawa last week at the instance of the Prime Minister for the purpose of dissolving parliament. His excellency will probably spend this month at the summer resort and all orders-in-council will have to be forwarded there for his signature.

Alex. Haggart who represented Winnipeg in the Conservative interest in the recent parliament left tonight for his home for his home. Previous to his departure Mr. Haggart while not at present prepared to make a definite statement, intimated that he would not again be a candidate at the forthcoming election. The Conservative candidate will probably be J. A. M. Aitken, who has considerable money wherewith to gratify his political ambitions. Despite Hon. Robert Borden's flamboyant declarations at Montreal it is stated on good authority that the Manitoba minister will not be a federal candidate.

TORIES HAVE LITTLE HOPE.

The hopes of the Conservatives are gradually being narrowed down to Ontario. Reports from the maritime province members have not been very encouraging and it is frankly stated by Mr. Borden's eastern followers that they do not hope for a gain of more than three or four seats at the most in the three eastern provinces against this may be set off Liberal predictions of at least an equal number of gains. In regard to western Canada even the most optimistic of Mr. Borden's followers will not predict anything more than that they will come back with as many supporters as they have now. Against this is the Liberal claim that the prairie provinces will go almost solidly for reciprocity and that at least three or four of the seats now held by supporters of Mr. Borden will be won by pro-reciprocity candidates.

In British Columbia only two seats are now held by the Liberals and at the very best the opposition can therefore not hope for much from this source. The Liberals on the other hand have good hopes of winning Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster in addition to holding their present seats.

NO CHANCE IN QUEBEC

Quebec, the opposition members frankly declare, is an uncertain quantity and so far as the straight opposition candidates go they do not expect to do any more than hold their own. Any hopes they have in regard to this province are based on the Nationalists, and as has already been announced, the Nationalist campaign is neither against reciprocity nor for the purpose of putting Conservatives into power.

The best informed Liberals declare that there is no question but that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will come back with just as strong, if not stronger, support from the province than he has at present.

To win the necessary twenty odd seats to defeat the government, therefore, the opposition must look almost wholly to Ontario. The campaign funds and the chief energies of the party will be directed toward this province, while in the other provinces it is practically a case of hoping that "What we have we'll hold."

From the Liberal standpoint a gain of twenty seats for the Conservatives in Ontario is an absolute impossibility with reciprocity as the issue. On this issue the Ontario ministers and the members who have been in close touch with their constituents during the past few months confidently declare that they can win a majority of the seats.

The chief hope of the opposition is now turning to the influence of the provincial Conservative governments and strong pressure is being brought to bear on Sir James Whitney to forsake the somewhat non-committal attitude of the past in regard to an entangling alliance with the federal Conservatives and jump into the fight with the full resources of the provincial organization and the prestige of a large majority in the local house behind him. Sir James is on the horns of a dilemma. If he joins forces actively with the federal Conservatives he is sure to antagonize that large section of the Ontario electorate which it is his boast to say votes for him in the provincial election, although for Sir Wilfrid in the federal election. He has no desire to sacrifice any support in this direction, a support to which he has frankly attributed his continuance in power. On the other hand, he is being strongly urged on grounds of party loyalty and in view of his great majority in the legislature to take the risk and give Mr. Borden practically the only hope he can now look for to defeat the government. As yet Sir James has not decided to take the risk and in view of all the circumstances it is a pretty safe prediction to say that he is too astute a politician to do so.

THE CRUISER NIOBE BADLY DAMAGED

Clark's Harbor, N.S., Aug. 1.—The Niobe remains at a sheltered anchorage in the outer harbor here, twelve miles from the scene of the accident, since Sunday night when the ship was brought to that position. Pumps have been kept working steadily but in spite of the efforts of the divers to stop the leak and the assistance from Lady Ladrer, standing by, the water is slowly gaining on them and the ship is settling by the stern, this evening, it being not more than ten feet above the surface.

Three hundred boys, who were put ashore here at an early hour Sunday and subsequently returned to the ship were dispatched to Halifax by train today on three weeks' leave. Most of the crew are still on board.

There is a depth of seven fathoms where the Niobe is anchored. About three-quarters of a mile off West Head a red flag has been set half way between the ship and the shore, marking the most suitable spot to beach her if it comes to the worst, in some six fathoms of water with a smooth, muddy bottom.

The weather continues clear and fine. The Niobe is in no danger except from the yawning holes in her hull, one of which is twenty-five feet long and ten feet wide.

A GREAT OFFER.

The Daily Mail will be mailed to any address from now until the 1st of October for only twenty-five cents. The Mail is the leading Liberal newspaper of central New Brunswick and will contain the latest and most reliable political news.

Chatham World—Our amiable but somewhat frivolous Fredericton contemporary, The Mail, fancies that the editor of this independent paper was on a woodboat cruise when a tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's honor and purity of private life found its way into the Chatham World. Our Celestial friend has failed to take the measure of the man who controls this paper. The tribute in question was carefully read and approved by him before it was published. We endorse every word of it. What weight would attach to our criticisms of Sir Wilfrid's policy if we foolishly tried to blacken his blameless private life?

(It is good to know that there is one sensible Tory editor in the country.)

ANOTHER ARREST IN DYNAMITING CASE

Los Angeles, Aug. 1.—George Bohn, of Portage, Wis., uncle of Orrie McManigal, confessed dynamiter and confederate of the McNamara brothers, was arrested last night on a citation issued at the request of the Grand Jury, charging contempt. Bohn had been before the Grand Jury during the day and like Mrs. McManigal refused to testify.

MEN BADLY NEEDED

A conference was held in Winnipeg lately between Deputy Ministers of Agriculture for provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan and the Dominion Government Commissioner of Immigration dealing with the question of harvest laborers needed this year and most conservative estimates place the number from 40000 to 45000. Government reports show that winter wheat in Alberta and earlier districts in South Saskatchewan and Manitoba will commence cutting before August 10th and harvesting will be in full swing by August 15th and 10th. The railway companies are taking action to co-operate with a view to obtaining the necessary labor, and in this connection the General Agent of the Grand Trunk Pacific advises that that company can take care of 40000 or 50000 along their line by August 8th and 9th, and commencing August 15th as fast as they can be obtained.

HEARD ON THE PHONE

"Hello, is that you Colonel? This is O. S. Crockett speaking from McAdam. I am coming home on the noon train. Do you think it would be too much trouble for you to get up some kind of a welcome for me? I think some of the boys would turn out and I would be willing to pay for a band. You know it would have a good effect on the public."

The Colonel—"I have other fish to fry this morning and would suggest that you ring up Guthrie; he usually looks after that sort of thing. I suppose you want to be re-elected, don't you? Then don't try to saddle any extra work upon my shoulders."
