FROM THE RURAL DISTRICTS

HAWKSHAW.

Feb. 19—The people of this vicinity are enjoying fine weather at present and looking forward for the warm days of spring.

The lumbering operations on the Pokioke are progressing extensively, the York and Sunbury Milling Co. being the principal operator.

Our new mail carrier, Mr. Grant is serving the public very acceptably.

Mr. H. L. Morse, our well known harness maker is kept very busy. He has two assistants and is also running a barber shop.

Mr. T. M. Brewer is greatly improving the appearance of his store by adding some new shelves to make room for the spring millinery.

We all enjoy visiting J. F. Allan's new store and expect soon to see a large supply of spring goods.

Mrs. J. A. McIntyre and little son Charlie of St. John are guests at the Riverdale Hotel.

Dr. J. A. McIntyre has an extensive practise and is well liked, by the people.

The Hawkshaw Rink is all the rage. It is open every Wednesday and Saturday night and gives the young people a chance to spend the evenings enjoyably. All are looking forward to the 17th inst. for the masquerade.

Miss Margaret Palmer has a friend visiting her from Boston.

POKIOK

Feb. 19—Little has been published about this place in the past and as neighboring communities have been pruning themselves in the public view it might be mentioned that Pokioke has a few attractions worthy of mention.

Pokioke Falls, second only to the Grand Falls on the St. John River are capable of supplying unlimited power.

We have large lumber camps running on the Pokioke Stream, two belonging to Gilman Bro. & Burden, who also run the large mill and woodworking factory at the head of the falls. Daniel D. Gilman senior partner of the firm looks after the management of the work.

We are glad to report the recovery of Neimia Gilman who has been ill.

William Clair and sons are supplying the greater part of the neighborhood with wood.

Mr. Foster Burnett is recovering from his slight illness.

We are also glad to hear of the recovery of Mabel Burnett, daughter of Wesley Burnett.

We miss three of our most popular young men from the place this winter, Edward Burden, who is sealing in Quebec, Howard Sharpe, attending High School in Woodstock and John Sharpe, also in Woodstock.

The young people thoroughly enjoy the fine skating in the rink. It is open every Wednesday and Saturday nights. Pokioke can boast of some fine skaters, girls included.

One of the local merchants T. M. Brewer is adding a few repairs to his store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burden entertained Mr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilman at tea last Wednesday night.

Mr. Ralph Brooks and Miss Helen Sharpe of Upper Southampton attended the rink last Saturday night.

Mr. John Allen now occupies his fine new residence in connection with his new store.

Alex. Sharpe and Earnest Hall, who are working in Woodstock, spend, almost every Sunday with their families.

THE BARONY.

Feb. 19—The ladies of this place have organized a Women's Missionary Aid Society, and have a sewing circle in connection. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Pickard.

The next meeting will be held on the first Saturday in March at the home of the treasurer, Miss A. G. Kirk.

Mrs. Cahill Haugh spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Courser at Prince William.

Deacon John Haugh, who has been confined to his bed for nearly three years, remains in about the same condition.

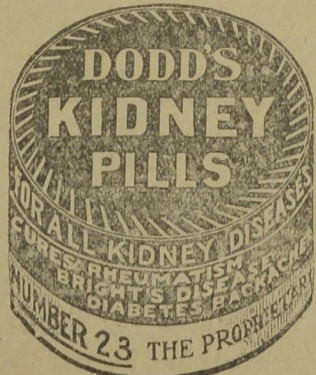

Miss Mima Folster has charge of the school at Lower Dumfries.

Miss McMurray of Lake George, has the school in this district.

Mrs. Margaret Davidson has been ill for the past week.

Miss Susie Ebbett is spending a few weeks in Fredericton.

Mr. Clifford Gerow of Meductic, is spending the week-end with his grandfather, Mr. G. W. Ebbett.

Mr. John Anderson, who has been confined to his home since his sad bereavement last fall, was able to enjoy a drive on Saturday. His many friends were glad to see him so much improved.

Miss Beatrice Kirk entertained the little girl's Sewing Circle on Saturday. They will meet next time with the Ladies' Aid.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lockhart are spending a few days with Mrs. Lockhart's sister, Mrs. Wm. Scott at Canterbury.

Mrs. Lewis Huestis of Nackawick, was calling on friends here last week.

LOWER PRINCE WILLIAM.

Feb. 16—Mrs. William Lounsbury is visiting friends in Dumfries.

Mrs. Annie Hoyt went to Fredericton yesterday to spend a few days.

Mrs. Joslin entertained the Ladies' Missionary Circles last Thursday.

Mrs. Cahill Haugh, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Courser, returned to The Barony last Sunday.

Our pastor, Rev. C. N. Barton, is enjoying a short vacation with his mother in Queens County.

Miss Beatrice Lounsbury is a victim of the German measles.

Mr. Alvin Lawrence and Miss Ada Jordan spent Monday evening with Miss Ethel Hoyt.

Miss Strange, who has been visiting Mrs. W. W. Boddy, returned to Burden this week.

Mr. Frank Segee has removed his family here from Canterbury, and is living with his uncle, Mr. David Burden.

Mr. Gordon Boddy has returned from the lumber woods.

Miss Elizabeth Clindinin, our popular teacher, went to the city this afternoon.

HARVEY STATION

Harvey Station, Feb. 16—Margaret J. Fanjoy wife of Wallace D. Fanjoy died at her home at Cambridge Mass. On Monday she had been suffering from an attack of pneumonia but had made considerable progress towards evening and was able to be about when she was taken suddenly ill again and passed away in a few minutes. She was a native of Harvey being a daughter of Walter Percy. She had been a resident of Cambridge for the past twenty years but formerly resided at Fairville, and at Milkish, Kings Co. of which place her husband is a native she was in the 51st year of her age and is survived by her husband and three daughters, besides her aged father and a number of sisters and brothers.

The remains arrived here Wednesday morning, accompanied by her husband and two daughter the Misses Gladys and Edith Fanjoy and were taken to the residence of her brother Walter Percy, Jr. where the funeral took place yesterday afternoon the funeral which was conducted by Rev. M. J. Macpherson was very largely attended. Interment was in the cemetery at Manner-Sutton.

Deceased was a lady of exemplary character and was of a bright and cheerful disposition and had many friends here and elsewhere who will bear of her death with deep regret.
