THE DAILY MAIL, FREDERICTON, N. B. MONDAY SEPTEMBER 11 1911

	THE PROPERTY POPULA
e Daily Mail	READ THEM BOTH	"BURN DOWN YOUR CITIES AND LEAVE YOUR FARMS AND THE	NEPLITY RETURNING	SEDTEMPED OIL, 1011
				SEPTEMBER 8th; 1911
	Mr. Louis Boyer, a French Cana-	CITIES WILL GROW UP AGAIN AS IF BY MAGIC; BUT BURN DOWN	OFFICERS ANNOUNCED	TI TYTT TI A
had overs oftennoon (exect	dian Liberal candidate in Jacques	YOUR FARMS AND LEAVE YOUR		laba Maddall PC and every alternoon (except	Cartier constituency and a follower	CITIES AND GRASS WILL GROW	Mr. A. A. Sterling, returning offi-	Innn I VVPnnnii Ar Son
y) at No. 613 Queen Street by	of Fir Wilfrid Laurier, publicly ex-	IN THE STREETS OF EVERY	cer for the County of York for the	John J. Weddall & Son
MAIL PUBLISHING COM-	pressed himself as follows the other	CITY IN THIS COUNTRY." Ex-	general Dominion election to be held
, Jimited.	day:-		Thursday, September 21st, announces
LD FRASER, President	"Though I am a French Canadian,	who is to be at the Opera House	the appointment of the following
	I have as many English-speaking	tonight.	deputy returning officers for the va-	SHINE UP FOR THE EXHIBITION
SUBSCRIPTION.	friends. I believe that the only way	In 1910 Canada exported bacon and	rious polling divisions of the Coun-	A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A to build up Canada is for the Eng-	hams to the value of $6,847,225. Yet onth, by carrier,$.35	lish-speaking and French races to	in that same year it imported from	Fredericton, Poll No. 1, E. R. Golding.	Vou will work to be the state of the state o months, by carrier, 1.00	dwell in unity and join in developing	the United States bacon and hams to		You will want to look your best, and have your house in order, for conths, by carrier, 2.00	her resources.	to the value of $516,042. If there is	Rvan.	our Big Fall Exhibition W/a comme lange source for 1
	"I believe that every good Cana-	anything in the Tory argument that a country which has a surplus of any	Fredericton, Poll No. 1, Joseph	our Big Fall Exhibition. We carry a large range of what you may need in
ear. by carrier, 4.00	dian can take hold of the old flag	particular product will not import	Walker.	Loss Custoine Custoin Materil D 1' I' I O'II al Die ear, by mail, 2.00		that product then how is it that	Fredericton, Poll No. 1, J. W.	Lace Curtains, Curtain Materials, Portiers, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Blinds,
	The second s	Canadal imports so largely of hams	McCready.
on the, by mail, 1.00	Mr Blandin IM D in the fast	and bacon from the United States?	Fredericton, Poll No. 2, C. A.	Curtain Poles, Etc.
ress all communications to	House of Commons and a follower of		Sampson.	and the branching of the second se
MAIL PUBLISHING COM-	Messrs. Borden and Bourassa, has	According to the trade returns Canada imported from Great Britain	Fredericton, Poll No. 2, H. E.	Also a Mamiliant American to f
COM-	publicly expressed himself as follows:	last year $1066 worth of bacon,	Harrison. Fredericton, Poll No. 2, W. J.	Also, a Magnificent Assortment of in and the first state of the		$1514 worth of butter, $22,487 worth	Osborne.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~	"We will not be made to forget	of cheese, and meats to the value of	Fredericton, Poll No. 2, W. A.	Table Napkins, Table Damask, Doilies, Tray Cloths, Runners, Towellings, icton, N.B., September 11 1911	that ih 1837 it was neressary to	$74,840, and $110,072 worth of vege-	Walsh.	White Quilte Colored Ority DI L T II OI OF DU bore holes in it (the English flag) in	tables. It looks as if Great Britain	New Maryland, Poll No. 3, John	White Quilts, Colored Quilts, Blankets, Tackdowns, Sheets, Pillow order to breathe the air of liberty.	was something of an exporting na-	Greer.
	The English have never done any-	12011.	Kingsclear, Poll No. 4, John Bur-	Cases, Bath Towels, Bath Mats.
	thing for the French Canadians. We	Canada exported fast year sneep	nett.
The second the second second	do not owe them anything. The only	and lambs to the value of $616,340 of	Kingsclear, Poll No. 4, F. W. Haliberties we have enjoyed have been	which the United States took $574	theway. Cork Settlement, Poll No. 5, Wm.	We are fully prepared for large or small orders
Ser	snatched, England has sowed the	679 worth. We exported $7804 worth	Murphy.	Special Prizze to LI 11 1D
	world with hatred, quarrels and wars	of logs of which the United States	Brockway, Poll No. 6, Frank H.	Special Prices to Hotels and Restaurants
	We have had enough of England and	horses to the value of $553,897, of	Vail.
	the English,"	which $453,186 went to the United	Harvey, Poll No. 7, John W. Tay-	FORMAL ENTEDDATE O CON
ALL TECHNIC AND		States.	lor.	MITTIN I WANNALL & SIM
	Ond of these man is a follower of		Blaney Ridge, Poll No, 8, Joseph	JOHN J. WEDDALL & SON
	Sir Wilfrid Laurier; the other a fol-	Mr. Frank deL Clements, a life	McCutcheon.
	and a total of the other & tot-	land Change in the cromonol, of the		Ci I I D II
GITTINE	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor-	long Conservative has taken the	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9,	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
GETRAW	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re-	long Conservative has taken the	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9,	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves lower of Messts, Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re-	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
WINION ELECTION	lower of Messrs, Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam. Poll No. 11, Walter Ge-	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
WINION ELECTION	lower of Messrs, Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
WINION ELECTION	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance.	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
VINION ELECTION	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Staticn, Poll No. 13,	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling pecause Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that he is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Bichard H. Scott	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that boy is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to-	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that help is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and Tue	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling occause Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that hd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoges are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that he is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser-	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail: it is not likely to appear in	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke.	Standard Patterns Reynier Gloves
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that boy is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffic-	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail: it is not likely to appear in	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York ED B. ATHERTON, M. D.	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble favors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views on reciprocity through the	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York ED B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble favors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views on reciprocity through the madium of this most excellent journel	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York ED B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatogs are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster ( and th. ow mud to its hearts	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatogs are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre-	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble favors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." w mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Foll No. 172, W. T.Day
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling occause Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that hd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. [Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster ( and th." w mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact.	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoges are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate was	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [±] , W. [†] T.Bay Marysville, Poll No. 17 [±] , E. A.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA THE PARTING OF THE	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that box is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his dusiness and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- ciknt independence to make public his viewed on reciprocity through the madium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." Mud to its hearts content but it cannot get a way from that potent fact.	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private are and	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [±] / ₂ , E. A. Tapley.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA T THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bij is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cknt independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the macdium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." Number of its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact.	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoges are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate was	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , W. [†] T.Day Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. [†] Apley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA IT THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bij is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cknt independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the macdium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." Mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact.	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [±] / ₂ , E. A. Tapley.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA IT THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bij is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cknt independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the madium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." A mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatogs are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trip to Montreal.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , W. T.Day Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA F THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM IRE PREPARED TO MEET	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that box is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his Jusiness and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his viewed on reciprocity through the madium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." Mud to its hearts content but it cannot get away from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunjury and Queenin are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17½, E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L.	A door-closer without the slam
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA IT HE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE IS TALKING WHAT HE IS TALKING I. I WOULD SAY TO HIM IRE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster and this will be act any from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoges are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taynouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane.	A door-closer without the slam -powerful, positive, gentle. No fractured doors,
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA T THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM IRE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." W mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queening are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years and earned the respect of people of	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatogs are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trip to Montreal.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Shel-	A door-closer without the slam -powerful, positive, gentle. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE IS TALKING I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE IS TALKING I. I WOULD SAY TO HIM LIRE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP DUR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that boy is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views! on reciprocity through the madium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." w mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queenin are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years and earned the respect of people of all shadow of politics. Why is he not	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatogs are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trip to Montreal.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Shel- don Howland.	A door-closer without the slam -powerful, positive, gentle. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and hinges where the Blount Door Check
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA F THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM RE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP UR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND HALL KEEP TO OURS.'	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling occause Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that he is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. [Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the machium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." Mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years and earned the respect of people of all shades of politics. Why is he not the party candidate on this occa-	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal. Local restaurant keepers who im- port oysters from the United States in bulk will be able to save money under Reciprocity. At least this is the opinion of one of the number	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taynouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 21, John	A door-closer without the slam -powerful, positive, gentle. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA T THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM IRE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP OUR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND HALL KEEP TO OURS.' HAS BEEN SAID THAT THIS EMENT WILL LEAD TO AN-	lower of Messis. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling occause Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that hd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. [Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." wind to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years and earned the respect of people of all shades of politics. Why is he not the party candidate on this occa- sion? Because he was buncoed out	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal. Local restaurant keepers who im- port oysters from the United States in bulk will be able to save money under Reciprocity. At least this is the opinion of one of the number who has always voted the Conserva- tive ticket.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas. E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 21, John Hayes.	A door-closer without the slam -powerful, positive, gente. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and hinges where the Blound Door Check does the closing. A quick swing up to
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA IT HE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM IRE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP UR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND HALL KEEP TO OURS.' HAS BEEN SAID THAT THIS EMENT WILL LEAD TO AN- TION. PRESIDENT TAFT	lower of Messis. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling occause Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that hd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. [Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." wind to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens and earned the respect of people of all shades of politics. Why is he not the party candidate on this occa- sion? Because he was bunced out of the nomination by Premier Hazen	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal. Local restaurant keepers who im- port oysters from the United States in bulk will be able to save money under Reciprocity. At least this is the opinion of one of the number who has always voted the Conserva- tive ticket.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taynouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , W. T. Day Marysville, Poll No. 17 [‡] , E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 21, John Hayes. Bright, Back, Poll No. 22, Henry	A door-closer without the slam -powerful, positive, gentle. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and hinges where the Blount Door Check does the closing. A quick swing push-
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA IT THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM RE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP UR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND HALL KEEP TO OURS.' HAS BEEN SAID THAT THIS EMENT WILL LEAD TO AN- TION. PRESIDENT TAFT SAID SEVERAL TIMES THAT	lower of Messis. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. []Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in Politics but he had suffi- cknt independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the machium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." Mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years and earned the respect of people of all shades of politics. Why is he not the party candidate on this occa- sion? Because he was buncoed out of the nomination by Premier Hazen and A. R. Slipp. It is not surpris-	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoes are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal. Local restaurant keepers who im- port oysters from the United States in bulk will be able to save money under Reciprocity. At least this is the opinion of one of the number who has always voted the Conserva- tive ticket.	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 17½, E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 21, John Hayes. Bright, Back, Poll No. 22, Henry Burtt.	A door-closer without the slam -powerful, positive, gente. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and hinges where the Blount Door Check does the closing. A quick swing up to that's the way it works. There is a
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE PARTING OF THE WAYS IT BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA F THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM RE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP UR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND HALL KEEP TO OURS.' HAS BEEN SAID THAT THIS EMENT WILL LEAD TO AN- TION. PRESIDENT TAFT SAID SEVERAL TIMES THAT E WAS NO SUCH INTENTION	lower of Messis. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. []Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in Politics but he had suffi- cknt independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the machium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." Mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years and earned the respect of people of all shades of politics. Why is he not the party candidate on this occa- sion? Because he was buncoed out of the nomination by Premier Hazen and A. R. Slipp. It is not surpris- ing, therefore, that Mr. Wilmot's many friends are not working with	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoges are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal. Local restaurant keepers who im- port oysters from the United States in bulk will be able to save money under Reciprocity. At least this is the opinion of one of the number who has always voted the Conserva- tive ticket. Mr. Frank deL. Clements a life long Conservative will put country before party in this election and	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 174, E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 174, W. T.Day Marysville, Poll No. 174, E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Cornsr, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Cornsr, Poll No. 20, Shel- don Howland. McNutt's Mills, Poll No. 21, John Hayes. Bright, Back, Poll No. 23, C. W	A door-closer without the slam. -powerful, positive, gentle. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and hinges where the Blount Door Check does the closing. A quick swing up to the closing point, then a steady push- that's the way it works. There is a Blount Door Check for every door.
ng Sept. 21 st iprocity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE PARTING OF THE WAYS THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM RE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP UR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND HALL KEEP TO OURS.'' HAS BEEN SAID THAT THIS EMENT WILL LEAD TO AN- TION. PRESIDENT TAFT SAID SEVERAL TIMES THAT E WAS NO SUCH INTENTION HE PART OF THE FRAMERS	lower of Messrs. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling because Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that bd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. []Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in Politics but he had suffi- cknt independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the machium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." w mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens are doing the shouting, while Col. McLean and his friends are doing the work. Mr. R. D. Wilmot represented Sunbury and Queens for twenty years and earned the respect of people of all shades of politics. Why is he not the party candidate on this occa- sion? Because he was buncoed out of the nomination by Premier Hazen and A. R. Slipp. It is not surpris- ing, therefore, that Mr. Wilmot's	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoges are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to day by both The Mail and Ting Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal. Local restaurant keepers who im- port oysters from the United States in bulk will be able to save money under Reciprocity. At least this is the opinion of one of the number who has always voted the Conserva- tive ticket. Mr. Frank deL. Clements a life long Conservative will put country before party in this election and vote for reciprocity. The ingenity of	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17½, E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 21, John Hayes. Bright, Back, Poll No. 23, C. W Estey.	The active activ
ng Sept. 21 st procity Candidate for York D. B. ATHERTON, M. D. PARTING OF THE WAYS THE BE TRUE THAT PRESI- TAFT SAYS THAT CANADA THE PARTING OF THE I WOULD SAY TO PRESI- TAFT THAT HE DOES NOT WHAT HE IS TALKING F. I WOULD SAY TO HIM RE PREPARED TO MEET ON BUSINESS, BUT IF YOU TO TALK POLITICS KEEP UR SIDE OF THE LINE, AND HALL KEEP TO OURS.' HAS BEEN SAID THAT THIS EMENT WILL LEAD TO AN- TION. PRESIDENT TAFT SAID SEVERAL TIMES THAT E WAS NO SUCH INTENTION	lower of Messis. Bourassa and Bor- den. What do you think of the re- spective doctrines? What do you think of the Borden-Bourassa alli- ance. The Tory organ is still growling occause Mr. W. J. Noble recently stated in an interview in the Mail that hd is in favor of reciprocity. Mr. [Noble fayors reciprocity because it will benefit him in his business and that will strike most men as being a fairly good and sufficient reason for supporting it. Mr. Noble is a Conser- vative in politics but he had suffi- cient independence to make public his views] on reciprocity through the medium of this most excellent journal of the fireside. The hack organ can bluster / and th." W mud to its hearts content but it cannot get "way from that potent fact. The Tories in Sunbury and Queens and earned the respect of people of all shades of politics. Why is he not the party candidate on this occa- sion? Because he was bunced out of the nomination by Premier Hazen and A. R. Slipp. It is not surpris- ing, therefore, that Mr. Wilmot's many friends are not working with the tories are not working with	long Conservative has taken the stump for reciprocity in York. He is a successful farmer and the largest potato shipper in the province. His views on the great question should carry as much weight as those of the Hazen government office holders, who are barnstorming against the pact. A Canadian Associated Press des- patch today states that potatoges are selling at $1.10 per barrel in the field. This despatch was received to- day by both The Mail and The Gleaner. It is published in The Mail; it is not likely to appear in The Gleaner. Sir William VanHorn and Hon. J. K. Flemming are to appear on the same platform at St. John tonight. The last time the Provincial Secre- tary appeared on the same platform with the C. P. R. magnate, was when he boarded his private car and made a trin to Montreal. Local restaurant keepers who im- port oysters from the United States in bulk will be able to save money under Reciprocity. At least this is the opinion of one of the number who has always voted the Conserva- tive ticket. Mr. Frank deL. Clements a life long Conservative will put country before party in this election and	Prince William, Front, Poll No. 9, George W. Hoyt. Dumfries, Poll No. 10, George W. Ebbett. McAdam, Poll No. 11, Walter Ge- han. Canterbury, Front, Poll No. 12, Gordon G. Grant. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, John Lundon. Canterbury Station, Poll No. 13, Richard H. Scott. North Lake, Poll No. 14, Robert W. Clarke. Nashwaak Village, Poll No. 15, Luther Goodspeed. Taymouth, Poll No. 16, William Munroe. Gibson, Poll No. 17, WhitmanBre- wer. Gibson, Poll No. 17, H. H. Pickard Marysville, Poll No. 17½, E. A. Tapley. Penniac, Poll No. 18, John R. Bar ter. Nashwaaksis, Poll No. 19, Wm. L. McFarlane. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 20, Chas, E. Inch. Burtt's Corner, Poll No. 21, John Hayes. Bright, Back, Poll No. 23, C. W Estey. Queensbury, Back, Poll No. 24, Jes-	A door-closer without the slam. -powerful, positive, gentle. No fractured doors, shattered glass or crippled locks and hinges where the Blount Door Check does the closing. A quick swing up to the closing point, then a steady push- that's the way it works. There is a Blount Door Check for every door.

MAKE NO MISTAKE, WE The Hazen government are taking WANT TO SELL YOU OUR HORSES steps to have a survey made for a Sudbury, Ont.

4

Th

Publi Sunda THE PAN DON -----

One 1 Three Six 1 One One Six r Add THE PANY -----Frede

DO

Nom Polli Rec

ALFR

THE ....

IF DENT IS WAYS DEN KNOW ABOU WE YOU WAN' TO YO WE S IT AGRE NEXA HAS THEF ON T OF T UNIT MEAN

MR. SIFTON'S APOSTACY

Nemesis, in the form of a speech highsouled "patriot" has been tour-ing the country denouncing Recipro-city betting the higher drive is included by the men who give employ-Mr. Kelly Evans, of Toront of 'trading with the United States. erton and reriprocity. In particular did he warn Camadians Sir William Van Horne whose pri- the prospective Cabinet Minister. against the aggressions of "Jim" vate car has already figured in con-Hill, the great Northern Railway nection with the St. John Valley magnate Mr. Sifton seems to have Railway negotiations, is to speak at with it. As we have shown in a former faith in the Hazen government enterissue, Mr. Sifton spoke before the ing into a contract to construct a he used these words:

FAIR POSITION. FIRST OF ALL the classes and the masses. THERE MUST BE A CAMPAIGN

IT."

We wish our Tory friends joy cf Mr. Sifton. He has furnished fine let Mr. Sifton talk.

AND OUR HOGS, AND ALL OUR branch railway line from Fredericton didate in York is putting up a great 251, A. C. Whitehead. PRODUCTS, BUT IF YOU DON'T to Minto. Mr. Pinder has men at campaign. He addresses meetings Southampton, Front, Poll No. 26 WANT TO BUY THEM, AND THINK work building a spur line from Mill-THAT WE WILL SELL OUR NA-ville to Hawkshaw. Sir William Van from the strenuous work of the cam-trenuce Vale, Poll No. 27, Wm TIONALITY, YOU ARE WRONG. Horne, president of the Board of Di- paign. His chances for success are R. Fawcett. WE WANT TO WIDEN OUR TRADE rectors of the C.P.R. is stumping for improving daily. WITH THE UNITED STATES AS the Tories. In the meantime so far as MUCH AS POSSIBLE, BUT WE the St. John Valley Railway is con-WILL NOT SELL OUR BIRTH- cerbed there is nothing doing. Are Tories were building up a home mar-RIGHT.'-.-Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the electors of the river parishes of ket in New Brunswick under the Na-

York County going to allow them- tional Policy, the production of poselves to be fooled again?

The friends of reciprocity in York can win this election if they take off Bran new four dollar bills are in delivered at St. Paul on January 10-the close of the polls on September bright, and crisp and it ought to be 1903, has not been long in over- 21st, They have a good cause and in an easy matter for the farmers of ing to Fredericton Col. William J taking in Mr. Clifford Sifton. This Dr. Atherton they have a leader York and Sunbury to see one of Bryan, one of the most noted public million bushels.

city, beating the big drum of imper- ment to labor and provide home mar- has made several visits, to New hear his message. ialism and deprecating the very idea kets for the farmers are for Dr. Ath- Brunswick is the Tory opponent of Mr. Hugh Gutherie in South Welling-thought that he could get away with it As we have shown in a former in a former in the shown in a former in a former in the shown up the sponge.

Commercial club of St. Paul only railway down the St. John Valley to an eye on Sir William.

"I INDORSE ALL THAT MR. Sir William VanHorne is to speak HILL HAS SAID IN FAVOR OF in St. John on Monday evening or RECIPROCITY. I AM IN FAVOR behalf of the Tory candidates, and OF ANY TREATY THAT WOULD we are told by the Standard ; 'that GIVE THE CITIZENS OF BOTH he was never before been known to take part in an election campaign.'' COUNTRIES EQUAL ADVANTAGE Sir William is a millionaire and he CANADA IS READY TO MEET no doubt feels it his duty to live up THE UNITED STATES ON ANY with the other millionaires against

If the Dominion Government is OF EDUCATION IN THE STATES willing to construct a first class SOUTH OF THE BORDER STATES wharf for |.Fredericton it would seem AT PRESENT THE ADMINISTRA- to be the duty of the City Council to TION AT WASHINGTON FEELS deal with the matter in a business of Tory parti-THAT THE SENTIMENT OF THE zans who happen to be members of COUNTRY AT LARGE IS AGAINST the Council count for little in an important matter of this kind.

"You cannot crucify mankind on a cross of gold; you cannot press down material for the Liberals. Certainly upon the brow of labor a crown of thorns."-W. J. Bryan.

25. Albert Jordan Dr. Atherton, the Reciprocity can- Queensbury, Upper Front, Poll No.

Nortondale, Poll No. 28, Wm. Vey-

Between 1881 and 1891 when the say. Millville, Poll No. 29, E. H. Estey Bloomfield Ridge, Poll No. 30, Thos

H. Boies. Stanley Village, Poll No. 31, Jas tatoes in this province fell off by two G. Douglas

Cross Creek, Poll No. 2, Edward S. Thomas.

The Mail takes pleasure in welcommen in the United States. He is to lecture at the Opera House this Mr. Kelly Evans, of Toronto, who evening and everybody should go to

Nome, Alaska, Sept. 9-A fierce storm rapidly increaing in intensity is raging here with the surf running The young men who want to see up under the water front buildings eight years ago, and then and there parallel the C.P.R. had better keep New Brunswick get a move on should and flooding the streets. Several barg east their ballots for reciprocity. es have been driven ashore.

SHOEMAN

