Reed's Horses Captured Both Races Yesterday

Dimple K. Won Free-for-all in Straight Heats and Dan Q. did Same in 2.24 Mixed Classes Making Mark of 2-17 1-2--Gallagher Made Poor Showing--Bezanson and Brickley in Upset in 2.24

P.H. Reed's horses from Fort Fairfield won both Free-for-all and 2.24 Trot and Pace. Dimple K., the favorite took the Free-for-all in straight heats her best time being 8.15½. In the 2.24, Dan Q., also won in straight heats lowering his mark to 2.17¼. Gallagher the Halifax horse which had been strongly backed to win the Free-for-all made a poor showing.

The attendance was much better than on Tuesday and the spectators saw some interesting racing.

There was a slight accident in the first heat of the 2.24 but no great damage was done.

FREE-FOR-ALL.

Dimple K, which was strongly favored in the pool-selling, justified the confidence of her backers by capturing the first heat of the free-for-all. Gallagher, which also was strongly backed, did nothing in the heat, finishing in fifth position. Dimple K was driven in good style by Gerow, taking the lead on the back stretch of the first half and holding it until the finish. The excitement of the heat was furnished by the struggle for second position, Leonard Wilton, Pearl Peck and Oswego Boy finishing with hardly a head separating them. Strathleen Burns finished fifth, but was placed sixth, the judges deciding that she had helped her stable mate, Dimple K.

The second heat saw Dimple K getting away in the lead and keeping it with Pearl Peck sticking close to her sulky for the first half. The second lap saw the best racing of the day. Cummings drove Pearl Peck right to the wire and Chisholm, with Leonard Wilton, came up on the outside and was a good third. Gallagher again was no better than fifth.

The third heat was Dimple K's by a big margin but the racing was furnished by Oswego Boy and Pearl Peck struggling for second place, Oswego Boy winning by a nose, both drivers using their whips right to the wire. Gallagher made an attempt to come up in the first quarter of the heat but soon dropped out.

2:24 TROT AND PACE.

Dan Q Jr in the 2.24 mixed class, captured his race in straight heats. In the first heat he had little trouble although Homeland went a good heat and finished second with Lady Belmont with Mike Murphy driving, third. The excitement was furnished by Nate Alcyone swerving into Our Protien, which was driven by Bezanson. The mixup occurred in the first furlong. Bezanson made a hit with the crowd by straightening his sulky around and finishing. Nate Alcyone's sulky was badly smashed.

In the second heat Brickley made an effort in the first half to go up on the outside on the back stretch, after Lady Belmont broke badly. Bezanson drove Our Protien to a hard finish, beating Homeland out for second. The third heat was Dan'Q's without much trouble, but was the fastest of the race, the winner lowering his mark to 2:17¼. The horses were sent away after repeated scoring. Nate Alcyone pressed the winner hard right to the wire, making him go to the mark named.

HOULTON REDS SNOWED UNDER BY DUGGAN'S PETS

The Houlton Reds were snowed under here yesterday morning by the score 11 to 1. Fifteen hits for a total of twenty bases were made off Martini before Willey came to his relief in the eighth. Brown on the other hand had the Reds guessing all the way and when the game had been put on ice in the sixth, it was considered a waste of strength to keep him in the box, so Duggan came in from the outfield and essayed to put them over. "P. J." proved he had something on it, fanning two of his opponents and allowing only one hit in three innings.

The fielding of Houlton was decidedly off color, and the errors which are chalked up against them had their part in the run'getting.

Red Wildes at second and Keaney at short were the particular stars of the day each fielding eight chances in a faultless manner. "Red" also had three hits in four times up and a stolen base on his credit.

BASEBALL NOTES

Arthur Devlin, of the Boston Braves, is planning on taking a baseball team to Cuba next winter.

The Detroit Club has purchased Pitcher George (Rube) Boehler of the Newark, Ohio State League team.

It looks as if Bill Dahlen had guessed right when he added Frank Allen to Brooklyn's pitching staff.

Baseball teams of the Typographical Union will hold their annual tournament in Boston on August 20.

Manager Charlie Dooin is using "Cactus" Cravath as a pinch hitter for the Quakers and "Cactus" is some hitter.

Clyde Milan, of the Washington team, has the jump on all the big leaguers in the race for base stealing honors for the season.

Eddie Plank of the Athletics, and Joe Wood of the Red Sox, are engaged in a fancy tussle for the pitching honors in the American League.

The Cubs miss Mordecai Brown on their present eastern invasion. This is the first trip the three-fingered star has missed in many moons.

A few years ago the White Sox was known as the "Hitless Wonders." with not a man in the .300 class they are "hitless" still, but no longer "wonders."

The drafting season opens on Aug. 20, when the major league clubs will take their pick of minor league players at the following prices: Class A. A., $2,000; Class A, $1,500; Class B, $1,000; Class C, $750; Class D,

JOE PATCHEN ON HIS SIXTH STRAIGHT RACE AT PITSBURG

Pittsburg, Aug. 6—The infant trotters provided the feature of the Grand Circuit racing this afternoon, when Lord Allen and Nowaday Girl finished head and head in 2:13¼. The young stallion carried the decision over the filly and racing back in 2:15 just stalled off the local entry, Sweet Alice.

Joe Patchen II won his sixth straight race, showing a flash of his real ability by tramping through the stretch in every heat faster than a two-minute clip. Grand Opera drew up alongside of him once and hung for a few strides. When Fleming picked him up for a drive he was soon aroused and the way he tore away from the other Canadian horse was amazing.

Jones Gentry, a son of the once pacing king, John R. Gentry, won the 2:12 pace, as expected, but had to step the last half of the third mile in 1:00¼ to finish ahead of the little Boston stallion, Mansfield. The mile was in 2:05¼, stamping both racers first-class.

The Californian, Helen Stiles, while not in the best of humor, beat the other 2:08 trotters, but only because they were an ordinary lot.
