THE SPECIAL PRIZES HOTLY CONTESTED FOR

Miss Mary George of St. Mary's, Captures First, Mrs. W. Tom Murchie Second and Miss Helen McKinnon Third--Many Thousands of Votes were Cast and Others Came Very Close to the Winners

More than two hundred thousand votes were cast on Saturday in the tour contest when the ownership of the three special prizes was to be determined. These special prizes had been added to the tour contest that the ladies taking part might be enabled to secure a little spending money for use while away as well as winning a membership in the tour itself, and they were offered to the three contestants who should bring in the greatest amounts in cash subscriptions during the nine days intervening between Nov. 2 and 11, the votes to be cast or taken away as desired.

The winners were as follows. First--Miss Mary George, St. Mary's Second--Mrs. W. Tom Murchie, City Third--Miss Helen McKinnon, City.

The voting was heavy and many came close to the winners, among them being Miss Alice Hallett of Millville, Mrs. Ruth Walker of Penikese, Miss Ella Kelly of Burden, Miss Eliza Campbell of Springfield, Miss Nellie Cliff of Lower French Village, Miss Kate Miles of Up. Manguerville, Miss Yarra and Miller of the first district, Miss Bertha Fox of Southampton, Mrs. Judson Ferris of Lincoln, Miss Nellie Sheppard of Burt's Corner, Miss Myrtle Mitchell of Ormiston, Miss Anna May of F'ron Junction, Miss Mary Ingraham of Southampton, Miss Bertha Smith of Lincoln, Miss Lyde Randall of Lakeville Corner.

Some of those who went in to win polled all of their votes, others polled half and carried away the balance, and others polled no votes at all, so that a comparison of the printed score today, does not show exactly how many subscriptions were sent in, but simply how many votes were cast.

THREE NEW CANDIDATES

Three new candidates entered the contest during the week. They were: Mrs. Judson Ferris of Lincoln, Miss Nellie Sheppard of Burt's Corner and Mrs. W. Tom Murchie of Fredericton. Miss Lyde Randall of Lakeville Corner might also be classed as a new candidate as she has only this week become an active participant. Mrs. Murchie worked energetically all week and entered her name Saturday with enough votes to make her a leader in district No. 2, and also capture second in the special prizes.

While the special prize contest was an interesting one which induced many of the young ladies to get busy early, the winning or losing of these prizes is not to be taken as an indication or probable forecast of the winners in the final dash for the tour. Some of those who brought in the bulk of their subscriptions before the special prize contest started may have to their credit for the final more votes than those who won the special prizes this week. These three prizes were offered to make the contest more interesting and to bring out the reserve subscriptions and are not to be taken too seriously by those who lost. Another set of specials will be offered tomorrow, of a like amount, and as the winners of the first set will not be eligible to compete for the second there will be three entirely new winners.

HOW TO HELP YOUR FAVORITE CANDIDATE WIN A MEMBERSHIP IN THE TOUR

Votes are issued on cash payments of subscriptions as follows

YUAN SHI KAI ENTERS PEKING

Strong Man of China Returns to Take up the Duties of Premier

Was Driven out in Disgrace Three Years ago--Another City Goes to Revolutionists

(Canadian Press.)

Peking, Nov. 13.--Yuan Shi Kai, accompanied by 2,000 troops, today made a triumphant entry into the capital, from which he was driven in disgrace three years ago.

"The news that 'the strong man of China' had at last been prevailed upon to return and give the tottering throne the benefit of his counsels, leaked out before his arrival and a vast but silent and orderly crowd lined the route from the railway station to the temple which had been provided for his residence. Yuan looked hale and hearty, his appearance belying the recent reports of his physical condition, which had been excuse for his delay in obeying the imperial command to come to Peking and assume the responsibilities of premier in succession to Prince Ching, which appointment was promulgated in an imperial edict of November 1. In communications to the governor, Yuan has pressed his unwillingness to assume office and whether he could be persuaded to re-consider this decision has been a question of much speculation.

London, Nov. 13.--A news despatch from Tien-Tsin says that acting upon urgent orders, 1,500 Cossacks left Vladivostok today for Peking.

Shanghai, Nov. 13.--Chi-Fu went over to the revolutionists at 3 o'clock. There was no fighting. The rebels took possession of the Tao-Tai yamen, the telegraph offices and the forts. Chi-Fu has a population of about 40,000 and is important as a treaty port and coaling station. The steamer plying between Shanghai and Tien-Tsin touch here and there and a considerable trade by sailing ships with the other ports of China. It is located on the north coast of the Shan-Tung peninsula and is about 250 miles east of Tien-Tsin.

London, Nov. 13.--Cable despatches from Tien-Tsin announced that Yuan Shi Kai arrived in Peking this morning. He will have an audience with the regent today to discuss the situation. It is said that Yuan will not accept the premiership.

BONAR LAW SUCCEEDS A. J. BALFOUR

London, Nov. 13.--The Unionist caucus at the Caeleton Club today, carried out the pre-arranged program and unanimously appointed A Bonar Law, leader of the party in the house of commons Walter Hume Long and J. Austen Chamberlain who had suppressed their own aspirations in order to avoid a breach in the conservative and liberal unionist groups in the party, respectively proposed and seconded the nomination and as no other name was submitted the motion was adopted by acclamation Mr. Law is sitting for the Bootle district of Lancashire. He was born in Canada in the province of New Brunswick in 1858. He gave up active industry for politics eleven years ago, and became a strenuous advocate of tariff reform. Previously he was engaged in the iron business. His election thus commits the party more thoroughly to the policy of protection.

STILL IN THE CONTEST

Miss Mary Doohan writes from Seneca Falls, N. Y., where she was called two weeks ago to the bedside of her brother who was dangerously ill, that he is now improving and that she will return about Nov. 17th. She asks the Mail to request all who have promised her subscriptions to kindly hold them until her return.

NEW RULER FOR MEXICO

TEMPLE OF SANTO DOMINGO, ZACATECAS

FRANCISCO I. MADERO

FACADE OF THE NEW THEATRE, ZACATECAS

A new ruler sits on the throne of Mexico and the reign of Christian Socialism, embodied in Francisco I. Madero, has begun.

Standing before the president of the chamber of deputies, the leader of the recent revolution swore to protect the constitution and the Mexican people.

With the last words of his oath, a solitary gun at the artillery barracks, a mile across the city, boomed out twenty-one salutes; two hundred thousand voices took up the cry: "Viva Madero!" "Viva El Presidente!" just as on hundreds of other occasions they had taken it up for Diaz.

The chamber was packed to capacity. Madero passed up the steps on a carpet of flowers thrown at his feet by admiring friends, passed down the crimson carpet to the raised dais at the end of the sloping floor and stood before the president of the chamber.

Slowly the chief of the lower house of congress pronounced the oath, and in a voice scarcely above a whisper, Madero replied: "I promise."

"Thus may you do," came the reply from the head of the deputies, "and the nation will reward you; but if you fail, she will ask of you an accounting."

THE STOCK MARKET TAKES A BREATHING SPELL

New York, Nov. 13.--The opening was moderately active and lower but with no such scramble to get out as traders had anticipated. Sentiment in the room was bearish, the smaller speculators having no hesitation in expressing opinion that the bull market was over. U. S. Steel opened at a decline of 1/8 from Saturday's close and lost a further fraction on scattered selling. Every trader said he knew absolutely of good selling of the stock and there is no doubt that many of them have shaped their position in accordance with what the think they have been in.

Detroit 2nd week Oct. increase $30.23; third week Oct. increase $46.55; from January 1st increase $646.063.

SHOT AND KILLED WIFE THEN FELL ASLEEP

Macon, Ga., Nov. 13.--Mrs. Lizzie McCall, aged 70 years, was shot and killed by her husband, Roger McCall, aged 71 years, while she lay asleep in her bed at her home here last night. McCall then barricaded himself in the bedroom and when the sheriff broke down the door he was found lying on the bed sound asleep, with a shotgun by his side. The old man declines to make a statement and no cause for the murder is known.

MAY SOON GET JURY IN McNAMARA CASE

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 13.--Today began the sixth week of the trial of Jas. B. McNamara. Progress today getting a jury has been slow, but the speed of the last week, when three jurors were finally sworn and three talesmen were passed for cause by both sides, has encouraged those who are anxious to hear the evidence to believe that a jury will soon be obtained.

MUCH DAMAGE CAUSED BY TORNADO IN MIDDLE WEST

Hundreds of Thousands Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed and Several Lives were Lost--Towns were Completely Wrecked--Many Miraculous Escapes from Death are Reported--Virginia, Ill., was Wiped off the Map--Many Spent the Night in the Open

(Canadian Press.)

New York, Nov. 13.--Nearly a score of deaths, several millions dollars property loss, and much suffering and inconvenience resulted from the violent of temperature, the preceding storms, and the succeeding cold and that beset the central portion of the country, Saturday and Sunday. After an unusually warm November day, Saturday, tornadoic storms did much damage in Wisconsin and Illinois, and killed a dozen persons besides injuring more than a score, several fatally. A cold wave immediately rolled over the wreckage of the tornado and extending in a few hours to the Gulf coast and Atlantic seaboard. Rain turned to sleet, snapping telegraph and telephone wires and snow followed. The temperature dropped in several places more than sixty degrees in 18 hours. Several persons are frozen to death by the sudden cold, shipping on the Great Lakes was damaged, and several boats were cast a drift. In some places gas almost failed. The poor in large cities, and the homeless in storm swept regions, suffered severely.

In Philadelphia, the temperature dropped 32 degrees in eight hours. A 30 degree drop was recorded at Boston. In Philadelphia, the temperature dropped 32 degrees in eight hours. identified, is reported dead. Amy Korian, 8 years old, was killed when her home, just north of Janelle, was demolished.

Footville, Magnolia, Pewaukee and other villages also are reported to have suffered severely.

ILLINOIS TOWN WRECKED

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 11--A tornado swooped down on Virginia (Ill.), at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon, dealing destruction. A number of persons were seriously injured while the town was wrecked.

Many had miraculous escapes but none was killed. The most seriously injured were Earle Whittaker, the little son of William Whittaker, Ed. French and Otis Middleton.

Not a building that lay in the storm's path escaped damaged. A hundred dwellings were unroofed, while the business section is a mass of wreckage. Tonight the town is in total darkness and rescuing parties are groping their way with lanterns through the wreckage looking for the injured. Many persons took refuge in the Methodist church. The building was crushed and many in it were injured. The buildings reported demolished are: Opera House, City Hall, City Hotel, Pollard Building, Kramer Building, Mann Hotel, Catholic Church and the Methodist Church.
