

LIFE LONG CONSERVATIVES WHO ARE FOR RECIPROCITY

The Honor Roll is Daily Growing Larger
--Note the Large Proportion of Farmers in the List--Prominent St. John Men Who Have Broken with Their Party on the Question

(Toronto Daily Star)
Leonard Hankinson of Grove End says he has been a Conservative all his life, but that he cannot understand the inconsistent stand of his party at the present time, and will vote for Reciprocity.

Harry Greenstead of South Dorchester says that Reciprocity is full of benefits for the farmer, and that the cities will flourish. He says Reciprocity in natural products is a Conservative policy, and that as he is a Conservative, he will vote for it.

James Culbert of Crewe, says he never voted for the Liberal party in his life, but knows Reciprocity is a Conservative policy. He will vote for Reciprocity and knows many other Conservative farmers will do the same.

William Kickley, of Mafeking, a Conservative, who says he believes the proposal as a whole is just the thing for the farmers.

Col. Fraser, Burford Township, Brant County, a former Conservative candidate is supporting Reciprocity.

Mr. Lewis, Burford Township, Brant County, a Conservative is supporting Reciprocity.

A. G. Bedford, Conservative horseman, West Kent, has written the Liberal candidate that he will support him because Reciprocity will benefit horsemen and farmers generally.

Albert S. Swim, senior partner of A.S. Swim & Co., Clark's Harbor, Shelburne Co., N.S., one of the largest fish dealers on the coast, says he is a strong Tory always has been, and supposes he always will be, but he strongly supports Mr. Fielding and Reciprocity for the great benefit of the fishing industry.

Thomas Ford a Cookville fruit grower, writes to the Star that he has been a Conservative all his life but he is disgusted with his leaders because they will not accept the "greatest gift Canada has ever had offered."

F. B. Lovekin, former president of the Conservative Association of Durham, is campaigning for T. A. Kelly the Liberal candidate.

James Anderson, Conservative, of Prince Edward county, is campaigning for Dr. Morley Currie, the Liberal candidate.

William Cottrell, and his five sons of Sunbridge, who "never voted for a Liberal Government" are throwing all of their influence for Reciprocity.

James Johnson, president of the Fruit Growers' Association of Norfolk county, a Conservative is supporting Reciprocity.

S.S. Nesbitt a Toronto Conservative is out strongly in favor of Reciprocity.

Thomas Hammill, a Conservative, of South Simcoe has consented to become a Reciprocity candidate in opposition to Mr. Houghton Lennox nominee of the Conservative party.

H. J. Davis cattle breeder and judge of live stock, of Ingersoll, says that while it is hard to turn one's back on his party, he must support Reciprocity and principle.

Leslie McMann, Therold, a Conservative, favors Reciprocity and may run as a candidate in Welland county.

Peter Lund, Wardner, B.C., a supporter of the Conservative party in British Columbia, advocates Reciprocity because it will take the taxes off the necessities of life, such as food, fuel and shelter.

John Pritchard, who never cast a Grit vote in his life, is working for A. M. Martin and Reciprocity in North Wellington.

William McDermott, ex-Reeve of West Garthrairie township, a life-long Conservative, is supporting A. M. Martin and Reciprocity in North Wellington.

Alfred Hutchinson, of Arthur township, who has voted both ways, but mostly Conservative, and is president of the East Wellington Farmers Institute, is out for Reciprocity.

Chester Nicholson, a Conservative, graduate of the Ontario Agricultural College and ex-secretary of the East Wellington Farmers' Institute, supports Reciprocity.

George M. Ballachy, a Conservative farmer of West Brantford township, declared himself in favor of Reciprocity.

L. H. Edmonds, Blenheim, Ontario, known all over the country as a Conservative, writes to the papers that he is not Conservative enough to miss the opportunity to open up an unlimited market for horse dealers and farmers. He thinks that every farmer, who has his own interests at heart, will drop politics for this time and vote for Reciprocity.

Richard Johnson, a Conservative of Norfolk county, will vote for Reciprocity, as will also his sons and other relatives.

John Herron, Conservative M.P. for MacLeod in the last parliament, says he will support Reciprocity, believing that it's advantages will far outweigh any possible disadvantages. He "can find no one in the constituency who things otherwise."

C. E. Hamilton, a Conservative of Weyburn, Saskatchewan, predicts that all the candidates who oppose Reciprocity in Saskatchewan will lose their deposits.

Ex-Mayor Bricher, a Conservative of Berlin, is supporting Mackenzie King and Reciprocity.

Ex-Mayor Hahn, of Berlin, is supporting Mackenzie King and Reciprocity.

George Layton, another Conservative farmer of South Huron, says the agreement will give him a better market for cattle and hogs.

Joseph Atkinson, a Conservative of Tuckersmith township, South Huron, says he thinks Reciprocity will benefit everything the farmer has to sell.

J. J. Irvine, of Leadbury, who is described as not merely a Conservative but a real Tory, says the Reciprocity agreement is just fine.

George Anderson, Mountain View, Prince Edward county, a former Conservative M.P., says he is proud to say that he will not stick to the Conservative party when such a course is folly. He estimates that not one farmer in twenty in his neighborhood is opposed to the agreement.

William Barker, a prominent Conservative of Prince Edward county, says he is certainly in favor of Reciprocity.

Austin Hazzard, of Wallaceburg, described as not merely a Conservative but a real Tory, says this Reciprocity business looks all right to him. William Trotter, Conservative, Chatham township, favors Reciprocity as a farmer.

Frank Shaw, Conservative, of East Branch, favors Reciprocity as a farmer.

James McCormack, Conservative, Deputy Reeve of Harwick township, says the only trouble with the agreement is that it does not go far enough.

Edward Hea of Raleigh, says he is a Conservative, but wholly in favor of Reciprocity.

J. H. Downey, Conservative mayor of Whitby, expresses himself as strongly in favor of the agreement.

David Fairbairn, Whitby, a Conservative, favors Reciprocity.

Mr. Sypher, a young Conservative, of Durham-Oxford county, is stumping for the Liberal candidate and Reciprocity, basing his stand on market quotations compiled by himself during the past five years.

Mr. Armstrong, who describes himself "as a John A. Macdonald Tory" is stumping for W. A. Buchanan, the Liberal candidate in Medicine Hat, and Reciprocity.

John A. Cameron, manager Kent Farmers Produce Company, township of South Harwick, says he has always been a Conservative, is now, and will continue to be one, but he doesn't care who knows that this time he will vote for McCoig and Reciprocity, thus, as he says, voting for the benefit of himself and all farmers.

B. Sutton Clarke, of Charlotte county, the largest fish dealer in the province, is strong for Reciprocity. He has always voted Conservative.

Lee Flewelling, a merchant of Rothesay, has twice been a Conservative candidate in Kings county. He is working against his old party on Reciprocity.

Dr. R. F. Quigley, K.C., of St. John, as well known as a scholar as lawyer, says he has always favored Reciprocity as a Conservative, and he cannot change even if his present party leaders do.

Dr. John M. Gilchrist, of Greenwich, Kings county, comes of a strong Conservative family. His father has been a Conservative candidate. Dr. Gilchrist will cast his first Liberal vote this month, on Reciprocity.

Mr. W. M. Jarvis, a prominent insurance man of St. John, and for Mrs. S. S. Johnstone, Ochre River, Man., writes:—"About four years ago I gave Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry a good test.

"My oldest son, five years old, got very bad with cholera infantum; two days after my next son took it, and the third day my little girl also took it. I doctored with all kinds of things, but they kept on getting worse and the doctors could do them no good. I then started the Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and after two or three days could see a difference, so kept on with the treatment, but they were so bad it took about two weeks to complete the cure. Different people have asked me how I saved my children's lives that time, and I always say it was Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I am now never without it in the house."

COULDN'T LOCATE MR. CARRUTHERS

(St. John Telegraph)

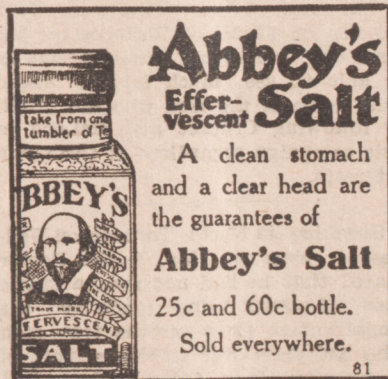

According to a Montreal despatch in yesterday's Standard James Carruthers, of Montreal, had $500 to wager that the Laurier government will be defeated. If this story aroused the same interest in other Canadian cities that it did in St. John the same Mr. Carruthers was deluged yesterday with telegrams asking for a chance at this $500.

D. R. Donald, the investment broker, has had $1,000 in his hands for some days to place on Dr. Pugsley's election and there have been no takers. Other amounts have also been offered on the return of the Laurier government and on the prospects of the Conservatives not getting five seats in New Brunswick, but there has been no response.

The Montreal despatch gave Mr. Donald a faint clue to a chance of getting some of his client's money covered. Upon reading the Standard yesterday he sent the following telegram:

St. John, N. B., Sept. 14, '11
James Carruthers, Montreal:
Standard newspaper here states you have $500 to bet Laurier government is defeated. Wire bank you will deposit this amount in and I will wire them money to cover same.

D. B. DONALD.
No reply had been received up to a late hour last evening. Is there any Mr. James Carruthers in Montreal?

MICHIGAN READY FOR TAFT

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 16--Every thing is in readiness for the reception of President Taft, who is due to arrive in Detroit at an early hour Monday morning for a four days' visit in Michigan. Early Monday morning he will go to Pontiac, returning to Detroit before noon of the same day for the opening of the State Fair. At luncheon he will be the guest of the Detroit Board of Commerce. A ride about the city will occupy the early afternoon and at 4.45 p. m. he will start for Saginaw and Bay City.

London, Sept. 15--The Manchester Guardian today, discussing the declaration that reciprocity will lead to the absorption of Canada by the

CARVELL AND SMITH IN JOINT DEBATE

Woodstock, Sept. 14--Frank B. Carvell was nominated today as the reciprocity standard bearer for Carleton and B. F. Smith in opposition. In the afternoon a joint debate was held in the armory. Until about noon it was doubtful whether or not the debate would take place as the anti-reciprocity campaign managers here after asking for a debate in the armory tried to get out of that plan and force Mr. Carvell into the Hayden Gibson Theatre, which they could very easily and would have packed with partisans to howl him down.

And while they were playing this game they were circulating the story around the county that Mr. Carvell was afraid to meet his opponent, but the bluff didn't go and finally and apparently reluctantly they agreed to send Mr. Smith to the Armory. They are sorry now they did. They are sorry because Mr. Carvell's speech was a splendid argumentative address. He discussed reciprocity from a business point of view and made a great impression in doing so. There was no attempt at stirring up false feeling but simply a clear-cut exposition of the case, an exposition that Mr. Smith found unanswerable.

On the other hand Mr. Smith kept away from a plain statement of the case. He brought in the loyalty cry and told the people that he was fighting for Canada, but the same Mr. Smith ships every stick of his lumber to the United States now.

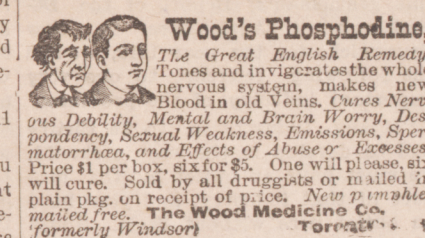

A noteworthy fact is that Mr. Smith was compelled to admit that the reciprocity agreement can be ended by Canada at any time this country pleases.

At several places in the country he has emphatically stated the contrary to be the case and has said that Canada could not withdraw without the consent of the Washington government. Today he was compelled to admit that such a statement is utterly false.

Both speakers were given good hearings, though when Mr. Smith said that Yankee money was behind the reciprocity campaign he was greeted with shouts of "Prove it," which he did not attempt to do.

One little feature of the meeting was that whenever Mr. Smith raised his hand in a certain way his friends cheered him. Apparently, they were well schooled.

With the election day but a week away it can be stated that the outlook for the reciprocity candidate is of the brightest kind. Level headed men among his opponents admit his election and state that today's debate will have the effect of further increasing his majority.
