THE GIANTS IN FAVOR

Big Sum of Money is Staked on the Game with the Athletics

Big Struggle will take Place on Oct. 14th—Many Freak Bets have been Recorded

(Canadian Press.)

New York, Oct. 6.—The Giants will take the field against Conney Mack's Athletics on Oct. 14, as favorites at odds of 6 to 5, in the world's championship series, according to the betting here today. Half a million dollars, it is estimated will be wagered on the contest. A Philadelphia syndicate is said to have a pool of $35,000 to bet on the Athletics. There is another pool, it is reported, of $30,000 also to take the short end. Wall street brokers are reported to be looking for Philadelphia money while a score of well known devotees of the sport have declared that they will bet sums ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 on the Giants.

Ten thousand dollars is reported to have been actually placed on the Athletics, but after the bet was made both parties became dissatisfied and the bet was declared off, to be resumed on the day of the first encounter. If Mathewson goes on the box for the Giants on the first day, both sides calculate that odds of about 7 to 5 on the game will be brought. Many freak bets have been recorded. One is that of a Pittsburgher who has wagered $300 to $50 that the Giants will not win three straight victories. Another of $150 to $500 is to the ed out of the box after the first game affect that Mathewson will be knocked out.

THE STOCK MARKET A LITTLE STRONGER

New York, Oct. 6.—The stock market today was quite strong and trading was fairly active.

TAFT NEARING THE COAST

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 6.—Cities and towns of Washington are preparing to cordially welcome President Taft, who tomorrow will enter upon a five days' tour of this State. Walla Walla will be the first stop on his itinerary tomorrow and in the evening he will arrive in this city, where a banquet will be given in his honor. Governor Hay and other official representatives will meet the distinguished visitor at the Washington-Idaho line, a short distance east of this city, and accompany him on the greater part of his tour through the State.

MORE ABOUT RUSSELL PLOT

How the Plaintiff was to be Rounded up and Taken in Charge

Former Employee of Russell Tells What he Knows about the Alleged Conspiracy

(Canadian Press.)

Montreal, Oct. 6.—The "Plan of Action" which was drawn up, by which Mr. Russell's room was to be entered by his brothers John and James, and he was to be "taken charge of" after the door was locked, was outlined by Chas. Racine, formerly Mr. Russell's book-keeper, who took the stand in the case this morning. Mr. Racine also stated that he had been put through the third degree by Detective Burns and had been threatened with arrest by Russell, if he did not put in a confession of the part Mr. Russell alleges he played in the conspiracy. How the famous "list of names" was drawn up, was also told.

"Was there anything unusual that you noticed in Mr. Russell's condition in October of last year?" asked Mr. McPherson.

"He was very nervous and excited. I cannot remember ever having seen a man so excited."

"How did these unusual conditions manifest themselves?"

"He suspected people and believed that there were plots against him," replied Mr. Racine in answer to the question.

"What were these plots," did he discuss them?"

"Yes, frequently. He said that Mr. J. N. Greenshield would give half a million to have poison put in his food or have a knife stuck in him."

"And why Mr. Greenshield?"

"Because of the land suit which Mr. Russell had entered against Mr. Greenshield."

"You heard quite a bit about this land suit, I suppose?"

"We heard very little else."

"Was there anything else about Mr. Greenshield?"

"Mr. Russell accused him of being behind the badger game, and other women games."

"What other women games do you mean?"

"There was the woman in black at the Occidental."

"Why the woman in black?" asked Judge Archer.

"I can't say. That was the way she was referred to in the office."

"Can you tell us her name?"

The witness thought for a moment and then said that he could not but would know it if he heard it.

"Was it Mrs. Desjardins?"

"Yes, that was it."

Racine then told about sending for John Russell to see about David Russell's mental condition in October last. They had wired John Russell in St. John in code. They had used the expression "mind affected" and he had thought it was too strong at the time. Asked about the "plan of action" of those who declared Russell's mind affected, Racine said:

"After the wire in code was sent on the 19th, Mr. Cochenaler took from his pocket a plan of action. I don't know in whose handwriting it was. Mr. John and Mr. James Russell, with the doctor, were to enter Mr. Russell's room and, after locking the door, were to take charge of him."

"We have heard something of a list of names which was taken to New York on the 29th. Do you know anything of it?"

"Why, yes. Mr. John Russell came to me and asked me who in my opinion thought there was something wrong with his brother. So I took a little sheet of paper and jotted down a list."

"Can you tell us who were on the list?"

"There was Mr. McNamara, Mr. Bush, Hon. Mr. Pearson, Mr. Cochenaler, Mr. Gilliland, Dr. Roddick, Chief Carpenter, Mr. R. C. Smith and Detective Gorman."

"You are aware, Mr. Racine, that you have been accused of conspiracy in connection with this matter?" continued Mr. McPherson.

"Oh, yes," replied the witness, smiling.

"There was one day in July last when I was put through the third degree by Detective Burns."

"The third degree?" repeated Mr. McPherson.

THE FLAG OF ITALY WAVES OVER TRIPOLI

Italians Landed Yesterday and Occupied the Forts—Many Dead Were Discovered—Bombardment will Continue until the Turks Capitulate—Germany Expected to Make an Offer of Mediation—Strict Censorship is Being Maintained—Italy now Regarded as a First Class Military Power

(Canadian Press.)

London, Oct. 6.—A telegram from Turin to The Daily Mail says: It is officially announced that Italian sailors landed at Tripoli yesterday (Thursday), hoisted the Italian colors and occupied the forts, where many dead were discovered. The Italians are now masters of Tripoli.

The Rome correspondent of The Daily Mail says:

"After the shelling of Tripoli on Tuesday the operations were resumed here yesterday (Wednesday) morning. The Italian warships again directed their fire only against the outer forts. It was feared that if the inner forts were shelled damage would be done to the town.

"The shore batteries in the Sultan and Hamidie forts were dismantled. The cruiser Giuseppe Garibaldi entered the harbor and two officers with a detachment of marines disembarked and made their way to the Hamidie. They had found it had been evacuated and that the Turks had carried away with them the sights of the guns.

"The bodies of three Turkish artillerymen lay in the forts.

"Up to the present, despite the bombardment and despite the Italian excursion ashore, there is no sign of surrender on the part of the Turks. The bombardment will, therefore, continue until the town capitulates or until all the Turkish troops have left Tripoli for the interior.

"Even if Tripoli capitulates today or tomorrow, there will be an interval of several days more before the arrival and disembarkation of the army of occupation.

"When the army has been landed an offer of mediation by Germany or some other power is expected to follow immediately.

"The Tripoli lighthouse having been destroyed by some of the first shots fired, Admiral Faravelli has given orders for its immediate reconstruction, as it is of the greatest utility to the Italian fleet."

A despatch from Chiasso says the censorship is so blindly exercised that telegrams were confiscated simply because a correspondent had succeeded in wiring twenty-four hours before what was later generally known.

The censorship has evidently entered into the plan of the Italian government which seems to be making a general rehearsal of what the war would be if it had an adequate enemy to face. In the present case the navy has proved its thorough fitness and the army has shown wonderful rapidity of mobilization while the armaments respond to the most modern requirements. The only thing lacking is an enemy.

Although the experiment of Italy has proved most successful, showing as she desired, that notwithstanding the colonial disaster in Abyssinia in 1896, she is a first-class military power, with which Europe must reckon.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—A correspondent of the Wolff Bureau, telegraphing from Deibat on the Tunisian frontier, says:

"Six soldiers and six Jews were killed and five soldiers and one Jew wounded during the bombardment of Tripoli.

"The Europeans of whom there are still 4,000 in Tripoli, were unharmed. The house of the interpreter of the German consulate was badly damaged, but the shells from the Italian fleet did comparatively slight damage in the city.

"The most of the citizens remained impassive during the bombardment."

London, Oct. 5.—The Italian flag floats over Sultania fort at Tripoli, which is occupied by landing parties. Part of the fleet is anchored in the harbor and the other warships lie a short distance from the dismantled fortifications.

Few bodies of Turks have been found among the ruins of the forts,

CONNAUGHT SAILED TODAY FOR CANADA

(Canadian Press.)

London, Oct. 6.—The Duke of Connaught, accompanied by the Duchess, sailed on the steamer Empress of Ireland from Liverpool today, to assume the office of Governor General of Canada. Prince Arthur and Princess Victoria Patricia did not go with their parents, but will join them at Ottawa later.

A large party gathered at the railway station here to bid the Duke and Duchess good-bye. A portion of the steamer has been reserved for them and the Duke's staff, aides, secretary and physician.

TO HONOR NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER

New York, Oct. 6.—Ten thousand guests have been invited to attend the testimonial dinner to be given tomorrow night in honor of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University. The affair is to mark the completion of Dr. Butler's tenth year as administrative head of the institution. During his incumbency the university has grown to be the largest in the country in point of attendance.

"Was it the Knights of Columbus or the Elks?" asked Mr. Casgrain.

"It was worse than the Masons," confessed the witness. "I'd rather take the Masons' degree."

"Never mind about the 'Masons,'" interrupted His Lordship. "Just tell us about this."

"Well, to start on, it began on an empty stomach. It was just at noon and I had not had any lunch. The detective kept me there until half past three."

METHODIST CONFERENCE ON MISSIONS

(Canadian Press.)

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 6.—Continuing its review of the accomplishments of Methodism during the past ten years and the discussion of the unique problems which now confront the church, the fourth ecumenical congress of the denomination today turned its attention to foreign missions. To this branch of its work, as well as in those considered during the first two days of this decennial meeting, it appeared that the need from the viewpoint of veteran workers, was as much for "a great spiritual awakening" within the church itself as for further perfection of the mechanism of the organizations whose membership totals many millions. Even in the face of the revelations the reports submitted yesterday that the church in one of its great divisions had suffered startling losses in net membership, today's speakers emphasized as vitally important, the necessity of making the spirituality of the present members more intensive instead of seeking primarily the lengthening of membership rolls. Church union or denomination synthesis, was urged upon the delegates again today, it being held that in no other department of the church work would its economy of service be more felt than in that of foreign missions. It would mean vast savings in money and men and women, and therefore the work in the mission field could be enormously increased.

ORDER OF OWLS.

Mr. H. C. Perry, the well-known theatrical promoter, is in the city as organizer for the Maritime Provinces for the Order of Owls. He will remain here for several days.

SIR WILFRID TO RESIGN THIS AFTERNOON

(Special to The Mail.)

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—Laurier announced at noon that he would hand in his resignation at three o'clock this afternoon. Mr. R. L. Borden will immediately be called upon to form an administration.

COURTNEY BAY CONTRACTS NOT TO BE AWARDED

(Special to The Mail.)

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—A correspondent this morning saw Hon. William Pugsley in reference to St. John Harbor improvements. The minister stated that in view of the magnitude of the work it had been decided not to ask the council to enter into a contract, but to leave the matter to the incoming administration.

HOULTON CONDUCTOR DIES FROM INJURIES

(Special to The Mail.)

Houlton, Oct. 6.—Conductor John Greeney, a bridegroom of four months, died this morning in the hospital. His death was the result of injuries received by falling beneath a freight train.

Coburg, Ont. Oct. 6.—The recount of votes in West Northumberland before Judge Benson was concluded yesterday. The result gives Chas. Munson Conservative two more votes, making his majority 6 instead of 4.

McLEAN HAS TEN MAJORITY IN SUNBURY AND QUEENS

The Official Declaration was Made at Gagetown on Thursday—The Proceedings were Exceedingly Lively—Tory Heelers in a Terrible Rage over the Result—Victorious Candidate Thanked the Electors and Exposed the Campaign Methods of the Tories

COL. H. H. McLEAN

Gagetown, Oct. 5.—At the conclusion of the twice adjourned declaration day proceedings for Queens-Sunbury here today, Col. H. H. McLean was declared elected by a majority of ten votes.

This result was received with every expression of ill will by the Conservatives present and notice was given that the ballots be held in anticipation of a recount being applied for.

The session closed with a disgraceful exhibition when an organized gang led by John R. Dunn and A. R. Slipp, the legal representative of the defeated candidate, endeavored to break up the meeting without giving Col. McLean a chance to reply to wild charges made in an address by Luther B. Smith. The member elect struck out from the shoulder, however and succeeded in putting some very embarrassing questions to Mr. Smith and Mr. Slipp.

Returning Officer Dykeman presided today with Sheriff Holden as clerk and W.B. Wallace, K.C., present as legal adviser Dr. L. A. Currey appeared for Col. McLean, and A. R. Slipp, John R. Dunn and J. W. McCready represented Mr. Smith.

Both candidates were present. When court opened at 2 o'clock, Dr. Currey asked that John Hassan, deputy for Petersville No. 2 be called to prove the returns from that poll, the official statement having been attached to the outside of the box and placed in the bag instead of being in the box as required.

Mr. Slipp objected to Mr. Hassan being called on the grounds that the presiding returning officer had already admitted this poll and could not hear further evidence concerning it.

The returning officer said he owed it to the public to have every possible information as to the way the business was conducted put into evidence. He had every desire to be fair to both parties.

Mr. Slipp remarked: "We don't take any stock in that kind of talk. We have heard enough of it."

DEPUTIES EXAMINED

Mr. Hassan was then sworn and testified to conducting the polls and counting the votes, and adding them up in the poll book. He gave the number of votes cast for each candidate and then identified the statement which was in the bag outside the box as the one he had signed and enclosed. He had simply made a mistake in not putting it in the box.

This witness was not cross-examined.

James Power, deputy for Northfield parish was next sworn and testified that H.H. McLean received 105 votes, L. B. Smith 84; two were rejected and one spoiled. He filled in the official statement required but by mistake it had not been detached from the pollbook and the certificate form for notifying the candidate was enclosed instead. He identified the certificate found in the box as the one he had signed.

Robert Mott, poll clerk at Cambridge, No. 12, gave very clearcut evidence as to the making out of the statements from that poll. He had assisted in the counting by tallying the votes and gave the result as already placed in evidence by W. A. Farris the deputy.

To Mr. Slipp, the witness said he had not signed any statements before they were filled in and had written Mr. Farris' name to some of the statements by request of the deputy who had a sore hand.

Lieut. Col. T. L. Alexander, deputy for Gladstone poll was the next witness, and before proceeding with his statement said he wished to brand the story in the Gleaner and Standard that he was running away from giving his evidence as an absolute lie. It is true he had made arrangements to go West long before he was notified to give evidence, but he gave up all idea of going as soon as he knew he was wanted in the case. He considered it a slur against his gray hairs.

Col. Alexander gave a very concise statement of the manner in which he conducted the poll and said he could not account for the enclosing of the wrong form in the ballot box. He gave the number of votes as 72 for McLean and 174 for Smith.

This completed the returns from the polls giving the official returns as follows: McLean, 2,020, Smith, 2,010.

There was a distinct understanding that no speeches would be made, as Judge McKeown had adjourned circuit court to allow the returning officer to use the "court room, and when Mr. Dykeman declared Colonel McLean elected the member rose and in one sentence thanked the electors for their support.

MR. SMITH A BAD LOSER

In violation of the agreement Mr. Smith proceeded to make a speech. After thanking his friends he said the result was not a defeat but a victory and that the seat fairly belonged to him. Government candidates backed by patronage and a huge corruption fund were hard to beat, but the 21st had been no picnic for the colonel. He predicted that if the wholesale fraud and interference with the secret ballot was shown up he would be
