VIEWS OF LIBERAL PRESS ON RECIPROCITY PACT

The following is an extract from a speech delivered by Sir Charles Tupper in the House of Commons on April 10th, 1888:

"After the statement of the President of the United States in his message of 1885, asking for a commission, after the letters which passed between Mr. Bayard and myself, you will readily understand that I went there expecting and looking forward to a settlement of this question on very much the same lines as those upon which it had been settled in 1854, and to some extent, in 1871. I am right in saying that the instructions with which I was charged by this Government were to obtain, if it was possible, as near an approach to the reciprocity treaty of 1854 as I could obtain, that is, the policy of carrying out free exchange in the natural products of the two countries. I was to urge that policy, and I think you will have no doubt as to the course pursued by me after reading the proposition that I made in the conference on the 3rd December, 1887.

"Sir Charles Tupper begged leave to submit a note containing the following proposal from the British plenipotentiaries. That with a view of removing all causes of difference in connection with the fisheries, it is proposed by Her Majesty's plenipotentiaries that the fisheries of both countries shall have all the privileges enjoyed during the existence of the fishery articles of the Treaty of Washington, in consideration of mutual arrangement providing for greater freedom of commercial intercourse between the United States and Canada and Newfoundland."

"It has been suggested that this is very vague. Well, I confess I am unable to see it. I considered that in formulating that proposal, I was bound to ascertain if the Government of the United States were prepared to meet Canada in order to secure for their fisheries the enjoyment of the advantage which they had under the treaty of 1854, and under the treaty of 1871. If that proposal does not formulate as broad and as general an invitation to the Government of the United States as could be made, provided they were willing to deal upon a commercial basis at all, I should be very happy if any hon. gentleman will point out to me wherein the proposition is wanting. And what did Mr. Angell say?"

Mr. Mills, (Bothwell)—"The offer is unrestricted."

Sir Charles Tupper—"The hon. gentleman says the offer is restricted, and I intended it should be so. I intended to give the Government of the United States the fullest opportunity of stating just how far they were prepared to go in reciprocity trade with Canada."

Sir John A. Macdonald in 1891, said at Toronto in his speech of February 17th, as reported by The Empire, (Journal), of February 18th: "We found new markets, (after the treaty of 1854 was abrogated) new sources of profitable employment."

"We consider we are up in the markets of the world for our trade and we have found them." "We have offered to sit down and consider without limitation the subjects for mutual trade, but we can do so no more." "We always desired, as we do desire, an extended trade relation."

"The immediate and pressing question of the hour is: What is to be the outcome of this election? Sir John and his Government can now send to Washington the representatives of Canada to negotiate a treaty of fair trade with Secretary Blaine."

(Halifax Herald, March 11th, 1891.)

That speech was made on "Declaration Day."

Sir John Thompson in a speech delivered in Halifax February 14th, 1891:

"The Government has been willing and ready for years to make a fair reciprocity arrangement with the United States." (Halifax Herald, February 17th, 1891.)

Hon. G. E. Foster, speech in St. John, N.B., February 15th, 1891:

"The basis of the conference which shall take place is that these articles of natural products of both countries shall go into each country free, and if we can agree upon any other extensions and modifications of that old platform of 1854, consistent with the honor of Canada and to the interest of both countries, then we are prepared to do it." (Applause.) (St. John Sun, February 16th, 1891.)

MR. FOSTER'S OPINION

Hon. George E. Foster, is on record as favoring closer trade relations with the United States. An article from his pen appeared in the University Magazine in December last, the concluding paragraph of which was as follows:

"Would you then veto all attempts to improve trade relations between Canada and the United States? By no means. My aim has been to make clear to readers the Canadian view as I held it, and as I believe it is held by the majority of our people. If there are no illusions there will be fewer errors. Granted that you fully realize that we are bent on developing a nationality absolutely independent of you politically, on maintaining as a means thereto a fiscal system under which we may develop to the utmost our industries and our resources for our own strengthening and upbuilding, and that no scheme of reciprocity which interferes therewith is desirable; that understood, we welcome the fullest trade and intercourse consistent therewith. We owe you much, we admire your enterprise and your wonderful growth, and sympathize with the efforts you are making to grow rightly and develop the best forces of a great democracy. We covet your virtues and try to avoid your faults, individual, municipal, and national. IF WE CAN MAKE EASIER CHANNELS FOR TRADE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES, CONSISTENT WITH THE ABOVE CONDITIONS, WE WILL BE GLAD TO CO-OPERATE. MEANWHILE, AS A NEIGHBORLY BEGINNING, COULD YOU NOT GIVE OUR PRODUCTS TARIFF ENFRANCHISE TO YOUR MARKET AT THE SAME RATES WHICH WE ACCORD TO YOURS IN OUR MARKET? You are bigger, older, richer, more skilled, and more populous. What competition should you fear on a basis of equivalent tariffs? If you were to do this, IT WOULD BE AN EARNEST OF GOOD FEELING and might dispose us to further converse."

Mrs. S. S. Johnstone, Ochre River, Man., writes:—"About four years ago I gave Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry a good test. My oldest son, five years old, got very bad with cholera infantum; two days after my next son took it, and the third day my little girl also took it. I doctored with all kinds of things, but they kept on getting worse and the doctors could do them no good. I then started the Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and after two or three days could see a difference, so kept on with the treatment, but they were so bad it took about two weeks to complete the cure. Different people have asked me how I saved my children's lives that time, and I always say it was Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I am now never without it in the house."

EVERY GENERAL STORE-KEEPER NEEDS "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

INKERMAN, ONT. Sept. 23rd, 1910.

"I am in the General Store business and have been a resident of Inkerman for thirty-seven years. Since I started this store four years ago, I have found your remedy "Fruit-a-tives" the most satisfactory one I have sold. Many of my customers have used "Fruit-a-tives" with the most beneficial results and I know of two cases that have been completely cured of Dyspepsia.

I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" on every possible occasion and would say that if every general store keeper, who stocks medicine, would keep "Fruit-a-tives" prominently displayed, he would increase his business many fold."

RECIPROCITY WILL WIN

New York, Aug. 16.—Mr. Wilbur F. Wakeman, general secretary of the American Protective League, denies that his organization as such is financing the anti-reciprocity campaign in Canada. Regarding the activities of the individual trusts that form the league he is not in a position to speak.

The chief reason Mr. Wakeman gives for the league's non-interference is that reciprocity is bound to be adopted in Canada anyway and assistance would be wasted."

"Soon after the ratification of the pact at Washington many members asked me if I thought we should take part in the campaign in Canada," said Mr. Wakeman, "but I advised strongly against it, and then told them if they should insist on the league taking any part in the fracas across the St. Lawrence they could count me out."

Although Mr. Wakeman denies that the Protective League is using any money in an attempt to defeat reciprocity in Canada, there is a persistent report that money from some source is available for such a purpose and friends of reciprocity on both sides of the line will maintain a close watch.

CANADA SURE TO RATIFY

"Do you think the Canadian voters will authorize their government to ratify the agreement?" Mr. Wakeman was asked.

"I feel certain they will. The Canadians are not fools. They appreciate the advantage to the commercial interests of reciprocity with the United States. Many of them are afraid reciprocity will ultimately lead to annexation but as even President Taft has assured them that no such thought is in his mind, I guess the Canadians will vote overwhelmingly to sustain the Laurier Government in the elections next month and thus give their approval to the pact."

"Of course our league is opposed absolutely to reciprocity. With the sole exception of paper the pact affects very little any manufacturing interests in this country. But it hits the farmer hard and if we are not mistaken he will be heard from in the Presidential election next year. Personally I am uncompromisingly opposed to President Taft's re-nomination because of his headstrong course in forcing the Republican Senate to join the Democratic House in ratifying the agreement."

Arrangements have been made for the holding of a national convention

The number of women employed in Germany, according to the latest statistical reports, is 9,400,000; in France 6,800,000; in Austria, 5,600,000, and in England 5,400,000. The women are employed in manufacture and trades.

Statistics compiled by Deputy State Labor Commissioner Edwin V. Brake show that 34,336 miners are employed in Colorado. Of these 14,768 are working in coal mines, and the remainder in the various metal mines and mills.

The San Francisco Labor Day Committee has decided to offer prizes to pupils of the public schools for the best essays on labor and the significance of Labor Day; also a prize to be awarded to the school of which a pupil obtains the first prize.
