MARATHONS PUT ONE OVER ON WOODSTOCK

St. John, July 14—In a good game of ball the Marathons defeated the fast Woodstock team yesterday by a score 7 to 4, on the Shamrock ground. About 1,500 fans turned out with the expectation of seeing good baseball, and they saw it. The visitors played fine ball until the seventh, when they went up badly. Zaquet at second and Keany at short making serious blunders. Joe Tarbell, the Indian twirler who has always proved effective against Woodstock, opened the game for the locals and while the visitors as a whole failed to hit him at opportune times, yet Joe was wild and two or three times only Connolly's work behind the bat saved him from wild pitches. He would probably have managed to pull through all right, but Manager Donald sent in Sweet, the Chicago White Sox man, in the sixth, and he made good. He uncovered a world of speed, and only one hit was made off his shoots during the three and two-thirds innings he worked. The Grays played good steady ball in the field and only two errors go against them. Williams and Riley were again on the job with the willow, and Nelson, cracked out a corking two bagger that went clear to the centre field fence. Urquhart was in the box for the visitors and in the matter of hits he split even with the local twirlers. His support was not as good, however, and in the seventh it was very bad. The box score follows:

TOMORROW'S GAMES.

At St. John—Woodstock vs St. John's.

At Calais—Marathons vs Calais.

Fredericton walloped the league leaders in most approved fashion yesterday. The game was seen by one of the biggest crowds that has turned out to a ball game this season and every one got his money's worth. The score was 3 to 2 and the game was crammed full of exciting incidents. Errors were few. Each team was guilty of a pair each but they were not serious. It was heavy hitting on both sides that brought in the runs. Cobb had the distinction of hammering out a home run that netted Calais the two runs made. A cleaner hit was never seen on the local ball grounds, and the Calais man got all the applause he deserved. Fredericton was not behind with the willow for Bob Conley tied the score in the eighth with a three-bagger and Duval and Duggan each drew a two base hit.

CALAIS PROTESTS GAME

Manager Walter Murchie of the Calais team registered a protest with the umpires in the eighth inning giving as grounds for doing so, two decisions on third base by Umpire Roberts. "Big Bill" Duval in the fifth inning scored Fredericton's first run on a sacrifice fly by Larry Conley. In the eighth Bob Conley came home with the winning run on another sacrifice fly by Tom Howe. In the case of both the Calais manager contends that the base-runners were not on base when the ball was caught. The umpire was of different opinion however and it is not expected that the protest will be sustained. The last case when Bob Conley scored produced a little trouble. The crowd ran out on the field and the game was stopped for several minutes. There was also a little mix-up between Umpire "Hummer" Roberts and Rutherford, the Calais second baseman. The Calais man tried to imitate Sherwood Magee, but was kept away from the official and did no more than shove him. A little discipline would not hurt Rutherford.

FAST GAME

The play by both teams was fast. Two errors a piece were chalked up to them. "Biddo" Iott was responsible for one of Calais', Callahan's drive in the fourth catching the veteran first-sacker asleep at the switch. Mitchell fell over his feet just after ward when Bob Conley hit to the infield. That was the sum-total of the Calais misplays. Apart from them the fielding of the team from the Border was of the gilt-edge variety. Tom Howe contributed both of Fredericton's errors sandwiching them in among some first class work. Neither was costly. Tommy figured in one double play and won the game with his sacrifice fly.

CALAIS STILL LEADS

The Calais team is still at the head of the league but the win by the locals put them close to first position. The race for the championship is going to be a tight one with Fredericton right there at the finish. Fredericton and Calais are generally picked as the teams which will furnish the excitement with Marathons and Woodstock having almost as good chances.

YESTERDAY'S GAME

Calais could not get going until the sixth inning and then only two runs resulted from a four-base hit. Until the fourth Duval was found for one safe hit each inning but nobody reached second. In the fourth Cobb and Iott followed with singles. It looked bad for Fredericton but Watt put up a little fly to Callahan and Chism did the same to Tom Howe, who embraced the opportunity to double Iott up at second. In the next inning it was one-two-three for Calais and after that there were doings. Joe Neptune was the first batter in the sixth inning. He hit to Bob Conley and was thrown out. Johnson came next and stopped one of "Big Bill's" benders with his ribs. He took his base. Then Mr. Cobb came in sight. He leaned up against a carefully selected shoot from Mr.

Duval's repertoire and the ball went deep into that section of "forest primeval" that still stands back of right field. Mr. Siney dug after the sphere in most diligent fashion, but by the time that it had been relayed in Cobb was seated on the bench. It was a nice clean home-run and made the score 2 to 1 in favor of Calais. After that there was nothing to it. Duval had the batters at his mercy. Chism the only man to get a hit off him perished miserably in the last inning while attempting the fool-hardy feat of stealing second on Murray.

HOW FREDERICTON DID IT.

The locals found that Mitchell the Indian twirler used by Calais had quite an assortment of shoots. In four innings there were just two hits off his delivery and no Fredericton man got as far as third. In the fourth Mitchell started out badly by walking Bill Duval. Siney sacrificed him to second. Then Manager P. J. Duggan came into the lime-light with a two-base hit to left-field. Chism tried to get Bill at the plate but Bill was expecting just such a move and stuck right on third evidently knowing that his mode of locomotion of the ice-cart type would not take him home in time. Following events proved that Bill had the wisdom of Solomon as Bill had ample time to amble home when Larry Conley flied out to Chism. Things looked good for another run but the best Callahan could do was to hit to the shortstop. Then that home-run of Cobb's put Calais in the lead. On top of that Mitchell with good support behind him kept Fredericton down to facts. Bill Duval was the only man in two innings to reach second and he had to use a two-base hit to do that. The eighth did not begin in promising fashion. Larry Conley went out on a little foul to Cobb. Joe Callahan broke the ice with a single to left-field. Then Bob Conley followed and made everybody stand up and yell by putting the ball away out in centre for three bags. The score was tied and the winning run came in when Tommy Howe drove a long fly out to Casey in right-field. Conley ran back to his base on the fly and beat the throw to the plate. The throw was a poor one going too high but Watt instead of making any effort to stop the ball began an argument in which umpires, players, spectators and police soon were mixed. When it was straightened out Umpire Staples announced that Calais had protested the game. Frank Hughes was then called upon as a pinch-hitter and responded nobly with a drive along the right foul line that was good for one base. "Tanker" spoiled the effect by getting caught trying to steal second. In the next inning Tift replaced Sullivan in centre-field but Calais got no chance.
