ERRORS GALORE LET WOODSTOCK TEAM WIN

Fredericton Infield Put Up Rocky Ball--Changes in Team Probable--Tift Pitched Well But Received Poor Support.

Errors at critical moments let Woodstock win the Dominion Day exhibition game, 4 to 2. The playing of the Fredericton team in general showed that a shake up among the players would not be at all amiss. The infield seemed to be the part of the team which would benefit most by changes and it would not be surprising if changes were made. The opinion of the great majority of the supporters of the Fredericton team is that it will have to be considerably strengthened if it is to retain its position in the N.B. & Maine League.

Tift did the pitching for Fredericton and his twirling was right up to the mark. With support that was at all decent he would have won his game. His work with the stick was also good and he is expected to prove a great source of strength to the team.

Woodstock is credited with nine hits but had the Fredericton fielders covered ground as they should that number would have been much less. The Woodstock team played in a style which showed that it will be heard from before the N.B. & Maine season closes. On the other hand the playing of the locals, with some notable exceptions, was of the bonehead (solid ivory) variety.

The details of the tragedy follow. Score by innings:

Woodstock, .....100120000--4
Fredericton, .....000020000--2

NEW MARE ADDED TO TRITES' STRING

The American Horse Breeder has the following:

"Arthur Wallace, of Pictou, N.S., has sold to A. E. Trites, of Moncton, N.B., the trotting mare Grace Abbott, by Abbott Wilkes, p., 2:11, 1am by Rampart, son of Almont; second dam by Kentucky Prince. Grace Abbott is a black mare of medium size, with beautiful style and action. She was raced some the season of 1909, by Dodd Dwyer, was in the money in four or five races, and at Halifax, where she won two second monies, was a close second to Devilish Dorothy in 2:20 1/4. Last year she raised a beautiful colt by Pink Dodds that was awarded first prize in a field of six suckers at the Halifax fair. Last April she was awarded first honors in a field of twenty in the roadster class at the Amherst horse show. She started in the 2:25 class at New Glasgow on May 24th, trotting second to Queen Brazilian and was purchased immediately after the race by Mr. Trites, who will breed her to his stallion, Rudy Kip, 2:04 1/4, and race her in the slow trotting class.

At St. Stephen Saturday afternoon Calais won from the St. Ste-

HOMEBREWS TRIMMED IMPORTED BALL ARTISTS

Saturday morning a team composed of local players with Larry Conley in the box played against a picked team largely composed of imported men. The Home-Brews won 8 to 6 in a game notable for heavy-hitting and poor fielding. George Brogan's work in the outfield was a feature. He also stole home. Walker and Griffin did some good base-running. The line-up was as follows:

IMPORTS	HOME-BREWS
Griffin	catcher	Boyce
Bates	pitcher	Conley
Duggan	1st base	Feeney
Hughes	2nd base	Callahan
McLean	3rd base	Walker
Finnamore	short stop	Malloy

MIKE DONLIN CAME BACK IN GOOD STYLE

(Boston Globe)
Mike Donlin will not continue a second utility man for the Giants if he can repeat his record of making a hit and stealing a base, as he did in his brief experience in the game against Boston Thursday. Mike, when here, looked as if he needed all the building up that an outdoor life could give him to work out with the Giants if he did not get a cent for it.

phen Thistles 4 to 2. All the games played on Dominion Day were exhibition games.

RING NOTES

Battling Nelson will meet Bud Anderson at Edmunds, Wash, July 4. Sam Langford will meet Jack Driscoll of Canada at Winnipeg July 29.

Jack Welsh has been agreed on as referee of the Wolgast-Moran bout July 4.

"Porky" Flynn and "Jewey" Smith the English heavyweight, will meet in New York in a couple of weeks.

"K. O." Brown of New York wants $12,500 for his end to meet Wolgast. It is wasting time to argue with a boxer like Brown when he talks such a price.

Joe Jeannette still pines for another bout with Langford. The fans are of the opinion that Jeannette should be satisfied with all the "whalings" he already has received from Langford.

Jack Johnson is certainly picking out easy ones, when he gets his manager to match him to box petty officer Curran in Dublin, Ireland, the second week in August. Curran is one of the worst heavyweights in England.

"Mysterious" Bill Smith says that the present-day boxers do not even know the rudiments of the game. After he takes off 30 pounds Smith says he will clean up all the middle-weights. How surprised he will be if he ever does box again.

Bill Squires, the ex-champion of Australia, who proved such a lemon when he came to this country is going back into the ring in Australia. He has agreed to meet Bill Lang in Sydney in August. When they met, a year ago, Lang gave Squires an awful game drubbing.

Fred Storkbeck, the South African heavyweight, has challenged Bombardey Wells to box for $1,000 a side.

The semifinal of eight rounds between Frankie Mack of Beachmont and Young Miller of Pawtucket should be as fully as good as the feature contest. The two six rounds preliminaries will also furnish some good sport.

The amateur tournament will be held at the club Friday night. In addition to the open classes at 115, 135 and 145 pounds there will be three special bouts which promise plenty of action.

Jeihry Gainsar and his old rival, Joe Geary, hook up again Thursday night at Lowell and the sports of the city expects to be slashing bout.

In New York, Buffalo, Albany and Adams some of the local talent and others who are well known to the fans here will be seen in the ring.

Arthur Wilkinson, who in the eighties was one of the best bantams in England, was run down and killed by an auto the other day.

While Jack Johnson has been in England he has fixed up with promoter McIntosh for a world's tour, to start the coming fall. The contract last for a year and Johnson has agreed to meet any three men McIntosh picks out for him. One of them is certain to be Sam Langford.
