MISS MORGAN

Sir CHARLES TUPPER on Mr. CLIFFORD SIFTON

The Montreal Star of Friday, May 18, 1900, contained in its report of the debate in the House of Commons on the day previous, a speech by Sir Charles Tupper, in the course of which he delivered what The Star described as "a scathing denunciation of Hon. Mr. Sifton."

We quote here from The Montreal Star's report on that occasion:

"Sir Charles referred to how the House was startled by the gigantic scheme of giving a kingdom for a tramway to the Yukon. Most of the machines in wheels were mustered into line to vote for the deal. Where was the minister of the interior now? He would seek from the Pacific to the Atlantic for a constituency that would disgrace itself by returning him. Who was he? He came here with a brand of bankruptcy on him, and yet he lived in a style that no Prime Minister could afford."

"Cries of 'shame.'"
"Sir Charles believed that he was a fugitive from the justice of this parliament. His object in visiting the other side of the water was to avoid an investigation before the Public Accounts Committee, the results of his mal-administration. In conclusion he thanked the premier, amid frequent interruptions, for his promise to refer the question to a judicial tribunal."

WE HOE OUR OWN ROW.

Canada cannot withdraw from a trade agreement with the United States, once formed, say the Anti-Reciprocity shouters. But Canada is just now withdrawing from a fisheries treaty with the States that has not proved satisfactory. We tried it for two years and a little over; it doesn't suit us; so we call the deal off. And we will do exactly the same with the Reciprocity pact if it doesn't suit us.

BETTING IN MONTREAL LAST NIGHT WAS FROM THREE TO ONE TO FIVE TO ONE ON THE RETURN OF THE LAURIER GOVERNMENT. LIBERALS COULD NOT GET EVEN MONEY AGAINST THE PROPOSITION THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE THIRTY MAJORITY. THE BETTING IN ALL THE LARGE CANADIAN CENTRES YESTERDAY WAS A CONFESION OF CONSERVATIVE DEFEAT.

AT MARYSVILLE TONIGHT.

There will be a meeting in the interests of Dr. A. B. Atherton, the Reciprocity candidate in York, at Hatt's Opera House, Marysville, tonight. The speakers will be Dr. Atherton, Senator Thompson and Mr. N. W. Brown.

THE OLD WAR HORSE

Sir Charles Tupper speaking at Toronto on February 17th, 1891, said: "Well, Sir, at this moment the policy propounded by my Right Hon. friend is not of having unrestricted reciprocity, but of having reciprocal trade with our friends south, and such matters as will be found consistent with the interest of both countries, and that is THE POLICY THAT THE HEARTY ENDORSATION OF HER MAJESTY'S SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES AND OF THE PEOPLE OF ENGLAND. Never was there a time in the history of England when all classes and all parties felt the same pride in Canada that they do today, and that has been greatly elicited by the noble, manly and energetic response with which the leader of the Canadian Government met that dastardly attempt to crush Canadian industries and interests—the MacKinley Bill. The Bill has done much for Canada in England. What is our position? They say that we have been opposed to Reciprocity, it is a very daring assertion to make, but I have said that Sir Richard Cartwright is a very bold man. If he were not a bold man he would not dare to make that statement, in the face of the public records of the country."

"Who did the Reciprocity Treaty in 1854 come from? My Right Hon. friend was in the Government which carried it through the Parliament that made it a law. My Right Hon. friend went down to Washington as one of Her Majesty's plenipotentiaries in 1871, and what do the records tell? The records tell that on that occasion he offered a renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854 to the United States and they refused it. I was sent as one of Her Majesty's plenipotentiaries, named by my Right Hon. friend and, I went down to Washington two years ago, and what were my instructions? UNDER THE INSTRUCTIONS WHICH I RECEIVED THE DIFFICULTIES BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES WOULD BE REMOVED BY THE EXTENSION OF TRADE BETWEEN THE COUNTRIES, MY INSTRUCTIONS DID NOT LIMIT US TO THE TREATY OF 1854. Since that treaty was passed, great changes have occurred and industries that it was desirable to have embraced in the Reciprocity Treaty at that time had changed and had altered, but the United States and Canada both gave back the treaty as a basis, as my Right Hon. friend says in his declaration to the Imperial Government and to the United States that such restrictions and such extensions as are found to be conducive."

"I have no hesitancy in saying that no man has a greater admiration for the people of the United States than I have. THERE IS NO MAN IN THIS COUNTRY FROM THE FIRST HOUR WHEN I SET MY FOOT ON THE FLOOR OF THE LEGISLATURE OF NOVA SCOTIA, DOWN TO THE PRESENT HOUR WHO HAS MORE STEADILY, MORE CONTINUOUSLY AND MORE EARNESTLY ENDEAVORED TO MAINTAIN THE MOST INTIMATE AND FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH THE STATES AND AMERICA. I FELT IT WAS DISGRACEFUL, THAT IT WAS ALMOST A DISGRACE TO CIVILIZATION, TO HAVE THE TWO BRITISH FAMILIES OCCUPYING THIS CONTINENT ON ANY OTHER TERMS THAT ARE OTHER THAN TERMS OF HARMONIOUS AND FRIENDLY CHARACTER. I challenge any man to put a finger on any words I have ever uttered upon any act I have ever done which was not in the direction of promoting good friendship with our neighbors across the border. I have watched their progress with pride and pleasure. I felt it was a tribute to the great Anglo-Saxon race, from which both nations have sprung, and I also felt that as they succeeded on the southern half of this continent, so might we continue their success in building up this northern half in industry and in progress."

MR. CROCKET AND THE SHINGLE TARIFF

The following communication addressed by Mr. O. S. Crocket to the Minister of Finance in March, 1910, speaks for itself:

Finance Minister:
House of Commons,
Ottawa, March 11, 1910

Hon. W. S. Fielding,
Minister of Finance, Ottawa

Dear Mr. Fielding:—I have a communication from the Scott Lumber Company, Ltd., who operate two or three mills in my constituency, requesting me to lay before you connection with the recent negotiations between the Canadian and the United States governments upon the tariff matters, the representation THAT THE RECENT INCREASE IN THE AMERICAN DUTY UPON SHINGLES HAS SERIOUSLY AFFECTED THE BUSINESS OF CANADIAN MILLS, PARTICULARLY IN THE MARITIME PROVINCES. THEY CLAIM THAT THE RATE OF 50 CENTS PER THOUSAND IS UNREASONABLE AND ALMOST PROHIBITIVE, AND THAT IN THE INTEREST OF THIS TRADE OUR GOVERNMENT SHOULD AT LEAST ENDEAVOR TO HAVE IT REDUCED TO THE OLD BASIS OF 30 CENTS A THOUSAND.

I trust that if the question of revision of the two tariffs is taken up that you will bear this communication in mind.

Yours truly,
OSWALD S. CROCKET

As Mr. Crocket correctly pointed out the duty on shingles is almost prohibitive. It is so high that it has almost paralyzed the shingle manufacturing industry. The Laurier government has provided a remedy in reciprocity, but do we find Mr. Crocket supporting it. Not on your life. Consistency thou art a jewel.

TRAITORS TO FLAG AND THE KING.

This is to be a "flag election." Very well, have it so. We shall not mince words. The man who endeavors in Canada to arouse prejudice and stir up hatred against the people of the United States is a traitor to his King.

King George and his ministers seize every opportunity to make more friendly the relations between Great Britain and the United States. That was Queen Victoria's policy. It was King Edward's policy, and it is the policy of King George. It is the policy of wisdom, but it is also the cry of the blood.

Who in Canada dares to resist it and yet call himself loyal to his King? That man is a traitor who seeks to undo what the King and his advisers seek to accomplish. Place the shame where it belongs. King George has so high a regard for the friendship and so great reliance in the good faith of the American people that he has signed with their government the most sweeping arbitration treaty ever adopted by two great nations. In the event of European complications, which would involve Canada along with Britain, the friendship of the United States would be a bulwark of infinite value. By adopting the trade agreement Canada will make relations more friendly and so strengthen the international position of the British Empire. Who, then, are the real traitors to their flag and King?

A Hundred To One

(Special Despatch to The Globe) Kingston, Sept. 15—"The chances of Mr. R. L. Borden defeating Sir Wilfrid Laurier about one hundred to one," declared Sir Richard Cartwright to a great gathering in the City Hall this evening in the interest of the Liberal candidate, Mr. John McDonald Mowat. "And let me say to every elector," continued Sir Richard, "every vote cast against Sir Wilfrid Laurier is practically a vote for Henri Bourassa, who will be your master, and not Mr. Borden."

These references were in answer to Hon. Clifford Sifton's prophecy that the Laurier Government would be defeated on the 21st.

"I am inclined to let Mr. Sifton answer Mr. Sifton," remarked Sir Richard, who went on to say that Mr. Sifton was not always opposed to reciprocity. When Mr. Sifton was not always opposed to reciprocity, then Mr. Sifton took office in 1896 in the Laurier Cabinet the first thing he did was to start a propaganda in the United States to induce Americans to invade Canada with their capital, and from which Mr. Sifton benefited very materially. Sir Richard hoped that Mr. Sifton would return to a sane mind and saner reason.

In dealing with reciprocity Sir Richard declared that if the present agreement was rejected it would be a long time before the Canadian people would again see a singular offer made by an American President or sustained by an American Congress.
