HOW TO AVOID PAINT WASTE

Two-thirds of the cost of painting is in the labor of coat. It costs more to put on a poor paint than a good one. Because poor paint won't work so well under the painter's brush--won't spread so easily or evenly. And you can't get as good a job. The poor paint won't cover as many square feet to the gallon as Ramsay's Mixed Paint--the good paint--will cover. And won't last anything like as long. You buy it at the

SHORT and SNAPPY

The secret of the success of our Want Ads. is that they are short and snappy. People like a plain business story told in a few words and if they want anything they refer to the place where they will find it with the least trouble, viz., the Classified Want Ads. is your business represented there.

BIG ENTRY LIST FOR FREDERICTON EXHIBITION RACES

Free for all Declared off and Entries
Distributed--Each Class has ten to Twelve Entries

The entries for the Fredericton Exhibition races will probably be announced in the near future. Seven races are to be held and present prospects are that all classes will be well filled, ten eleven and twelve entries to each class being expected. The free-for-all has been declared off but the entries for it will be divided among the other classes. The entry list will include many of the horses now at Halifax and the races will equal anything in the way of exhibition races that Fredericton has ever seen.

RING NOTES

Jack Dillon is willing to meet any middle-weight with the exception of Bill Papke and Frank Klaus. Johnny Conlon will not be seen in ring until next winter on account of the recent death of his father. Jimmy Carroll, the California featherweight, is in New York looking for bouts with some of the Gotham fighters. The recent bout between Bill Papke and "Sailor" Burke was the worst piece of cheese pulled in New York for many a day.

With Young, Tenney, Kling, Steinfeldt and Donlin the Boston Rustlers surely have a big bunch of veterans. It is said by Manager Clark Griffith of the Cincinnati team is slated to manage the St. Louis Browns next season.

WHEN TORIES SIGNED AN ANNEXATION MANIFESTO

"When I hear the Conservatives, not only in this province but through out the dominion raising the loyalty cry I cannot help contrasting the condition of affairs which exists today with those which existed years ago when the leading Conservatives of the day signed that famous manifesto demanding of the mother country reciprocity with the United States and threatening annexation."

"That same manifesto, which was sent over to England and was signed right in the loyalist city of St. John by all the then prominent Conservatives of the day. "It may sound like ancient history" remarked the Senator, "but it was only sixty-two years ago. It was a business proposition then and not a question of loyalty. Matters reached such a state, in fact, that England, in order to arrange matters satisfactorily, asked Lord Elgin to negotiate a treaty for the Canadian provinces. The reciprocity treaty of 1854 followed and, strange to say, reciprocity, which today Conservatives fear will bring about annexation, resulted then in burying the annexation cry."

SOMETHING ABOUT POTATOES

The record show that in the year 1861 under the old reciprocity treaty New Brunswick produced 4,041,339 bushels of potatoes, while last year according to the St. John Standard of August 18th, the potato crop of the province was estimated at from 650,000 to 750,000 bushels. In other words New Brunswick fifty years ago with a population one hundred thousand less than it has today, and with primitive transportation facilities, RAISED AND MARKETING OVER SIX TIMES AS MANY POTATOES AS IT DID IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 1910. The explanation is found in the fact that the great markets of the United States were then open to the farmers of New Brunswick while they were closed in 1911. Could any stronger argument be advanced in favor of reciprocity let the farmers of York think the matter over for themselves. Let them ask Mr. Crockett and his campaigners for an explanation of this great falling off in potato production.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 2--In the American League baseball park Monday afternoon Frank Gotch, the world's champion wrestler, will defend his title against George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," from whom Iowa grappler wrestled the championship in a contest in this city on April 3, 1908. The bout has attracted attention on both sides of the Atlantic and should prove the choicest tid-bit that has been offered followers of the game in a long while. The men will wrestle to a finish, the winner gaining two falls out of three and carrying off the lion's share of the gate receipts besides a large side bet and the championship title.

Both wrestlers are reported today to be in the finest fettle for the match, and all indications point to a desperate struggle for supremacy. In a broad sense the contest will be one of cleverness against strength and endurance. Gotch is acknowledged to be the cleverest wrestler who ever stepped on the mat. Hackenschmidt employs no little science in his moves, but his main reliance always has been his wonderful powers of strength and endurance.

GOTCH HAS DEFEATED THEM ALL

Nearly all critics are agreed that Frank Gotch is the greatest wrestling champion since the days of Jack Carew, when the latter was at his best. Not so many years ago Gotch was working on a farm in Iowa. "Farmer" Burns, the old-time wrestler, owned the farm, and it was as a sort of a trainer to Burns that Gotch started in the game. That was in the year 1899. Since that time the Iowa has engaged in 331 matches, not counting many minor affairs, and of this number he lost only seven, five of them being handicap matches, in which he failed to throw his man as many times as agreed. Gotch practically became champion in 1906 when he defeated Tom Jenkins at Kansas City. Jenkins was then considered the best in the country. Among other well known wrestlers whom Gotch has mastered may be mentioned Duncan McMillan, Carl Poms "Farmer" Burns, Jim Parr, Ed. Atherton, Americans, Yankee Rodgers, Dr. Roller, Fred Beil, and Hjalmar Lundin. His greatest match was with George Hackenschmidt, when he won the championship three years ago. Gotch won without a fall, as Hackenschmidt gave up after two hours and 8 minutes of work on the mat without any sign of a fall.

HACK AN ALL AROUND ATHLETE

There is probably no athlete in the world with a greater reputation than George Hackenschmidt. Previous to taking up wrestling he was considered the strongest man in Europe, and he was also one of the greatest athletes in all-round work. His first notable mat contest was with Paul Pons, at that time the Graeco-Roman champion of the world. Hackenschmidt won the match in 46 minutes. His success determined him to become a professional wrestler. In the succeeding years he defeated all the best men of Europe, without any apparent trouble. One of the most exciting matches he ever had was when he met Madrali, the "Terrible Turk" with an unbeaten record. The match was for the world's championship. Notwithstanding the great strength and weight of the Turk, Hackenschmidt defeated him in just 44 seconds. Not until he met Frank Gotch did the big Russian know the sting of defeat. Hackenschmidt acknowledges that Gotch is the cleverest man in the game, but he declares that in the coming match he will be able to undermine the strength of the champion with his far greater strength and in the end will be returned the winner.

The two new recruits from the New England League, Patsy Bauman with Detroit, and Henriksen with the Boston Red Sox, are both making good. Grover Cleveland Alexander, the sensational young twiler of the Phillies has signed a three year contract with President Horace Fogel. A novelty of the Polo grounds in New York will be marble boxes. The innovation is the idea of Jim Foster the widely known architect of baseball arenas.
