

WONDERFUL CURE IN BONAVENTURE

Dodd's Kidney Pills Again Cause a Sensation

They Cured Dame Aubin Bonne, who for Fifteen Years, Had Endured the Tortures of Diabetes—Interview with Dame Bonne.

Musellyville, Bonaventure Co., Que., March 17. (Special)—"I suffered all that any person could endure." These are the words of Dame Aubin Bonne of this place, in telling of her wonderful cure from Diabetes, which held her in its grasp for fifteen years. She declares that Dodd's Kidney Pills and nothing else must get the credit for her cure.

"I had pains in my head and back and stiffness of the joints," Dame Bonne continues. "I lost my appetite and suffered from Heart Disease and had difficulty in breathing. Doctors attended me but they could do me no good."

"After fifteen years of constant suffering I was persuaded to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used fifteen boxes and now I can do my own work. Do you wonder that I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills?"

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Dame Bonne because all her ailments were of or from the Kidneys. If you have Kidney Disease in any form don't wait fifteen years for someone to persuade you. Use Dodd's Kidney Pills and be cured.

HARVARD DORMITORY DESTROYED BY FIRE

Cambridge Mass, March 16—Randolph Hall on Mount Auburn Street, Cambridge, which is occupied by the wealthiest students at Harvard College, was practically destroyed by fire about four o'clock this morning with a loss of $100,000. The scenes attendant upon the students hastily leaving the burning dormitory were of the most thrilling character. Ladders were raised against the burning building and many of the inmates in scant attire were taken down over the ladders. The structure was called the "Millionaires' Club."

SITUATION HAS AGAIN BECOME ALARMING

Peking, March 16—The Russo-Chinese situation has again become alarming. Russian troops including cavalry and artillery were today moved in the direction of Kuldja, Eastern Turkestan. The officers were notified that invasion of China was contemplated.

Much regret is felt at the death at the age of 91 years of Mr. Thomas Gordon, Londonderry, where he had lived for many years.

Hon Mr. Burchill Sharply Criticizes the Hazen Methods of Handling Provincial Affairs—The Crown Lands Department—Hazen Government Attacks Upon an Official Because He Has Done His Duty—Hazen's Partisan Efforts to Help the Dominion Conservative Cause Must Line Up All Liberals in Opposition to the Provincial Government.

In the House on Friday afternoon, Hon. Mr. Burchill, the independent member from Northumberland, continued his speech in the budget debate. He continued also his careful, but sharp criticism of the government to which he has hitherto been giving independent support. That his words struck tender spots in the government's position was well shown by the course followed by Hon. Mr. Maxwell who was the next speaker. Mr. Maxwell devoted a good deal of the time which he took up to an attack upon Mr. Burchill, even allowing himself to come at least perilously near the personal.

Mr. Burchill's speech of Friday is reprinted below. It will be seen that he took the administration sharply to task for its course in respect to Crown Land affairs. He protested against the action of government men in making the insinuation that the lumber operators of this province, the men behind one of our greatest industries, are thieves and robbers who try to defraud the province. He protested, too, against the present method of stumpage collection which instead of showing improvement over the method followed by the former government, is less satisfactory.

The Northumberland Independent also took issue with the government papers and speakers who have been calling for the dismissal of the Auditor General on the ground that he is a Liberal. It is well known, of course, that the Auditor General's fearless and justifiable protests against the government's methods of handling the provincial finances provide the chief reason why it is sought to dispense with his services and then, moreover, he is supposed to have been guilty of what under the Hazen government is little short of a crime, namely, of being a Liberal. Mr. Burchill, however, said that he understood that the Auditor had been a Conservative. But whatever his politics, things have surely come to a pretty pass when government speakers and their newspaper organs urge the dismissal of an important provincial official because he has done his duty and has sought to protect the money of the people.

In closing Mr. Burchill drew attention to the fact that the Hazen government, which when it took office was supposed to be a coalition ministry which would be unaffected by party politics in its administration of provincial affairs, has drawn the party lines so tightly; has so become a part of the Conservative organization in the Dominion that there is now nothing for the Liberals of the province to do but to line up in opposition to Premier Hazen. The Liberals of New Brunswick cannot be expected to support a government which works with the Conservative party at Ottawa to destroy the political friends of these Liberals.

These facts in regard to the course which has been forced upon the Liberals by the partisanship of the Hazen government have already been realized by hundreds of Liberals who in 1908, gave Mr. Hazen their support.

Mr. Burchill's words on Friday show that this realization is becoming ever more clear.

HON. MR. BURCHILL.

On the order of the day being called, Mr. Burchill resumed the debate, said he would not delay the House very long. The government has claimed that in former years the lumbermen had been robbing the province by not paying their full stumpage dues. If there were any means of comparing the action of the lumbermen of today with those of the past, it would not appear that the lumbermen did not merit this slander. His hon. friend from Carleton, (Mr. Upham), had said that the government had not changed the methods of appointing scalers and collecting stumpage. He did not agree with him for reasons which he would give. It had been the custom of the former government to send the lumbermen their stumpage bills in May of each year. But what happened last year? The bills were not sent out owing to the delay of the Crown Land Department, till August and two weeks later additional bills were sent out from the department increasing the charges and operators were thus obliged to pay more than they really should have paid. Furthermore, this season had brought another new plan. His hon. friend from Kings had said that the department's method was the result of experience but he did not think much of such a method resulting from experience. THE PRESENT SYSTEM OF STUMPAGE COLLECTION IS BASED ON THE WHOLLY UNFAIR ASSUMPTION THAT THE LUMBERMEN ARE ROGUES AND THIEVES. The scalers and counters now often move with their whole families into the woods, and stay there all winter and he wished to protest against a custom which put the operators to unnecessary inconvenience and expense in providing accommodation for these men.

He wished to call attention to the quantity of lumber claimed to have been cut on Crown Land. There was shipped from the ports of Miramichi in 1908 74,000,000 feet of lumber; in 1909, 72,000,000 and in 1909 79,000,800 feet. These were only the transatlantic shipments and did not include the lumber shipped to the United States and other points. In 1908 51,800 cords of pulp wood were shipped out of the province; in 1909 31,000 cords and in 1910 33,600 cords. Some of this he admitted, was cut from private lands, but about one-half was cut from the Crown Lands. Prior to these years large quantities of lumber came down the Miramichi and were shipped from that port, but since then he knew of one concern which had materially decreased the cut sent down the Miramichi, and another firm is now now sending any whatever.

After further criticising the administration of the Crown Lands Department, Mr. Burchill said that it is unfortunate that the drift of the House is towards party lines. When the government came into power it was on the pledge to act as a coalition government. But nearly every meeting held in the interests of the government is advertised as a Conservative meeting. Mr. Hazen had received a telegram from Mr. R. L. Borden saying what great work he (Hazen) has been doing for the Conservative party in New Brunswick.

Mr. Hazen—I never received such a telegram.

Mr. Burchill, continuing, said that he had seen some references to the matter in the St. John Standard. IT IS UNFORTUNATE THAT THE PARTY LINES HAD BEEN DRAWN BY THE GOVERNMENT BUT SINCE THAT HAS BEEN DONE ALL LIBERALS MUST OPPOSE THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION.

He had seen some suggestions in the Conservative papers that the Auditor General is not in sympathy with the government and that, therefore, he should be dismissed. He thought this was carrying matters altogether too far, to condemn a good official simply because he did his duty.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to incorporate the St. John Power Boat Club. Hon. Mr. Flemming introduced a bill respecting taxes on incorporated companies for the better enforcing of the collection of certain taxes. Mr. Wilson on behalf of Mr. Hatheway, introduced a bill to amend the act incorporating the Women's Christian Union of the Town of Portland.

Mr. Lowell moved for an address for papers relating to the Suspension Bridge, St. John.

Hon. Mr. Hazen said that the copies of the reports, etc., would be laid before the House without the necessity of an address. It would be Tuesday next, however, before the copies of the papers would be completed.

Mr. Lowell said that he hoped there would be no delay as there is a feeling that the Suspension Bridge was unsafe.

Hon. Mr. Hazen—That's a mistake.

Hon. Mr. Hazen gave notice of motion for the appointment of a committee to take up suggested changes in the Election Law.

Mr. Pinder introduced the petition of John A. Miller, president of the Maritime Conference of Seventh Day Adventists in favor of a bill relating to that denomination.

suming population within one night's run of the Niagara peninsula than they have now in the whole Dominion of Canada, and that he was very much mistaken if they would not have a very greatly enlarged and more profitable market. I think I will take that gentleman's statement in preference to the statement of those who know nothing about it.

Mr. Barker—Who was it?

Mr. Carvell—Perhaps it would not be fair for me to give his name.

Mr. Barker—Oh yes it would.

Mr. Carvell—I will give it to my hon. friend in confidence.

Mr. Barker—Oh, let us have it in public; he was not a Canadian.

Mr. Carvell—He was a Canadian, and a good one at that.

Mr. Barker—Name him then.

Mr. Carvell—But, Mr. Chairman, British Columbia and the Niagara peninsula are not the only portions of Canada which raise fruit. There is a portion of Canada comprising about one-eighth of the population of this country—and we think more than one-eighth of the brains and ability of this Dominion—called the Maritime Provinces, and in proportion to population the Maritime Provinces produce fruit to as great if not a greater extent than do British Columbia and the Niagara peninsula. Go to the Annapolis valley and it is in the knowledge of every gentleman in this House that, be they Grit or Tory, the farmers of that wonderful fruit growing valley—and there is nothing to equal it in the world today for raising apples—are enthusiastically in favor of this arrangement. Today the apple growers of the Annapolis valley are compelled to devote their energies exclusively almost to growing a winter apple which they can export to Great Britain. True, they raise a summer apple called the Gravenstein, but at present they have no considerable market for them, and the production is limited in quantity. But, with the market of the United States, which this agreement will give us, the possibility of raising summer apples in the Annapolis valley is almost unlimited. Had these farmers had a market of the United States for the past ten or fifteen years they would export quadruple the quantity they export at the present time. In my own constituency, twenty years ago we were growing a summer apple called the New Brunswick, which is very much like the Duchess. It was developed by a Mr. Sharpe, who devoted his life to the industry and made a success of it, and twenty years ago we were shipping apples to Boston by the carload and people were planting orchards all over the country. But the

Neilson's Chocolates

The Chocolates That Are Different.

The first enticing piece of Neilson's Chocolates you taste, will show you how different are these delicious confections.

To secure the richness of flavor and delicacy that are inseparable with Neilson's "Hard Centers", we use rich, sweet cream—and make the centers only firm enough to be easily eaten. To keep these centers just right—neither too soft not too hard—is the perfection of candy-making—and Neilson's "Hard Centers" are as perfect as they are different.

The chocolate coating forms a thick, firm, crisp shell perfectly enveloping each wholesome centre.

All these chocolates have the "Extreme Split Dip". It's a Neilson specialty—exclusive with Neilson's Chocolates de Luxe—another touch of distinction that makes them different.

Perhaps you prefer Creams to "Hard Centers"—or "Cherries in Maraschino Chocolate Dipped" to either. You can get all three under the Neilson name—also 30 other packages of these different Chocolates.

If you cannot get Neilson's Chocolates in your neighborhood, send 80c. for a pound box of the most delicious assorted Chocolates you ever tasted.

es and the market was taken from us and our orchards went to decay. Give us the United States market and these orchards will be resuscitated, and new orchards planted, and where today we do not sell a carload of that fruit in the United States, in a few years to come, when the young trees which will be planted are in bearing, we will send hundreds of carloads.

Mr. Crockett—What was the American duty against Canadian fruit 20 years ago?

Mr. Carvell—It was nothing; that is just what I am telling you; it was free. When fruit was free in the United States we could send our apples there, but when the McKinley Bill came into operation against us our orchards went into decay.

Mr. Crockett—Is the hon. gentleman quite certain that under the United States tariff 20 years ago Canadian fruit was free?

HAS THE PROOF

Mr. Carvell—I do not like to make a statement that I cannot back up with proof and I have not the tariff of 20 years ago here, but I think I am right, and my hon. friend from Peel (Mr. Blain) will bear me out in the statement.

Mr. Blain—I will not. Nobody would suggest that in the United States 20 years ago there was not a very heavy duty against apples as there is today.

Mr. Carvell—Within my lifetime fruit was free going into the United States, and the apples were sent there in large quantities and they cannot go there today because of the duty.

Mr. Crockett—We merely wish to understand your statement.

Mr. Loggie—Before the McKinley

Mr. Carvell—Yes, I believe it is 21

Mr. Blain—Since the hon. gentleman
