THE CAMPAIGN IN YORK GOING WITH A SWING

procity being particularly effective. Mr. Melchior Jones was in the chair.

AT NASHWAAKSIS.

At Nashwaaksis Rev. J. J. McCaskill last night delivered his first address in York County and met with a most hearty reception. Mr. J. D. Phinney also delivered an address. The chair was taken by Mr. George Pugh. The speakers dealt in detail with the Reciprocity agreement. Mr. McCaskill proved himself to be a public speaker who had a perfect acquaintance with his subject and a most effective manner of presenting his arguments. He was cheered repeatedly. Short addresses by the chairman and by Mr. Phinney were also well received.

AT WILLIAMSBURG.

Williamburg turned out in force last night to hear Mr. Michael Kelley of St. Martin's, the "blind orator," who delivered a most forceful address on Reciprocity and other issues of the day. Upwards of one hundred and fifty people were in attendance at the meeting and gave Mr. Kelley a most attentive hearing. The meeting broke up with cheers for Atherton.

WILLIAMSBURG, N. B.

In spite of a down pour of rain the Temperance Hall at Taymouth was filled with men and women to greet the Reciprocity speaker on Saturday evening.

Mr. R. Ludlow Young was elected chairman and introduced Mr. Alex. Gibson Jr., ex-M.P. as the first speaker.

On rising Mr. Gibson said he had the honor of naming Taymouth when he gave them their new post office. While at Ottawa he had done many things for old York. He had the Canada Eastern taken over by the government and made a part of the I. C. R.; and now you have a first class road of increasing traffic and trains passing your doors hourly.

He then plunged into the lumber question and showed how vitally it would be affected by Reciprocity "you only send your deal to the old Country," said Mr. Gibson, "while your boards, your lath from the slabs off the logs and your shingles, must go and do to the United States." "Were it not for the United States market your lath which not only pay for their own sawing but for the sawing of the deal must burn at the end of your mill. When you get your bill for your lath, the duty, commission, etc., are deducted and the amount will be returned to you. All millers know that. Ask them; and take their word before some city man or clerk's opinion. Ask Mr. Elwood Burt of Burt's Corner or Hay Bros. at Millville, or any other exporter of lumber.

Mr. Gibson asked what about the "Pike Law?" Did they tell you that by the repeal of that law, lumber cut in Maine can no longer be floated down this river, rafted at the Douglas booms and sawed in our mills at St. John. No they didn't tell you that. Mr. Hay says he was able to pay the farmers 50 CENTS A THOUSAND MORE for their logs last year because the duty on sawn lumber was reduced by 75 cents on the thousand feet. Then what about stumpage? Did the engrossing clerk who spoke here know all about that too? Stumpage in New Brunswick is say $2.00 or $2.50 on crown lands and say $3.00 on private holdings. The stumpage in the United States is from $5.00 to $8.00. When reciprocity passes as pass it will on the 21st inst for the NATIONALIST and TORY COMBINE can't beat Sir Wilfrid, the stumpage in New Brunswick will rise and in one year be equal to that in the United States But the Hazen government are out in full force to defeat this agreement and if they can do it the amount of stumpage won't be half what it would be if it passes. I'm no orator or spouter like those engrossing clerks and young lawyers but I've forgotten more about lumber than they ever knew! Mr. Gibson closed a half hour's speech and was loudly applauded.

Mr. N. W. Brown was next introduced and for more than two hours he held the enrapt attention of all in one of the best speeches of his life. He flayed the opposition for their lightening summer assault on the reciprocity question; for their sham and pretence of loyalty, which they degraded at election times, while they bedragled the old flag by trying to ride into power on it. "Shame, shame, a thousand shames," said Mr. Brown, "when history shows they have not been the imperial party in Canada!" It is nothing new for the Tory party to obstruct. From the days of the Stewarts to the days of the present, they have been obstructing Responsible Government in Canada. The passing of the British Preference, the building of the G.T.P. they were against the people's best interest, as they were today. He took up their objections to Reciprocity one by one and showed that traffic will always seek the shortest routes in spite of railway lines; that Reciprocity will NOT ruin our industries; that it will NOT destroy our natural resources but help to develop them; that the United States will not flood our markets; because this agreement only includes natural products, with a lowering of the tariff on farm implements.

Proceeding the speaker said: "They now say 'Let well enough alone.' I thank them for the compliment. They used to say, 'You Liberals could not govern. You would ruin the country if ever you got in power. Canada would go to the dogs and be annexed to the United States.' Now they say, 'every class is prosperous, wages are high and the price of farm products good. Let us quit striving. Fold your arms. Canada is finished! But OUR POLICY IS ADVANCE! Open up new markets; so if one don't suit another will.'"

It was a false argument that we use 60 per cent of all we produce. Of eggs, meat and fruit no one can say, but of our great staple wheat our 2,000,000 of people use in a year less than 50 per cent. We raise 200,000,000 bushels and competent persons say in the next ten years we will raise TEN TIMES THAT AMOUNT.

One of the Quebec Tory stumpers said in St. John that New Brunswick imported yearly $2,000,000 of agricultural products. When that statement was analysed it was found that ONE AND A QUARTER MILLIONS of that amount was raw cotton which cannot be grown in Canada and is admitted duty free.

The speaker read Mr. Geo. E. Foster's Article on Reciprocity as printed in the University Magazine of Toronto last December and Mr. O. S. Crockett's letter on "Shingles" and asked "If any of you asked a favor of Mr. Fielding or any one else, and he granted it could you turn around and call him a traitor? Fielding had granted Crockett's request and the duty on shingles under reciprocity had been reduced from 50 to 30 cents per thousand and for us he has taken off the duty on hay and potatoes and beef cattle and lambs. Is he a traitor or for doing it?"

Mr. Brown closed an eloquent and impassioned speech by a plea for freer and wider markets that would double and quadruple our productions. He then read a copy of the trade agreement showing that each country was left ABSOLUTELY free to make at any time, whatever changes in the tariff it thought expedient, or annul the agreement altogether.

Inclosing he asked any in the audience to ask a question. Several were asked and answered in this informal way and much interest was taken in a discussion on the prices of hay and potatoes, etc.

OTHER MEETINGS.

Enthusiastic meetings were also held at Douglas and Springfield. The speakers at Douglas were Messrs. R. W. McLellan and S. B. Hatheway and at Springfield Rev. J. H. Puddington and Mr. Elwood Burt. The issues of the campaign were dealt with in thorough fashion and Reciprocity was heartily cheered.

BLOOMFIELD RIDGE

Bloomfield, Aug. 29.—The weather for the past few days has been very inclement, the heavy rains was much needed.

Wood-cutting is the order of the day, Adam J. Cowie and son Lawrence are doing a rushing business with their new gasoline engine.

Our popular school teacher, Miss Edith Holden is back with us again for another year.

Miss Evelyn G. Boies was the guest of her aunt, Beatrice J. Calhoun on Sunday, Aug. 27.

Mr. Garfield Walker of Pennac, York Co., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Boies.

Miss Nellie McLeod is visiting friends on Bloomfield this week, she expects to return to Boiestown in the near future.

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN SURELY PUTS THE STOMACH IN ORDER

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of Indigestion or some form of Stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapepsin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy Stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly written on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily see why it makes Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and relieves at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour, undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation and other Stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from Indigestion and Dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe theirs is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid. Gas and Stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and in the intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapepsin.

YALE STOCK COMPANY

The rural drama has always had a strong hold on the affect one of the theatre-going public, as witnessed by the wonderful success of such plays as Josh Whitcomb and The Old Homestead. Another play of the same type is, "The Village Parson," which has been selected for presentation during the engagement of Yale Stock Company at City Opera House. As one would expect of a play written by a man who knows the country, folk and their life so thoroughly as does this author, the play rings true, is clean, wholesome and whimsically amusing. It abounds in good character drawing, and well pictured types, and the story is so masterly constructed it comes straight across the footlights and grips the auditor firmly bringing him directly into the atmosphere of the play.

The story concerns a young, healthy, life loving chap, but lately graduated from college, who accepts a call to become pastor of a small church, in a gone to seed New England village. The preaching of fire and brimstone as a punishment for all sins of this world is not in accord with his views; the Golden Rule the equality of man, and practical Christianity are what he means to teach, and very soon after his installation he is involved in a maze of troubles, which threatens the stability of the church. How he brings harmony from discord, reunites his congregation into a strong, vigorous and thoroughly awakened community and brings a new prosperity to the village is well told, in the play. A play without love would not please everyone and so the author has interwoven a capital love story in which the young minister is a principal character, into the drama. "The Village Parson" is a well written play and will please the patrons of City Opera House on Thursday night immensely.

Mr. G. Bruce Dixon left this morning for Mouth of Kewick to attend the U.N.B. engineering camp.
