THE SUNBURY VACANCY

Mr. George A. Perley, warden of Sunbury, has won out in the fight for the nomination for the vacant seat in the Legislature caused by the resignation of Hon. J. D. Hazen. The Mail stated some weeks ago that Mr. Perley had claims for the position that the party managers could not very well afford to overlook and it is quite evident that he was of the same opinion. There were other aspirants for the honor including Coun. Patterson of Lincoln, Mr. Lewis H. Bliss of St. Mary's, Ald. Guthrie of this city and Coun. Taylor of Blissville. The name of Mr. Luther B. Smith, who was defeated at the recent Federal election, was freely mentioned, but it is understood that he positively declined to accept a nomination. Mr. Parker Glasier, M. P. P., favored the candidature of his brother-in-law, Mr. Bliss, but this looked too much like a family compact for the rank and file of the party and they flatly refused to stand for it. Ald. Guthrie's efforts to foist himself on the constituency also met with scant favor.

Mr. Perley some weeks ago in a published interview caused it to be understood that no non-resident need apply, and in this respect he is supposed to have been speaking two words for himself and one for the Conservatives of the County. He made up his mind to offer for the vacant seat anyway and Mr. Glasier and the other party managers had to give way to him.

The selection of Mr. Perley against the wishes of Mr. Glasier, is not likely to heal the breach which has existed between the Perley and Glasier factions in Sunbury for many years. Mr. Perley has probably not forgotten the last occasion when his late father ran as the colleague of Mr. Glasier, and was cruelly knifed in the Parish of Lincoln. Mr. Perley's rather emphatic opinion on the subject expressed at the time is no doubt still remembered by Mr. Glasier. If the relations of the two as members of the Legislature are not characterized by brotherly love and harmony nobody need be surprised.

Mr. Perley is a son of the late Hon. W. E. Perley, who for many years represented Sunbury in the Legislature, and the late Senator Dell Perley, recently deceased, was his brother. He has been prominent in Sunbury Municipal affairs for many years and is at present warden of the municipality. He is a successful farmer residing at Mauderville, and if experience counts for anything he ought to make a pretty fair representative.

The Mail does not know what action the Liberals of Sunbury will take in regard of the vacancy, but in view of the fact that a general election is only a few months away, it would not be surprising should they decide to allow the seat to go by default.

Winnipeg Free Press:—We may look with confidence for some new Parliamentary reputations as the result of the change of Government. Opposition is the place for the individual to make a name for himself; and able Liberal members who were blanketed in the last Parliament because they were not in the Government, are already beginning to emerge from their comparative obscurity. On the other hand, Conservative members who were active in Opposition, but failed to get a place in the Government—men like Mr. Barker, Mr. Lancaster, Mr. Lennox, Mr. Currie—will find themselves pretty effectively bottled up; and relatively their parliamentary stature will diminish.

tea is the result of care and experience in blending—must be the combination of fine flavor, smooth strength and richness. Because all these elements are so generously included in Red Rose Tea it well merits the term "good tea."

ALL ARE DISAPPOINTED

Old Country newspapers are beginning to point out how disappointing the conduct of the Borden government to date has proved to those foolish people who have been acclaiming the victory of the Tory-Nationalist coalition as "victory for the flag." The Manchester Guardian tells us that the "few speeches which Mr. Borden, the Conservative premier of Canada, has had time to make since he came into power have been remarkable for the disappointment they have brought to those Conservatives at home who professed to find in his return to office a heartening of their plans. In one of his earliest speeches he made it clear that he believed reciprocity—not only with the United States, but reciprocity of any sort—to be contrary to the best interests of the Dominion. Canadians had, he said, been led to put him in office by 'their determination to retain complete control of their own fiscal system,' and in the subsequent passage in which he described the ties which should bind Canada and Britain all mention of a trade agreement was notably absent. It seems likely, therefore, that advocates of imperial reciprocity will fare no better at the hands of Mr. Borden than they did at those of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"The second shock to the Conservatives at home comes in the announcement that Mr. Borden means to drop the naval policy of his predecessor without in the meantime substituting anything for it. This is doubtless a concession to his Nationalist allies, and something like it might have been foreseen when Mr. Monk, the most prominent of the 'anti-naval' party, agreed to take office in the Borden cabinet. Sir Wilfrid's scheme met with opposition from extreme 'imperialists,' who thought that it did not go nearly far enough, and from Nationalists, who thought that it went a great deal too far. It is to the latter that Mr. Borden has yielded for the moment, under cover of a vague promise of a scheme which is to satisfy all parties at some distant date.

"Clearly, if domestic peace is to attend his term of office, Mr. Borden will find it necessary to couple with inaction over imperial reciprocity of which he approves inaction over naval policy of which he avowedly does not approve. Neither is likely to bring much comfort to Conservatives at home."

The loyal Tory warriors who so gallantly rushed to the defence of the old flag in September, were not much in evidence when the motion came before the Parliament to elect Mr. P. E. Blondin to the post of deputy speaker. It was Mr. Blondin who once used the words, "we have had enough of England and the English."

Yesterday was nomination day for the Ontario Legislature and resulted in sixteen supporters of Sir James Whitney, being returned by acclamation. In the last House Sir James had eighty supporters out of a total membership of ninety-eight. It is evident that the opposition have no hope of defeating the government although it looks as if they stood a good chance of reducing its majority. But those who patronize a high-class hotel do not usually believe that the proprietor is insufficiently remunerated.

THE STOCK MARKET WAITING THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(Bydirect private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co., 624 Queen St., Fredericton)

New York, Dec. 5.—There was practically nothing done in the first hour. The volume of business was small and the price changes were unimportant. The street thought the President's message would be conservative but traders argued that it had already been discounted.

American Can Preferred sold off sharply on the announcement of the declaration of regular dividend. This action corresponded to the forecast made in this place on Monday forenoon when it was stated that no change would be made at this time, but that rate would be raised to 7 per cent. three months hence and that a start might then also be made on payment of the back dividends.

Washington, Dec. 5.—As the senate does not meet until 2 o'clock, President's message will probably not be sent to Congress until that time although the house meets at noon.

The Toronto Telegram, furiously Tory as it is, cannot conceal its indignation over Mr. Borden's surrender to the anti-British, no-navy crowd in Quebec. It declares that "Canada is disgraced under Hon. R. L. Borden as Canada was disgraced under Sir Wilfrid Laurier by the 'craven failure of her people to 'share in the cost of guarding the 'sacred cause of maritime freedom.' It was not to be expected that the Telegram would give Sir Wilfrid any credit, but at all events, he made a good start, while Mr. Borden is doing nothing. His Nationalist Bosses have settled that.

The proposal to appoint two officials to discharge the duties performed by the city treasurer is not one which should be seriously entertained by the city council. A competent man can collect the taxes as well as the water and sewerage rates and for the performance of those duties he is entitled to a decent salary. There is some good material available and the council will have little difficulty in selecting a man who will be satisfactory to the majority of citizens.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Weakness and Palpitation OF THE HEART.

Through one cause or another a large majority of people are troubled, more or less, with some form of heart trouble. Little attention is paid to the slight weakness of the heart, but when it starts to beat irregularly or intermittently, palpitate and throb, skip beats, beats fast for a time, then so slow as to seem almost to stop, then it causes great anxiety and alarm.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can and will give prompt and permanent relief.

They do this by their restorative influence on every organ and tissue of the body.

Mrs. John J. Downey, New Glasgow, N.S., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know what your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I was troubled with weakness and palpitation of the heart, would have severe choking spells, and could scarcely lie down at all. I tried many remedies, but got none to answer my case like your Pills. I can recommend them highly to all having heart or nerve troubles."
