

AN AVIATOR'S NOVEL ACHIEVEMENT

EUGENE ELY, LANDING ON DECK OF THE U.S.S. PENNSYLVANIA.

MR. ELY IN CENTRE, MRS. ELY ON LEFT, AND CAPTAIN ROND OF THE CRUISER ON RIGHT.

LEAVING THE U.S.S. PENNSYLVANIA FOR HIS RETURN FLIGHT.

COMING DOWN PLATFORM JUST AFTER LANDING.

MAUGERVILLE

Feb. 20.—Thursday evening about thirty of Fredericton's young folks, chaperoned by Mrs. N. A. LaForest, drove to the residence of Mr. Harry R. McCluskey, where they enjoyed cards and dancing, also a generous supper served by the Misses McCluskey.

The young folk of Maugerville and Lincoln on Friday evening had a surprise party at Mr. H. R. McCluskey's when Mr. McCluskey as usual proved a most genial host. Professor Bartlett furnished music for 13 dances and 3 supper extras. The party broke up in the "wee hours" and all voted a pleasant time.

Miss Slipp accompanied by a few friends spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Kenneth Dykeman, Jemseg, was the guest of Mr. Ernest Camp.

Miss Kate Miles is spending the winter in Woodstock.

Mrs. S. G. Kileen is staying a few days at McCluskey's Hotel.

Messrs. Gunter and Kelly contractors for the wharf at "McCluskey's Landing" have their crew at work.

Mrs. George Perley who has been ill is steadily improving.

LOWER PRINCE WILLIAM.

Feb. 20.—J. A. Lawrence and J. D. Miller left last Friday for Richmond, Carleton Co., last week on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Wm. Lounsbury is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. James Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Boddy and little daughter have gone to Millinocket, Me., for a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Jewett are visiting their daughter, Mrs. David Burden.

Mr. Tyler Sawyer is spending a few days at his home here.

Our pastor, Rev. C. N. Barton, is enjoying a short vacation with his mother at The Range, Queens Co.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle in connection with missionary work, will meet with Mrs. Joslin next Thursday afternoon.

Miss Hazel Hoyt and Miss Emily Lawrence were guests of Mrs. Miller last Thursday.

Mrs. Annie Hoyt spent an afternoon last week with Mrs. W. W. Boddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mawhinney of Mace's Bay, were visiting at H. L. Lounsbury's a short time ago.

Our school is progressing favorably under the management of Miss M. Elizabeth Clindinin.

We are having a lot of cold weather of late and a few light snow falls.

LOWER QUEENSBURY

Feb. 22.—The roads here are in excellent condition and the lumbermen are busy getting their logs hauled to the river.

Our school has opened again under the management of Miss Fanny Fox of Central Kingsclear, who has already proved herself a favorite with her pupils and also with the older people of this neighborhood.

Mrs. Jacob Barker who was visiting friends and relatives in this place and in Kingsclear has recently returned to her home in Fredericton.

Mansfield, the seventeen months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dykeman is quite sick with abscess on his face and neck. Dr. Robertson is in attendance.

Mr. Ernest Everett recently made a flying trip to this place.

Our mail driver, Mr. Moses Moore makes excellent time on the roads, we have a system of daily mail and Mr. Moore travels the distance every day from Woodstock to Keswick a distance of over fifty miles. He has only missed getting to the train in time to send the mail but once since last May.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murch were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Slipp on the 21st.

FROM THE RURAL DISTRICTS

Our pastor, Rev. C. N. Barton, is away visiting his mother in Queens County. A few of the fair sex are impatiently waiting to see his beaming face again.

Mr. Thompson the Congregationalist minister from Keswick Ridge occupied the pulpit on Sunday.

Mr. George Slipp one day as he was going to the barn discovered what he thought was a huge cat on the peak of the barn, on further observation however he saw it was not a common cat but a Bot Cat, he fired missed his aim and brought it down to the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. George Slipp and Mrs. Barker were visiting at Mr. Charles R. Gunter's one day this week.

Miss Alice Good is going to school at Acton this term.

Mr. Shalbume Ferguson had the misfortune to cut one of his feet quite badly.

Mr. David Coffey is helping Mr. Alexander Hood in the lumber woods. Mr. Ray Dykeman of Smithfield is employed by Mr. Lemuel Cliff in the same business.

The winter has been very favorable for the lumbermen and the most of them have their logs about hauled.

"The people of Lower Queensbury seem to think it is perfectly right to buy their goods where they can get the best values for their money. An order has just been sent which amounted to over eighty dollars.

Wedding bells are faintly chiming in the distance.

UPPER MAGAGUADAVIC.

Feb. 21.—The weather for the past few days has been quite cold, but we have not had much snow and the roads are very good.

Miss Eunice Hamilton, who has been visiting her aunts at Magundy, has returned home.

Our teacher, Mr. Lawson, spent Sunday with Mr. Sam McMullin, Blansy Ridge.

Mr. Leonard Jamieson is home from the woods with a sprained ankle.

Mr. Gordon Finnie and Mr. Herbert Henry are making sleepers across the lake.

Mr. Henry Saunders returned home from the woods. He was working with Mr. George Christie.

Mr. Harry Davis is able to be out again from an attack of jaundice. Dr. Dougan attended him for a week at Robinson's Hotel, Harvey.

Mr. Joseph McCutcheon received word from Boston last Thursday of the death of his little grandson.

UPPER KINGSCLEAR.

Feb. 20.—We have been having some frequent storms of late, but the roads are in a beautiful condition just now. Messrs. Gilford Hammond, Frank Burgoyne, Alexander Kelly and Ellisna Kelly made a flying trip from Poughke to this place on Saturday last and returned on Sunday.

Mr. Sandy McNally is hauling logs from Queensbury to Mr. Duncan Kelly's mill.

Mr. Jake Lawrence of Long's Creek is also hauling logs to the mill.

Mr. Harold Studts met with a painful accident one day last week, while cutting fire-wood for Mrs. Hammond. Dr. McKenzie of Prince William, was called to dress the wound.

Mr. Gerald Kelly has returned from the lumber woods and is now helping Mr. Victor Kelly to get up his fire-wood.

Our merchant, Mr. Herbert Smith, made a flying trip to Newmarket one day this week.

Messrs. Jas. and Wm. Kelly and brother Clarence made a flying trip to this place on Sunday last, and were the guests of Mrs. Frank Burgoyne and Mrs. Ed. Burgoyne, and returned to Fredericton on Monday.

Mr. William Moffat is on the sick list. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Joseph Goodine has returned home from Boiestown, where he has been in the lumber woods for some time.

Mr. Sanford McKeen is busily engaged hauling boom-poles and fire-wood.

Miss Mary J. Myrshall has been visiting friends at Myrshall Settlement.

Mr. Kosander has been making a visit in this vicinity, singing his favorite song "The Whipper-will."

Mr. Duncan Kelly will be busily engaged sawing-wood in a short time now.

Misses Tillie and Stella Myrshall of Myrshall Settlement, were the guests of Miss Stella Burgoyne one day recently.

Master Willie Goodine has been suffering for some time with an abscess in his ear but is getting better.

Miss Stella and Nellie Burgoyne and Mr. Jas. Kelly were driving last Monday morning and as we were having zero weather, Jack Frost made his appearance and Miss N. Burgoyne and Mr. Kelly had their ears badly bitten by him.

Violin and harmonica solos are the order of the evening.

UPPER HAINESVILLE

Feb. 21.—Men are coming out of the woods. Some have got in four months, some three and others six months.

Men logging at home are getting along well. Mr. Golden McKay will be through in a few days. Mr. Sanly Jones is done. W. F. Morris is also done. Thomas and Herb Caverhill will be done in a few days. Melie Morgan, Bert Dunlop and John Caverhill are about done.

Mr. George Sleep is doing good work hauling lath from Murray's Mills.

Fred Morgan, Jr., who has been suffering from a broken leg is very much improved under the care of Dr. Coffin of Southampton.

Mr. Frank Knox returned home from the woods last week with his team sick with horse-ail.

Mr. Ern. Jones who is hauling logs for Gold McKay loaded so heavily that he broke both of his hind sled runners in two. Ern says they have got to come or burst.

People of this settlement would like to have the people of Fredericton find out if Fred Morgan is dead or alive. He left this place before Christmas for Fredericton and has never returned yet. Some say he is in jail while others say he has joined the Salvation Army. He left thirteen sheep, two two-year-old cattle and hens to take care of themselves in an old barn with the side all out. The hens are all dead. The rest of the stock have pulled through up to date but have suffered a lot for the want of feed and water.

Mr. Norman Sharp of Nordinale is spending a few days at Mr. Andrew Dunlop's.

Miss Elsie Nason who has been spending the winter at Gibson returned home Saturday.

LAKEVILLE CORNER.

Feb. 24.—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ferguson, to the number of about thirty, gathered at their home on Monday evening of this week, it being the ninth anniversary of their marriage. A very pleasant evening was spent in playing games and music. Mrs. Horace Randall presided at the organ.

Luncheon was served at eleven o'clock, after which Mr. G. W. Briggs, on behalf of those present, presented Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson with a handsome chair and a shaving set as a slight token of the esteem in which they were held by those present.

Mr. Ferguson replied, thanking all present for their kindness.

The party left for their homes at about twelve o'clock, all agreeing that a pleasant evening had been spent.

Val, Paraiso, Chile, Feb. 24.—A railway train jumped the tracks on the bridge near the American Braden Copper Mines today and plunged into the ravine below. Fifty persons were killed or injured.

REV. DR. A. J. MOWATT'S
FAREWELL MESSAGE

The Last Sunrise the Subject of His Sermon For Sunday Evening—Eloquent Tributes Paid to the Deceased at His Funeral Service.

(Montreal Star)

Many in the vast crowd that filled Erskine Church yesterday afternoon bowed their heads and wept at the most dramatic point in the funeral service of the late Rev. Dr. Mowatt. It had been the lot of the departed minister to have furnished prior to his death an unexpected message, which brought home to hundreds of mourners yesterday their keenest sense of grief.

Looking through his papers this week, the members of his family discovered his last sermon, the one which he had prepared for the evening service last Sunday before death had stricken him. As the manuscript written for the morning service had been read last Sunday evening, his last message of all was reserved for the funeral yesterday afternoon.

"The last sunrise" was the subject of this sermon which he had intended to deliver himself four days ago, which was the last sunrise for him and the last Sunday morning that he ascended the pulpit which yesterday was so fittingly draped in black. From that same pulpit the two last paragraphs of his final sermon, the message closing with those significant words: "Let us be up and doing, then, for the night comes when no man can work."

It was a remarkable gathering that assembled to pay their last formal tribute to the late Dr. Mowatt. Many grey-haired men and women were in the crowd too feeble to rise when the solemn hymns were sung during the service. Ministers from sister denominations in the city occupied front pews of the church along with representatives of the late minister's own denomination. The service itself was simple in character. Rev. Dr. Barclay recited the Scriptural portion of the sermon; Rev. Dr. R. Cruikshank and Rev. Hugh Pedley delivered the opening and closing prayers; and the Rev. Dr. Scrimger told in simple language the story of Rev. Dr. Mowatt's record throughout forty-five years of ministry in Canada.

DR. SCRINGER'S TRIBUTE

"We are assembled here," said Rev. Dr. Scrimger, "to pay a last tribute of respect to our dearly beloved brother, who departed from us under circumstances of such undue solemnity. There are occasions when one hesitated to speak about the dead lest the words uttered seem to be too partial or even insincere, but there are few men whom I have known about whom I could speak more strongly and with less reserve than the Rev. Dr. Andrew J. Mowatt. Human limitations he had, of course as everyone has, but they were not limitations that effected in any way his Christian character or devotion as a Christian minister. He was large of frame and equally large of thought and broad in his kindly sympathy towards all classes and conditions of men—a man of singular simplicity of spirit, content to sacrifice himself for the master's sake, and willing to be forgotten provided the Master were honored.

"He knew nothing about human policies or the art of managing them but he gained confidence by his absolute straightforwardness and uniform consideration for the people about him. It was no wonder that he was trusted in positions of responsibility and of prominence in the church. His whole life was of one piece and was lived out in one spirit from beginning to end.

"Born in New Brunswick in 1838 of godly parentage he early dedicated himself to the Christian ministry and under some difficulty gained the training necessary for that work: ordained at the age of twenty-eight, he had served forty-five years continuously without any serious break or interruption, the last twenty of these years being spent in Montreal, and throughout the whole of that period he never changed his aims or lowered his ideals.

LARGE MEASURE OF SUCCESS.

"In all four charges in which he ministered he had a large measure of success. Members were added to the roll of the communities; new and larger church buildings were erected, but while he rejoiced in these signs of prosperity, he always strove more ardently still for the higher spiritual needs of renewed life and character. He yearned for souls, and valued all other rewards but lightly if these were denied him. He systematically visited all the families under his care and was especially attentive to the sick and afflicted. He was never fond of society for its own sake and felt but little at home in gatherings of a purely social character, yet he jealously waited for the opportunity of making his personal influence felt; his Master's business was always uppermost in his mind and he took little interest in anything that did not give him an opportunity of following it.

"His strength was mainly in the pulpit. He felt that he had a message and he sought to tell it in the most effective way possible. He was not naturally fluent of speech and extemporized only with great difficulty. He made it a point therefore to prepare his sermons with the greatest care, and he frequently rose early in the morning in order that he might have these hours of practical quiet for his task. Many passages were written again and again, and gone over before he was satisfied to let them stand. There is scarcely a single manuscript of his which is not so complete that it might have been sent to the printer at once. Being endowed with vivid imagination, it is no wonder that his descriptions were so striking as to picture at once the scenes before the minds of his hearers.

AN OTHODOX MINISTER

"As a thinker he would be called orthodox and evangelical, by some almost conservative. But he spent little time over matters of doctrine caring more for the practical conclusions. Before he came to Montreal a volume of his sermons was printed and for sale. For many years his sermons appeared in a weekly paper, sometimes being read aloud in little groups of worshippers, his service in that respect being well nigh unique. It will never be known on earth how many hearts and lives have been influenced for good by his words spoken and written.

"His relations with his own family were ideal and our deepest sympathy goes out to the members of his own household. There and elsewhere his memory will be fondly cherished as a kind husband and father, a good man and a good minister who did a noble work and has entered into a noble reward."

THE LAST MESSAGE

Rev. Dr. Scott delivered the departed pastor's last message as follows:

"Rev. Dr. Mowatt's last striking message prepared for his congregation last Sunday evening, was from the story of that Old Testament tragedy, the destruction of Sodom and the escape of Lot and his family by night from Sodom to the little town of Zore. The text was from Genesis 19, 23; 'And the sun was risen upon the earth when Lot came unto Zore.' He went on to show in his manuscript that the sunrise which lighted Lot into his city of refuge was the last sunrise for Sodom. And the closing words of that sermon the last sermon Dr. Mowatt ever prepared were:

"Oh, child of the world hearken to the mercy of God in Christ and yield thyself to the love-calls of the Gospel. Know this that the sunrise of light and love will soon come to an end and there will be for thee a last sunrise as yonder in Sodom, and then what wilt thou do? Oh, in this day of mercy and hope, bow down and kiss the feet of thy Lord and then will the eternal sunrise lighten thy soul.

"The last sunrise will awaken some morning as it has done for many a morning. Something happens and there are no more days of privilege and opportunity—our race run; our work done. Let us be up and doing for the night comes when no man can work."

SLIGHT REDUCTION IN WAR ESTIMATES

London, Feb. 24.—The army estimates for 1911-12 issued by war secretary Haldane today, show a total of $138,450,000. This is $350,000 less than the estimates for the preceding year.

Blessed is the woman who is as satisfactorily as a mother-in-law as she is as a mother.

Stops a Cough at Once

108

NOX A COLD IN ONE DAY

If you have a Cough, troubled with Bronchitis, Asthma, or any Lung Trouble; get a 25c. bottle of 108 Nox A Cold. You will never regret it. For sale at Ryan's Drug Store.