THE MISSES YOUNG*WAS TERRIBLY AFFLICTED WITH LAME BACK*Could Not Sweep Floor

Three Boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills Cured Her

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back.

Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered if they get out of order.

Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney trouble.

Mrs. N. Larmour, Smith's Falls, Ont., writes:—"I take pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About a year ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back and was so bad I could not even sweep my own floor. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, which I did, and with the greatest benefit. I only used three boxes and I am as well as ever. I highly recommend these pills to any sufferer from lame back or kidney trouble."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price to The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. In ordering direct specify "Doan's."

Doctor Told Her She Did Not Have a Pint of Good Blood in Her Body

Mrs. Dosithe P. Corner, Middle Sackville, N. B., says:

"In the spring of 1897 I was all run down, and the doctor told me I had not a pint of good blood in my body. I took different remedies from doctors, but they did not seem to do me any good. After having taken a lot of different other kinds of medicine, and they did not seem to benefit me, I was almost in despair and did not know what to do until my husband met a lady and told her about my sickness, and she told him to try Burdock Blood Bitters as she had received the greatest benefit from using it. My husband went and bought me a bottle and after having taken it I felt better, so I kept on using one bottle after another until I had taken six in all and then I was strong and well. I am positive that my being alive today is due to the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. One spring since then I was not feeling very well and had a lot of work to do. I thought I would procure a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and after I had taken two I was able to do a lot of hard work all the summer, and I never felt better in my 1903. In the winter of 1906 I had pneumonia, and it left me with a severe pain in the left side. Every morning when I would get out of bed I had to sit down for a while it was so painful. After I had used Burdock Blood Bitters the pain disappeared completely. It has also cured me of bleeding piles. I have received so much benefit from Burdock Blood Bitters that you may publish this as it may help others as it has me."

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS LOST BY CUSTOMS FRAUDS

(Canadian Press.)

New York, Jan. 31.—The World today says that investigations conducted by Collector of Customs Loeb and Appraiser Wansmaker have uncovered a revenue through which the government possibly has lost thousands of dollars. According to The World, federal officials today confirmed that importers of musical instruments have brought into this country instruments of all kinds invoiced below their true value. And that none of the largest importers in the trade has paid into the sub-treasury $50,000, representing under-valuation, plus a penalty.

Planning, building, decorating a home is a most fascinating occupation. Every home builder grasps at every suggestion that may give new ideas of better ways. To those and to all who appreciate the charm of well arranged houses, the February number of the Canadian Home Journal will give the greatest pleasure. With wide experience and exact knowledge Mr. Paul Fitzpatrick, the associate editor for this issue combines a very attractive manner of writing. The special headings are suggestive, "Houses that Fit," the surroundings for different styles; "The Heart of the House," all about fireplaces; "Building a Home," suggestions from experience. There is "Making the Home Decoration Individual" and "Household Decoration," containing suggestions for selection of harmonious curtains, shades, hangings and wall papers with stenciling designs for the home makers who enjoy the personal work in their homes. The regular household departments are good as usual, and there are well written short stories, and a fine page for the youngsters. WOMEN WHO DRESS WELL

The woman who knows how to dress effectively is the one who understands appropriateness. She need not be conventional. She need not follow fashion blindly. She may have individuality, and she will never make the mistake of wearing a street gown in the house or an elaborately trimmed gown on the street.

A famous southern beauty is always effectively clad. She has wonderful personality. She has chosen violet for her color. It may seem a startling choice, yet never, for a moment, does she seem flashy or loudly dressed. Now and then on the street she wears a gray tailor-made lined with the softest mauves or lavenders. Her hats have always a touch of wistaria or of lavender, and she is rarely without a bunch of violets to give the required note. In the house she can carry her hat to the extreme, and there she wears crepe dresses, some in lighter shades and some ranging to deepest purple. She never looks like any other woman, yet there is nothing out of place or odd.

Another woman never fails to have a touch of turquoise blue somewhere about her. Another like green and makes mignonette her favorite flower. All of these women use the perfume which fits in with their color scheme. None of them wears clothes of extreme cut. The mignonette girl or the violet girl would disdain a hobble skirt. Their draperies are soft and clinging.

But their hats never come unbekomingly down to the nose line, and hide their hair, and they never totter along on the French heels of fashionable shoes.

The result is that they are beautiful and that they have a dignity that no woman who strives merely for conspicuousness can attain. They have an individuality which places them among the elect.

If you take the actresses who charm you most you will find that they are not the ones who go about looking like freaks. They are rather those who make a style fit their individuality and who do not slavishly follow it.
