RING NOTES

Jack Sheehan will referee the bout at Boston between Battling Nelson and Young Saylor Tuesday night.

Young Donahue of Roxbury, has left for Sydney, C.B., where he will box Patsy Lucca and Mickey McIntyre within a couple of weeks.

It appears that the Jack Alton of Buffalo, who will box Jeff Madden of South Boston, in the semi-final bout at the Armory A. A. Tuesday night, is Walter Alterie, the ex-sailor. It will be a hot bout, for both are good batters.

Battling Nelson says he is not matched to box Tommy Meloney in New York. The old battler is training pretty hard every day for his coming bout with Young Saylor. He is as particular about his training as if he was going to battle for his old title. He is in good shape.

Bombadier Wells, whether he wins or loses in his battle Monday with Jack Johnson, is going to the United States.

Battling Nelson evidently wants to see a boxer beaten to pulp before the referee stops a bout. He wired to New York that Loughrey was robbed of the battle with Buck Crouse at the Armory A. A. last Tuesday night. He declared that Loughrey was winning when Loughrey stopped the bout Nelson's view is not shared by the Boston fans. They do not want that kind of boxing.

Young Loughrey of Philadelphia had better take a good rest. The strenuous boxing he has done is telling on him.

FOOTBALL NOTES

The back division of the McGill team is reported to be the strongest that college ever had. Billington, who is expected to be the star of the Canadian Intercollegiate Union, is in great form. He was "discovered" last year playing on the McGill English Rugby team, which will make a great many English Rugby men make good at the Canadian game.

HOOF BEATS

W. P. Murray of Cleveland, owner of Toddington, 2.24, has offered Dick Wilson $1000 if he will lower the record for yearling trotters with Ethel Toddington, who has worked a quarter in 33 seconds.

Dave Halle, a three-year-old trotter by Peter the Great has raced in 1.10 at the Memphis matinee. He is owned by Abe Frank, from whom Gen Chisholm bought Evelyn W. Hannah Louise and Dorothy Hansboro.

Albert Bretwood, now 20 years old, started at Eldora, Ia. and raced 2-3-3-2 in 2.25, 2.23, 2.24, 2.24—a remarkable performance. Last year, at this horse lowered his record from 2.26, made away back in 1898, to 2.26.

Recently at Gorham, Me., two trotters and a pacer picked up for moderate prices from the Walnut Hall farm consignments in New York by Walter Cox won heats, Deuchester 2.19, by The Director General; Amy 2.21, by Mopo, and La Rustina by Walnut Hall.

McINNIS WILL BE BACK IN THE GAME

Philadelphia, Sept. 29.—Fears that McInnis, the hard-hitting first baseman of the Philadelphia Americans, would not be in the world's series because of a broken bone in the wrist of his throwing arm, was set at rest today when Dr. Frank H. MacFarland and the club physician declared that no bones were broken and that McInnis will be all right on a week. McInnis was struck on the wrist by a pitched ball in a game with Detroit. An X-ray photograph shows that only small muscles have been injured and that a rest of a week will make McInnis as good as ever.

BROOKLYN RECALLS PITCHER NAP RUCKER

Atlanta, Sept. 29.—Nap Rucker, Brooklyn's star pitcher, who left the team for the season recently, has been recalled by Pres. Ebbets to play in the series of seven games Brooklyn still has to play with the New York Giants.

Jim Flynn, the Pueblo hope killer, has signed up with Jack Curley, the Chicago wrestling promoter, and the latter will be Flynn's manager hereafter.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SCHEDULE TO BE DRAWN THIS WEEK

Bigelow and Black Former Mount A. Stars Coaching Garnet and Gold Rugby Squad

Sackville, Sept. 30.—One minor accident has so far marked the work-outs of the Mount Allison footballists, Frank Dickinson, '12, having had his nose broken on Wednesday afternoon.

This afternoon an unusual feature of the practice will be the appearance in uniform of three former Mount Allison stars who are turning out to help the present students a little in their practice. These three men will be Dr. Bigelow, '03, now a professor in the University; Dr. Black, '06, and Norman Fawcett.

Walter T. Ruggles, '12, of Bear River, has been chosen to represent Mount Allison at the coming conference of representatives of Mount Allison, University of New Brunswick and Acadia, who are to meet to discuss the season's arrangements for the King-Richardson games. The conference will probably be held in St. John next week.

RUGBY SEASON GETS GOING IN EARNEST

The Rugby season opened at St. John Saturday with St. John High School winning from Carleton, 6 to 0. The St. John High School XV is reported to be strong and will make a strong bid for the Intercollegiate championship. The St. John Harries had a good practice at St. John Saturday and are looking for games with Fredericton City, U.N.B., Mt. Allison and Moncton. Fredericton City will get down to business this week and have practices each evening at five o'clock. Last week was the end of a month and the quarter and many bankers and others were prevented by their work from attending practices. Things look better this week and it is probable that a game with U.N.B. will be arranged for Saturday by the City team.

The claim by Tom Liden for salary from the Boston Americans and Toledo of the American Association was denied.

Billy Muldoon the ex-pugilist has been offered the vacancy on the boxing commission in New York.

Fleming, formerly of Halifax, who played some years ago with Dalhousie and afterwards with the Halifax Crescents, is again out with the Toronto A.A.C. He suffered an injury to one of his legs in a recent practice.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for wharf at Little Lameque, N.B." will be received at this office until 4 p.m., on Monday, October 2, 1911, for the construction of a Wharf at Little Lameque, Gloucester County, N.B.

CHAMPIONSHIP SCHEDULE NOT YET DRAWN UP

Commission will Meet on Thursday to Decide Matter--Season may Close October 10

Cincinnati, Sept. 29.—On account of the uncertainty of the National League pennant race, as well as the time that still intervenes before the world's series, the National baseball commission, at a meeting here today deferred action upon a schedule and will meet Thursday in New York to again take up the question. The committee adjourned after four hours session.

It was said the opening game of the series may be played earlier than Oct. 13, the matter depending on the moving up of scheduled games.

The Athletics are scheduled to close Oct. 7, but the Giants and Cubs are both looked through to Oct. 12, each however, having some open time. By advancing their last game, at Cincinnati, the Cubs could clean up Oct. 10 and the Giants by doubling up their four closing games with Brooklyn could do the same.

A number of findings were promulgated by the commission. Ty Cobb of Detroit was finding $100 for participating in a game with the Lennox Ovals of New York state, a semi-professional team, playing Sunday ball.

The application of Pittsburgh relative to a rehearing of the Cravath case was denied.

In the contention of Detroit against Montgomery relative to Lelivelt the players were awarded to Detroit.

In the contention between Shreveport and the Philadelphia Nationals the money paid for Mayes was returned over to Shreveport and the player was awarded to Philadelphia.

The claim of Savannah against the Chicago Nationals relative to Miller was denied, but Pres Murphy of the Chicago Nationals was fined $50 for his part in the transaction.
