

The Daily Mail

VOL. XVI NO. 268

FREDERICTON, N.B. WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 20 1912

TWO CENTS PER COPY

A NOTABLE GATHERING

World's Evangelical to Protest Against Alliance the Ne Temere

Rev. Dr. Hincks Declares That Canadian Protestants are Absolutely Unanimous Against Decree

London, Nov. 20—Great enthusiasm attended the opening of the campaign to protest against the Ne Temere Decree by the World's Evangelical Alliance, which convened this evening. The vast central hall at Westminster was taxed to its utmost capacity, the chair being occupied by the Right Hon. Lord Kinnaird, supported by Dr. Hincks of Toronto; Dr. Montgomery, the Presbyterian moderator in England, and the Rev. Chancellor of Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin; Rev. Webb Peeploe, Sir Robert Perks, Sir Robert Anderson and Rev. Fuller Gouch.

Dr. Hincks, whose address was awaited with especial interest, moved the resolution expressing the sympathy of the meeting with the Protestants in the Dominion in their determination to resist the papal decree and to prevent its legal enforcement. Dr. Hincks said that the Canadian Protestants were absolutely unanimous against the decree. After the citation of several instances of hardship arising out of the operation of the marriage law in Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba, Dr. Hincks went on to say that Canada, at the present moment, was passing through a crisis of opinions of creeds just as Britain had already passed through her critical period of the unification of races and creeds.

The people of Canada, he said, were determined ultimately to have one uniform marriage law. No government, he said, could refuse a united request and no political party in Canada could survive six months, which openly endorsed this infamous decree.

He stated that Romanism on the banks of the St. Lawrence was stronger than on the banks of the Tiber. Dr. Hincks afterwards showed that the main reason the objection of the German emperor to the Papal decree was that he had the same problem for Germany which the Dominion had, namely the unifying of differing sects and to ascertain the extent of the different races.

Mr. Hincks' appeal to the audience was received with enthusiasm and the resolution was carried unanimously.

DEATH SENTENCE AWAITS GUNMEN

New York, Nov. 20—Sentence of death on the four gunmen convicted yesterday of murdering Herman Rosenthal, will be pronounced by Justice Goff on Tuesday November 26th. He so announced when the prisoners were arraigned before him in the criminal branch of the supreme court today. In the meantime they will be held in the toms. After sentence is passed, they will be taken to Sing Sing and placed in cells adjoining that of Charles Becker.

Of the seven indicted for the Rosenthal murder, this leaves but one defendant to be tried. This is Jack Sullivan "King of the Newsboys."

New York, Nov. 19—"Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louis," "Dago Frank," and "Whitey" Lewis killed Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, at the instigation of Charles Becker, and like him must pay the penalty of death in the electric chair.

The jury which has been hearing the evidence against the four gunmen so decided today, when it returned against them a verdict of murder in the first degree after but twenty minutes deliberation. Like Becker, the gunmen heard the verdict pronounced against them without a show of emotion. They stood at the bar looking straight ahead as the foreman of the jury rose to make known the result of its deliberations, and they continued to stare stolidly in front of them until the formalities of the proceedings were concluded.

Mr. George O. Stratton of Moncton is in the city.

Big Battle is Still Raging In Vicinity of Hademkeni

Discribed by the Correspondent of the London Chronicle as One of the Bloodiest of the War---Fearful Losses Sustained Both Sides---Turkish Officers Displayed Marked Bravery---Reports of Turkish Victory Over Bulgarians Declared Untrue---Capture of Monastir Proves Serious Problem for Servia

(Canadian Press)
London, Nov. 20—A Sofia despatch to The Times says: "There is reason to believe that the Porte has been informed that Constantinople and the shores of Marmora and the Dardanelles, with a small adjacent territory, may remain under Turkish sovereignty."

THE HORRORS OF WAR.

London, Nov. 20—Describing the horrors in the wake of the Turkish retreat where the Turkish dead still lie unburied, The Daily Mail correspondent with the Bulgarians says: "I passed through three or four villages which the Turks in their retreat have given to the flames. There is, I fear, no doubt that they added to the horrors of the situation by foul massacres of Christians."

"Evidences of these atrocities are buried but I heard from eye-witnesses whose word cannot be disputed that women were murdered in cold blood and their slaughtered infants cast into the mud."

STRAINED RELATIONS.

London, Nov. 20—The Saloniki correspondent of the Times says that the relations between the Greeks and Bulgarians are far from amicable.

"The fact," he says, "that more serious developments have not occurred is due to the pacific intervention of the Bulgarian minister to France Dr. Stancioff, who is now attached to the staff of crown prince Boris. When the Greeks entered the city, three columns of Bulgarians had approached within striking distance. On Nov. 5th, the Bulgarians began a battle with the Turks at Aivali and pursued the enemy to within two miles of Saloniki."

An envoy sent to demand the surrender of the place found the Greeks in possession.

The Greeks refused to allow the Bulgarians to enter the town, with the result that the crown prince and his brother Prince Cyril were compelled to sleep under a bridge at Aivali.

The Bulgarians then sent an ultimatum, to the Greeks threatening to enter the town forcibly. The Greeks abandoned their opposition and after waiting twenty-four hours after the entrance of King George, the Bulgarians and Servians were permitted within the walls.

The allies also have quarrelled over the occupation of the Mosque of St. Sophia by the Bulgarians. On two occasions the Greeks have attempted to seize the mosque on the grounds that the Bulgarians wished to dedicate it to their church. The Bulgarians declared that they only wished to use it as a barracks.

"Annoyance has been caused the Bulgarians by the appointment of Prince Nicolas as military commandant. The Bulgarians desired only to recognize the authority of their own general. The two occupying armies are about equal in strength."

Budapest, Nov. 20—Servia has yielded to the Austrian demand that an official from the Austro-Hungarian ministry of foreign affairs should be allowed to proceed to Pristina to investigate the complaint made by the Austrian Consul that he had been hindered by the Servians in the performance of his duty. The news arrived during the night from the Austro-Hungarian legation, at Belgrade. It relieves the immediate tension between the two countries as an opportunity is now furnished for an unbiased examination of the grounds of the dispute.

WAITING FOR NEWS

London, Nov. 20—Both Ottoman and Foreign interests in Constantinople, while waiting the publication there of definite news regarding the progress of the war, is chiefly concerned in the large number of arrests of politicians and writers belonging to the party of union and progress.

According to a special despatch from the Turkish Capital, the Ottoman Government, through a local press agency, has issued a statement that only forty arrests have been made and that the sole reason

Sofia, Nov. 20—All the reports emanating from Turkish sources alleging that the Turkish troops had gained victories over the Bulgarians along the line of fortifications at Tchatalja are officially declared untrue by the Bulgarian war office today.

A SERIOUS PROBLEM

London, Nov. 20—A despatch to the Daily Express from Belgrade says the capture of Monastir has provided a difficult problem for the Servian government, which is extremely puzzled regarding the housing and feeding of its army of 40,000 new prisoners. "Fethi Pasha, who was among those that surrendered," continued the correspondent, "was Turkey's popular minister at Belgrade. He wept as he handed his sword to the Servian commander. Luxurious apartments await him when he is brought to Belgrade."

BIG BATTLE

London, Nov. 20—Telegraphing from the front of Hamemkeul, Monday night the correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says: "The battle has proved one of the bloodiest of the present war both sides sustaining fearful losses. Magnificent courage was displayed by the Turks of highest rank exposing themselves to the fire of the Bulgarians, with unequalled devotion, in order to set an example for the men."

"The battle is still raging with unabated fury. The Bulgarians are directing their fire against the forts west of Hademkeni and attempting to break through the Turkish line. The Turks, holding their ground and disputing every inch desperately, are making a most heroic resistance.

London, Nov. 19—The report that an armistice had been agreed to by the Bulgarians and Turks along the Tchatalja lines for the burial of the dead appears to have been unfounded. Despatches from Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, show that the artillery duel continued through the day. The Turks claim successes against the Bulgarians, but there is nothing to indicate that the Bulgarians have yet made any serious attempt to penetrate the lines.

The battle may be ended at any moment by Turkey accepting the allies' terms for an armistice, which are said to include the surrender of the Tchatalja lines, Adrianople, Durrasso and Scutari. There is a possibility, however, that Turkey may decline to surrender Tchatalja. While her western army has been completely defeated, she still possesses, according to the correspondents at the front, a homogeneous army behind the Tchatalja fortifications, largely composed of some of her best fighting material from the Asiatic provinces, which has not yet been in action. Moreover, the demoralization and disorganization which followed the Kirk Kilissh and Lule Burgas retreats appear to have been remedied and the army is now well supplied with food and ammunition.

Under these circumstances the porte may be induced to make a further stand, in the hope of securing easier peace conditions. Evidently Bulgaria has brought up all her available forces to attack Tchatalja, including some of the Servian troops but the task of crushing the Turkish defence may prove a difficult one.

(Continued on page five)

JAMES M. TORRANCE MARRIED IN ST. JOHN

His Bride Mrs. Mary F. Smith of Sussex---Mr. and Mrs. Torrance to Reside in That Town

Mr. James M. Torrance of this city, was united in marriage with Mrs. Mary Frances Smith of Sussex, at St. John yesterday afternoon, Rev. W. Camp performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Torrance left for Sussex last evening, where they are to make their home. The wedding comes rather as a surprise to many of the local friends of the groom, who is very popular in this city.

Mr. Torrance on the 15th inst. completed a term of service in the Royal Canadian Regiment, leaving the service with qualification for pension, having served upwards of twenty-one years. He was one of the first to join "A" Company Infantry School Corps of Canada, which was organized in this city in the '80's. He returned to civilian life but re-enlisted later. About two years ago he was appointed caretaker of the local armory but after the last Dominion general election was removed and given the rank of sergeant drummer in the R.C.R. He is a Fredericton man and many will regret his removal from the city.

AWFUL CRIME OF WORCESTER MAN

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 20—John Wood, a grocer's clerk killed his wife and four months old baby with chloroform during the night, and then ended his own life in the same manner. A note found by a thirteen year old daughter when she awoke today told of the crime, and led to the discovery of the bodies.

Mrs. Thomas Scott of Dalhousie is visiting at Mrs. N. J. Ivory's, King Street.

LOCAL YOUNG LADY TO PLAY WITH HARKINS CO

Will Take Part in "Merely Mary Ann" Thursday Night---"Walls of Jericho" Delighted Large Audience

The "Walls of Jericho" was the bill at the Opera House last night when the W. S. Harkins Players scored another success. This evening "The Spendthrift" will be put on. The play is a good one and it is expected that there will be a continuation of the large attendance which has been the rule so far this week. Mr. Harkins has decided to extend the engagement of his company in this city by one day and on Thursday evening "Merely Mary Ann" will be presented. Through its title this play is widely known and needs no introduction. Added interest will be given the performance through the fact that Miss Mary Fenety of this city is to take part. Miss Fenety is well known locally as an amateur actress and her friends expect that she will continue her success in her first appearance with a professional company.

In last night's performance Miss Sue VanDuser as Lady Althea Frobisher ably sustained her well deserved reputation as an actress. As Jack Frobisher Mr. John Bigney had a difficult role which he took in a manner which left nothing to be desired. As Henkey Bannister Mr. Harry Stubbs furnished a comedy relief in his well known manner. The other members of the company furnished an able support.

QUEBEC TRAPPER STRUCK GOOD LUCK

Danville, Que., Nov. 20—Jasper Jarvis has captured two foxes, one a silver grey and the other not so well marked. He succeeded in keeping the former and today sold it to a fox farm in Prince Edward Island for $1,000. He received $150 for the skin of the other.

ANOTHER LEGAL DRAMA

Former Nova Scotian to be Tried in New York on Serious Charge

Charles H. Hyde, Ex-City Chamberlain Alleged to Have Wrongfully Obtained Money From Trust Company

New York, Nov. 20—Justice Goff's court, which has just completed the notable trials of Lieut. Charles Becker and the four gunmen, slayers of Gambler Rosenthal, was the stage today for the opening of another legal drama of country-wide interest. The case is that of Charles H. Hyde, a native of Truro, N.S., former city chamberlain, who is charged with having corruptly compelled Joseph G. Robin, former head of the Northern Bank, to lend the Carnegie Trust Company $130,000 by threatening to withdraw all the city funds from the bank. The indictment against Hyde was found by the grand jury on May 1st, 1911.

The principal witness against Hyde is Robin, who has pleaded guilty to grand larceny in that he stole funds from the Washington Savings Bank, and has been in the toms for twenty-two months. Robin will get a suspended sentence for his work in building up the case against Hyde and Banker Cummins.

The penalty of Hyde's case in the event of conviction may be $5,000 fine or ten years' imprisonment or both.

Hyde, for twenty-two years a close personal friend of Mayor Gaynor and for many years his law partner, was appointed to the position of chamberlain, the highest salaried office within the gift of the mayor, soon after Gaynor's election.

NOTHING SMALL ABOUT THIS BROKER'S CLAIM

Vancouver, Nov. 20—Arising out of the recent sale of mines and timber limits at Revelstoke of the Yale Columbia saw mills, there has arisen one of the biggest claims for commission ever heard of in provincial courts.

Edmund Pickard, a Parisian broker, claims $153,000 commission on the sale, being at the rate of 9 per cent., or an alternative of $1,105,000, being the amount of the sale price, less $595,000, the figure at which he held an option on the property immediately before its sale to the Dominion Saw Mills.

Mr. N. W. Brown of Southampton is at the Queen.

Mr. H. R. Emmerson, Jr. of Amherst is registered at the Queen.

Mr. H. J. MacKenzie of Woodstock is in the city.

Mr. J. D. Medcalf of Montreal is registered at the Queen.

STRONG EVIDENCE BROUGHT OUT AGAINST LAWYER GIBSON

Goshen, N. Y., Nov. 20—"I saw Gibson seize Mrs. Szabo around the neck with his left arm. I saw his right hand thrust at her throat and then they both fell out of the boat."

John Minturn, eye-witness of the death of Mrs. Szabo, for whose death on Greenwood Lake Burton W. Gibson of New York, her lawyer, is charged with murder, so testified at Gibson's trial today. Minturn rose from a sick bed to tell his story. His testimony was introduced to bear out the state's contention that Mrs. Szabo was strangled by Gibson and did not die of drowning.

"Gibson and his companion were standing back to back in the centre of the boat," Minturn said. "Gibson wheeled as they were passing and seized Mrs. Szabo. They struggled for a moment, the boat rocked, and they fell out, the woman first, the man afterwards."

"When they were in the water I saw Gibson place his right hand on

NEW SENATORS APPOINTED

Five Vacancies in Nova Scotia Were Filled by Mr. Borden

Liberal Leaders Assemble at Ottawa and Formulate Plans for the Coming Session

Ottawa, Nov. 19—The six senatorial vacancies from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island have been filled after considerable difficulty on the part of Premier Borden in deciding how to distribute six plums among a score or more of applicants.

The new senators from Nova Scotia in succession to the late Senators Bell, Comeau, Ross, Miller and MacKay are respectively: W. B. Ross, K. C., of Middleton; E. L. Girror, M. P. P., for Antigonish; William Dennis, proprietor of the Halifax Herald; Dr. Wm. MacKay, of Cape Breton, ex-M. P. P., and former Conservative leader in the Nova Scotia legislature, and Nathaniel Curry, of Amherst, the millionaire car manufacturer and ex-president of the Canadian Manufacturers Association.

The Prince Edward Island vacancy in succession to the late Senator MacDonald, has been filled by the appointment of Dr. H. C. Murphy, of Tignish, the unsuccessful Conservative candidate in Prince County at the last election.

One other senatorial appointment will have to be made shortly when the seat of Senator Sullivan, of Kingston, is formally declared vacant by the senate at the opening of the session. Senator Sullivan has been absent for two sessions and therefore forfeits his seat. It is understood the appointment will go to a western Ontario man and Alex. McLaren, the millionaire cheese manufacturer is slated for the position.

Senator Daniel of St. John will move the address in the Senate.

OPPOSITION TO BE AGGRESSIVE.

In Sir Wilfrid's office today there was a preliminary caucus of Liberals. Those present were Messrs. Laurier, Pugsley, Charles Wilson (Laval) Turfitt, Lemieux, Beland, Murphy, Carvell Turgeon, (Quebec) Emmerson, Sinclair, MacKenzie King, Fisher and Fielding.

While a programme could not be drawn up until the government has shown its hand in the speech from the throne and has disclosed its naval policy there was a general determination that the work of the opposition this year would be as watchful and aggressive as it was last session when the government was on the defensive almost every day.

After December 1 the immigration regulation requiring that every immigrant shall be insured against being a care on the state during the winter months by having in his possession upon landing on Canadian soil the sum of $50 in cash, will come into effect in connection with all classes of immigrants.

STRONG EVIDENCE BROUGHT OUT AGAINST LAWYER GIBSON

his left shoulder and his left hand on his right shoulder. I thought he was trying to pull off his shirt. It looked that way to me.

"Presently the woman was lost to sight. The man then swam over to the boat, put his arm over it and turned it over. The boat remained right side up when they fell out and stayed in that position till Gibson tipped it over."

Minturn was standing at the water's edge, he said, when he saw the tragedy. The boat was about 700 yards away. He was afraid he would forget it, he added, so he went home and wrote down what he saw.

FELL AND BROKE LEG

Miss Taylor, who resides in Northumberland Street, slipped and fell near the corner of York and King Streets last night and broke a leg. She was taken into E. G. Hobbs' grocery store and later to her home in a coach.