

MANAGERSHIP OF PHILLIES STILL UNSETTLED

Philadelphia, Dec. 4.—Horace S. Fogel, after his re-election as president of the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club today, said that the question of who will manage the team next year is unsettled.

Mr. Fogel said that Doolin who was manager last season had expressed a desire to retire from the manager-ship but that no decision would be made in the matter until after the National League meeting in New York next week.

Mr. Fogel said that if Mr. Doolin declined to continue as manager a man would be obtained who would be satisfactory and if the new manager desired a change in the catching department a trade for Doolin might be made.

"Doolin told me just before I went South," said Pres Fogel today, "that he did not want to be reappointed manager suggesting Knabe as his successor. In Doolin's opinion we could not get a better manager than Knabe, for whom he said he would work his head off."

"Doolin's contract as a player still has two years more to run. Should he not accept reappointment as manager or should the new manager wish to make changes in the catching department, the club could easily make a good trade and receive a good man in exchange for him from another club."

HOOF BEATS

The Canadian pacer Fern Hal, 2:13, won 13 races, in 19 starts this past season.

Walnut Hall Farm will send 56 2-year-olds to the mid-winter sale in New York.

Millard Sanders plans to open a public stable at Lexington, Ky, in the spring.

Arondo, 2:16, a four-year-old by Moquette, 2:10, is spoken of as a highclass trotter.

Peter Wood, 2:19, has been sold to J. O. Winston, a wealthy young breeder of Kingston, N. Y.

Unless the rules are changed, hopes cannot be used in races on 1-year-olds and under next season.

Jesse Matlock, who has been second trainer for Vance Nuckols, has signed a contract to go to Russia.

The owners of Hal B. Jr., 2:03, frankly say they did not care to race their horse against the Bel, 2:02, on the ice.

Fred Garmon has bought the three-year-old trotter sired by Allenwood, 2:09, out of the dam of Uhlman, 1:58.

E. E. Smathers paid $1050 for the trotting bred saddle, Noggins, 2:28, at the Durand sale in New York last week.

Prices ruled low in New York last week on stallions not having demonstrated more than fair speed-producing abilities.

New York, Dec. 2.—There has been considerable uncertainty concerning the position of the waistline during the past few months. The dictators of fashion have seen fit to juggle with the waistline ever since last winter, moving it up and down at their whim and pleasure, until the women were completely bewildered. It was and is now by no means an unusual thing to find in the same exhibit of some famous creator of fashions, costumes of which every one has the waistline at a different height.

SOME STRIKING FEATURES OF McNAMARA'S CASE

On October 1, 1910, the office of The Los Angeles (California) Times was blown up and 21 people were killed. The paper had for years been in conflict with labor unions because of its refusal to unionize its mechanical force. The Llewellyn Iron Works were injured by dynamite on Dec. 25 of the same year. Trouble with the metal workers' union had been chronic at these works. After many months of hard and partlet work a famous United States detective, Wm. J. Burns, caused the arrest of the two McNamaras and Orrie McManigal, and the three were some time ago indicted on the charges arising out of The Times and the Llewellyn Iron Works explosions. The McNamaras were officials in the Bridge and Structural Ironworkers' International Union.

McManigal, who turned State's evidence, had already confessed to having actually blown up the Llewellyn Iron Works, claiming he did so on the direction of John J. McNamara.

MONCTON BARRISTER
WEDDED IN MALDEN

The Malden, (Mass.), News contains the following:—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Havelock H. Barchard, 29 Vernon St., was the scene of a pretty home wedding Wednesday evening when their daughter, Miss Essie Viola, became the bride of George Llewellyn Harris, a prominent barrister of Moncton, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles H. Moss, D.L., pastor of the First Baptist church and the double ring services were used. The bride was given in marriage by her father and the ceremony was witnessed only by relatives and a few close friends.

The house decorations were of palms, ferns and cut flowers, arranged by Kaulbach, and Mrs. Ralph Hilton presided at the piano, rendering the customary nuptial selections. The bride was distinguished in white crepe meteor, with pearl trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She also wore a pendant of pearls and diamonds, a gift of the groom. The attendants were Bessie G. Wright, of Somerville, maid of honor who was attired in blue messaline draped with chiffon. Robert J. Dysart of Boston acted as best man.

An informal reception followed and the wedding feast was served by Cullyberry. The happy couple were assisted and received by Mr. and Mrs. Barchard, the bride's parents, and Dr. and Mrs. Harris of Providence, brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are now on a wedding trip through Canada and on their return will make their home at 80 Dufferin St., Moncton, N. B. They received a large array of wedding gifts. The bride is a graduate of the Malden schools and is a prominent member of the First Baptist church.

Mike Gibbons knocked about all of that welterweight championship stuff out of Willie Lewis when the two met in New York recently.

FINANCIAL and COMMERCIAL

THE BANK OF MONTREAL MAY RAISE DIVIDEND

Fredericton shareholders in the Bank of Montreal will be interested in the following extract from the report of the proceedings of the annual meeting on Monday:

The first rate of a possible increase in return to the shareholders of the bank was struck in Sir Edward's address, when the retiring general manager said:

"The first note of a possible increase in return to the shareholders of the bank was struck in Sir Edward's address, when the retiring general manager said: 'Speaking as an individual, and in no way as a mouthpiece of the board, I would not advocate increasing, in future, our Rest beyond the paid up capital. I should always like to keep the profit and loss account at its present amount, as a reserve, to be used when the directors might see fit to do in the interests of the Bank, and any surplus profits, after full appropriations have been made, I would suggest distributing among the shareholders.'"

One of the shareholders present, Rev. George H. Parker of Lennoxville, raised the question a little later in the proceedings and asked the chairman for an expression of the future policy of the bank in this regard. Mr. Angus replied that, while Sir Edward Clouston had spoken as an individual and not officially, he had no doubt that, should the profits of the coming year and subsequent ones be of the same nature as was the general rule, the directors would, in all probability, distribute among the shareholders its surplus. It was, however, he said, difficult to make definite pronouncement in this regard.

DIVIDEND CUT ON YUKON GOLD

The Yukon Gold Co., has declared a quarterly dividend of 7 1/2 cents a share—equal to 1 1/2 per cent. This is a reduction from 10c. a share, or 2 per cent. from the last previous dividend. The dividend is payable December 30. Books close December 12th, and remain closed until January 9th, to provide for the annual meeting which comes on January 8th.

In connection with the reduction, President Samuel R. Guggenheim makes the following statement:

At a meeting of the directors it was decided to declare the quarterly dividend at a rate of 7 1/2 cents of 10c. per share, which has been paid formerly; that is, the directors have decided to place the company for the present upon a 6 per cent. per annum basis, instead of 8 per cent.

"The extraordinarily dull season prevailing in different parts of the world also affected Alaska and Yukon Territories, curtailing the hydraulic production, and shortening the dredging operations. The two new steel dredges, which had been built upon the property this season, were not finished in time to be of much benefit. The final figures for the season's operations are not at hand, but the advance statements indicate a net operating profit of approximately $1,500,000, as against an estimated profit of $1,500,000, which, if realized, would have allowed the continuation of dividends at the 8 per cent. rate."

C. P. R. EARNINGS

In the five months of the current fiscal year to Nov. 30 gross earnings of the Canadian Pacific showed an increase of over $4,000,000.

Current business is showing large increases than were recorded in the early part of the year, the outlook for the next few months is particularly bright, and it would seem that predictions made recently that gross earnings for the fiscal year will show an increase of $10,000,000 over 1911, are likely to be fulfilled.

Assuming that this estimate of the expansion in business is approximately correct, net earnings of the Canadian Pacific in the current year should show a gain of over $4,000,000. The property is in excellent physical condition, and is in a position to operate more economically than in the last fiscal year.

Operating expenses thus far have consumed slightly over 61 per cent. of gross as compared with 64.7 per cent. for the entire 1911 fiscal period, but it is likely that the proportion of expenses to gross will show an increasing tendency during the next few months, owing to the more difficult operating conditions prevailing in the winter season.

A liberal allowance for expenses for the entire fiscal year, would place the ratio at 65 per cent. of gross earnings, and it is on this basis that the above estimate of the increase in net returns is made.

"Danny" Dunn a former newsboy is pretty sure of retaining his present job as mayor of Williamstown, Conn. Mayor Dunn is a Democrat but he appears to be very popular with the Republicans as well. When the Republican city convention met the other day it named fifty candidates to run for mayor, and all declined the nomination. The convention adjourned without nominating an opponent to Mayor Dunn.

(University Monthly)

A letter recently appeared in the sporting columns of one of the city's daily papers signed "A. U. N. B. Student," and written in such a way as to imply that the opinions expressed were those of the whole student body. Without entering into the merits of the controversy, it seems to us highly presumptuous on the part of any student to make himself the mouthpiece of the college as a whole without having received the least authority. Whether the gentleman attacked in this dog-in-the-manger way was right or wrong at any rate he had the courage of his convictions and signed his name to what he said. The esteemed correspondent adopts the name which belongs to over a hundred other men in college, and adds insult to injury by styling himself "we." He was of course perfectly free to hold whatever opinions he chose on the matter, but at least if he had the courage to stand by what he said he should not have sought shelter behind the well-known anonymous "A. U. N. B. Student," but should have signed his own name.

Concrete Fence Posts Like These are slightly, strong, permanent. Concrete is, in many localities, cheaper than wood, for fence posts, and more durable than stone, brick or iron. Our book,

"What The Farmer Can Do With Concrete" is sent FREE.

It tells how to make, not only fence posts, but walks, curbs, horse blocks, barn foundations, feeding floors, well curbs, drinking troughs, silos, dairies, and many other farm utilities where cleanliness, strength and durability are required. Many of these things are simple and inexpensive to make, and may easily be put together in

You may send me a copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."
