PROGRAM OF ROYAL VISIT TO GREAT INDIAN DURBAR

The London Times giving the following program of arrangements in connection with the King's visit to India:

December 2—Arrival in Bombay Harbor. Their Majesties are received at the Apollo Bunder on landing at four p.m., by the Governor and members of council. Municipal addresses presented. Drive through the fort and a part of the native city, the streets being lined with troops and school children being massed at various points. At night illuminations and fireworks.

3—State luncheon at Government House, Malabar Point. Their Majesties attend divine service at the Cathedral.

4—Their Majesties land at 9.30 a.m., and visit the entertainment of 27,000 school children held in the Stadium in the exhibition of old Bombay on the Maidan, afterwards inspecting the exhibition.

5—Visit to the Elephanta Caves in the afternoon. Departure of Their Majesties by Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway, Muttia route, for Delhi.

Arrival of the Governor General and Lady Hardinge at Delhi.

A PUBLIC HOLIDAY.

7—Public holiday throughout India (government offices closed as far as practical from December 7 to 12 inclusive.)

Arrival of Their Majesties at Selimgurh Station in the Fort; reception by the Governor General and other high officials. Presentation of ruling chiefs, about 150 in number. Procession through streets of Delhi to the Ridge, where representatives of British India will be assembled; address from them to be presented by Vice President of Vice Rega legislative council. Their Majesties then proceed to their camp. In the afternoon visits will be received from the principal Indian chiefs.

8—Morning—Further visits from ruling chiefs.

Afternoon—His Majesty lays memorial stone of all-India King Edward Memorial (equestrian statue.)

9—Morning—Further visits from ruling chiefs.

10—Their Majesties attend divine service, when the Bishop of Lahore is expected to preach.

11—Morning—The King Emperor presents colors to three British and two Indian regiments on the polo ground.

Afternoon—Final of polo tournament, Their Majesties attending.

12—The Durbar in an arena composed of two amphitheatres, witnessed by 100,000 persons. After receiving homage within the inner amphitheatre Their Majesties will appear at the Royal Pavilion in the centre of the arena, where the Royal proclamation will be read before the whole assemblage.

Afternoon—Final of the hockey tournament for the Indian army.

Evening—State banquet in the King Emperor's camp, followed by a reception.

Public holiday throughout India. Royal proclamation read in every town and village. Portrait of the King Emperor exhibited on all government and public buildings, which will be illuminated in the evening. Royal salutes fired at all military stations.

13—Morning—Reception of volunteer officers and native officers of the Indian Army.

Afternoon—Command garden party in the fort, special arrangements being made for purdah ladies of high rank, and the attractions including an historical exhibition in the Muntaz Mahal. Simultaneous fair for the people below the fort walls. Their Majesties showing themselves to the multitude, according to the ancient Indian custom.

Evening—Illumination of the fort and pyrotechnic display on the Bela. Feast to the poor, partly at the personal cost of the King Emperor.

GRAND REVIEW OF INDIAN ARMY

14—Grand review of the troops (upwards of 50,000), occupying two and a half hours.

Afternoon—Final of the football tournament for the British army.

Evening—Investiture by His Majesty in the pavilion of the Royal camp.

15—Military tournament and point-to-point races, attended by Their Majesties.

16—State procession to Selimgurh Station, and departure of the King Emperor for the Nepal Terai, where shooting boxes for his accommodation have been built by the Maharajah at Bikum Thori and Nargatagan, and the Queen Empress for Agra.

The Secretary of State for India and the Governor General, with Lady Hardinge, leave for a holiday visit to Dehra Dun (or to some other quiet station if the outbreak of cholera there has not then abated.)

QUEEN EMPRESS GOES ON TOUR.

14—The Queen Empress leaves Agra and arrives at Jaipur.

20—Her Majesty leaves Jaipur and arrives at Ajmer.

22—Her Majesty leaves Ajmer and arrives at Bundi.

23—Her Majesty leaves Bundi and arrives at Kotah, where Christmas will be spent.

21—Departure from Port Said. A visit to Malta, cancelled on the outward voyage, may be paid on the return journey.

31—Arrival in Portsmouth harbor.

NOT SALTS, OIL OR PILLS BUT CASCARETS

No odds how sick your Stomach, how hard your head aches or how Bilious—Cascarets make you feel great

You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have headache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil. This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gasses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.

PROMOTION FOR YORK COUNTY MAN IN MASSACHUSETTS

(Evening News, Salem, Mass.) Harry A. Whitehead, for several years past the station master at the local Boston & Maine depot, has been promoted to the position of general manager of both the freight and passenger departments of the Salem division.

C. A. Chandler, former freight agent, will be chief assistant under Mr. Whitehead in the freight department.

Harry A. Whitehead was born in Dunfries, York County, N.B., March 17, 1860, and was educated in the public schools of that town. He spent his early years in lumbering, farming and railroading. He came to Salem in 1886 and entered the employ of N. R. Treadwell, a leather manufacturer, remaining with him until he entered the employ of the Boston & Maine as a night watchman. He was subsequently made assistant station master and November 29, 1893, was promoted to station agent, which position he has held continuously up to this time.

He is a member of Starr King lodge, F. & A. M.; Fraternity lodge, I.O.O.F.; John Endecott lodge, A.O. U.W.; Gen. Cogswell lodge, K. of L., and the Essex Institute. He is exceptionally well known in railroad circles, having twice been president of the Boston & Maine Agents' Association.

WOODSTOCK LADY EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Woodstock, Dec. 6—Mrs. Fred Webster, who left here recently for Austin, Mass., to reside, died suddenly at that place this week. The body reached here today for burial. She survived by one sister and two brothers.

speaks When Sir Gilbert Parker or Hamar Greenwood rises he has the satisfaction of an attentive and even eager audience.

Certainly Canadians have won their spurs at Westminster. This makes the forecast that under Bonar Law Canadians will attain cabinet rank a reasonable one. Most of them like Sir Gilbert Parker and Donald MacMaster have proved their skill in the difficult field of committee as well as on the floor of the House and on the hustings. Mr. Balfour had a great admiration for the ability of Sir W. M. Aitken and Sir Gilbert Parker (is reasonably sure of cabinet rank in the next Conservative administration

AN OFFER TO MR. McBRIDE

The Canadians who sit on the Liberal side of the House are no less brilliant. Men like Hamar Greenwood, J. Allen Baker and the Hon. Joseph Martin are steadily graduating for high positions in the party.

I learn that it is probable that more Canadians will be invited to seek seats at Westminster at the next general election. The invitation extended by an influential peer to W. P. Bull, K.C., of Toronto, when he was here will likely be renewed, and others who took part in the last election will also have an opportunity of contesting English seats. It is common knowledge that if he ever cares to leave the attractions of British Columbian politics, the Hon. R. McBride can have a prominent position in any Conservative government, but I understand that when he was here in the summer he absolutely refused to consider leaving the leadership of his party at Victoria.

ALWAYS WELL RECEIVED

Canadians who have heard debates in the Commons have been impressed with the cordial reception accorded to Canadian members. The House has been called the most critical assembly in the world and it may be taken that the favorable impression made by men from the Dominion is due to their ability as legislators.

Frequently the House expresses its boredom by leaving a member to address half empty benches, but never is this the case when a Canadian

CANADIANS GOOD FIGHTERS

This opinion is shared by many prominent Canadians here and gives cause for the liveliest satisfaction. The House of Commons has received an accession of strength in the number of Canadians who have gained seats there and during the last election it was observed that they bore
