CANADA WILL HAVE BUMPER HARVEST

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The condition of field crops in Canada is presented in a bulletin of the census and statistics office issued today for July 31, and shows good averages for all provinces as well as for all crops.

Fall wheat was hurt by the hard winter in Ontario, but fared better in Alberta.

The condition of spring wheat at the end of July was 90 for the whole being 85 to 95 in the maritime provinces; 80 to 89 in Ontario and Quebec; 90 to 96 in the northwest provinces, and 85 in British Columbia.

Oats and barley have an average condition of 88 for Canada; 85 to 96 in the maritime provinces; 80 to 90 in Ontario and Quebec; 88 to 100 in the northwest provinces, and 87 to 93 in British Columbia.

The average of corn for husking is 86, and of potatoes 85.64, being in each case a little higher than last year.

Potatoes, turnips and mangolds range from 81 to 85, or about the same as a year ago.

Hay and clover and alfalfa are 80 to 83, which is a little lower in each case than last year.

Corn for fodder has an average condition of 87; sugar beets, of 79, and pasture of 79.

The eastern provinces are lower than the figures quoted for the whole of Canada, and the western provinces are higher.

The yield of hay and clover, is estimated at 12,189,000 tons for Canada, being 1.43 tons per acre, and 'the largest yields for the provinces are Ontario, 4,736,000 tons; Quebec, 5-028,000 tons; Prince Edward Is. and, 254,000 tons; Nova Scotia, 941,000, and New Brunswick, 885,000 tons.

to marry without her parents consent.

TO FIGHT SHY OF LIQUOR QUESTION

Louisville Ky. Aug., 12—County conventions were held throughout Kentucky today for the election of delegates to the Democratic State convention which is to meet here next Tuesday. The work of the convention will be confined to the adoption of a platform, as the candidates for governor and other State officers were chosen in the primary last month.

Great care will be exercised in building the platform, for the Democrats appreciate the fact that they must fight hard to win a victory in the coming election. Despite the success with which the Democrats have been meeting in other sections the party leaders here are aware that Kentucky, which has been admittedly a doubtful State since it went Republican in 1895 is now more doubtful than ever. This is due partly to the advantage of the Republicans in being in control of the State administration and partly to the fact that the State's increase in population as shown in the recent census has been almost wholly in the eastern districts, which are overwhelmingly Republican.

The platform will give an enthusiastic endorsement to the policy pursued by the Democratic party in Congress. As regards State issues the most interest centres in the resolutions concerning the liquor question. Unless the Republicans force the issue, which so far they have evinced no intention of doing, the Democrats probably will refrain from making the question the chief issue of the fight. If the convention feels obliged to take an emphatic stand in the matter, however, it will probably declare itself against Statewide prohibition and unequivocally in favor of a uniform local option law with the county as a unit.

NEWPORT SOCIETY GOES TO THE DOGS

Newport, R.I., Aug. 12.—The first dog show held here in several years was given at the Casino today under the auspices of the Rhode Island Kennel Club. More than 400 canine pets belonging to the fashionable residents of Newport were displayed.
There was no place for an ordinary dog in the exhibition. A line of blue blooded canine ancestors was the only ticket that insured admittance.
Even class distinctions prevailed among the tiny animals, the haughty Blenheim spaniels and those named in honor of King Charles absolutely ignoring the breezy looking little English bulldogs and Boston terriers

TO BALANCE CANADA'S TRADE

(Toronto Globe.)

The business men of Canada should vigorously support the effort now being put forth to make the conditions of trade between the United States and Canada more equitable. In the year ending March 31, 1911, we imported goods to the value of $284,934,739 from the United States.
Over a hundred and thirty-one million dollars' worth of this total was duty-free goods, such as raw cotton, rubber, wool, coal, and many other things needed by our manufacturers.

Because of the huge tariff wall standing in the way of any return trade we were able to export only $103,922,223 of Canadian goods to the United States.

These figures do not indicate a healthy condition of business. The disparity in volume between what we buy from the States and what we sell is too great. One of two things must be happening: either a large part of the United States imports represents new American investments in Canada, or the exports of Canada to other countries must be used to pay our debts in the United States.

It has been Mr. Fielding's constant aim to balance Canada's trade with the United States. He sees that we must continue to draw from that country vast quantities of raw materials and of manufactured goods that it is not convenient or profitable, even behind the shelter of the tariff, to make in the Dominion because our consumption is still relatively small. He wants to pay for these importations by a greatly increased export of Canada's natural products. The removal of the United States tariff on the chief products of the farm, the forest, the fisheries, and the mine gives an opportunity to do what the Finance Minister has long regarded as essential to the continued prosperity of the country.

A trade so one-sided as to permit us to send only $103,000,000 worth of Canadian goods to a country whose goods we buy to the extent of $284,000,000 in twelve months needs to be placed on a sounder basis.
The business men of Canada should do everything possible to enable the farmer, the lumberman, the fisherman, and the miner to adjust the balance. Five years after reciprocity goes into force Canada will export two hundred million dollars' worth of her products every year to the United States, and will still have all the surplus foodstuffs that Britain now takes to ship across the Atlantic.

To those who fear the increase of our exports to the United States will predispose Canadians to annexation let us put this question:

Is Canada less devoted to the Empire now than she was in 1897 when Fielding's first tariff was brought in?

Every honest man will admit that the ties of affection and loyalty are far stronger now than they were in 1897. Fourteen years ago Canada's total trade—imports, exports and re-exports—within the Empire was $113,909,000. Last year it was $283,767,000. Fourteen years ago Canada's total trade with the United States in imports, exports and re-exports was $111,022,000. Last year it was $404,137,000.

We see here a far greater expansion of Canada's trade with the United States than within the Empire. Yet that expansion was coincident with the drawing closer of the Imperial tie. Why should a still further increase of our export trade to the United States make us disloyal?

Business men dealing daily with business men and business houses in the United States should ask themselves that question. If they do so honestly and give an honest answer the annexation bogey will have no terror for them.

MONTREAL ITALIANS IN BLOODY QUARREL

Montreal Aug. 12.—At the point of revolvers a police squad with drawn guns broke up a murderous Italian street fight in which keen edged razors were being employed with deadly effect last night. While a big crowd looked on nearly a dozen Italians surged about the corner of Ontario and St. Timothy Streets in the East End, slashing each other savagely.
One man, John Follangelo, was so badly gashed that he may die, another man with blood streaming from his face escaped in the crowd and three Italians are in jail.

THREATEN TO SHOOT ALL STRIKE BREAKERS

Colbalt, Ont. Aug. 12.—For two weeks armed men have been lying in ambush along the Gowganda road threatening to shoot down all strike breakers who venture to go into the Hudson Bay camp at Hanging Stone Lake. Last week an armed posse held up the stage, fired twenty shots in the air and drove the strike breakers back into Elk Lake, where they are still. The trouble arose about two months ago when the Hudson Bay Mining Company operating a plant about ten miles outside of Gowganda on Hanging Stone Lake decided to reduce the wages. The mine operators are so exasperated that they threatened to take arms themselves and drive the strikers from the road in a battle if necessary.

London, Aug. 11.—The will of the late Sir W. S. Gilbert, the dramatic author and librettist was filed for probate today. The estate amounting to $560,000 is left to the widow.

The State of Ohio has five free public employment offices, one of each being located at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and Toledo, under the supervision of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. A report for the last quarter gives in detail the number of people assisted in procuring employment and the total reaches 8,731.
