Chapter Three

Two hundred well satisfied eye sufferers, many of whom have consulted opticians and jewellers, many paying as high as $10 and $15 for spectacles which were worthless for their particular eye trouble, having consulted us have found relief not before experienced with their previous attempts. These are true facts with two hundred patients to testify to the truth of this statement. Most important of which is, the glasses were obtained at less than half the usual price. This is the genuine truth of the continued story, and verified by the oldest established druggist in Fredericton.

BOWLING LEAGUE TO FINISH THIS EVENING

Tonight the final game of the City Bowling League schedule is to be played on the Arctic Alloys, when Sans Souci meets the Church of England. If Sans Souci wins that team will play off with the Hardware Men. If it loses the Hardware Men have the championship. Last night the Bankers lost to the Arctic in a close game and the Church of England trounced the Drug Clerks easily. The scoring was as follows:

FRANK PATRICK STILL WANTS PRO TEAM
FOR EDMONTON

Not much Chance of Syndicate Backing Project to Build Rink—Offer to Send Players

Edmonton, Alta., Dec. 5—Frank Patrick has not abandoned his idea of including Edmonton in his Sunset Hockey League, and seems very anxious now that a professional team shall represent this city. Yesterday, Frank Day received a wire from the Vancouver magnate inquiring if it was too late to send a team here. Patrick intimated that if a local syndicate would provide the rink, he would send Ernie Johnson, the crack cover point formerly with the Wanderers, of Montreal; Percy LeSueur, of Ottawa, recognized as the best goal-keeper in professional hockey, and Hyland, who starred on the Wanderer forward line last winter. All these players are under contract to the Sunset League and would be told to report here.

NOW TOO LATE

Attractive as is this offer, and while no difficulty would be found in getting a syndicate together to finance a rink, still there is very little chance of Edmonton having a pro team this coming season, as it is now too late for anything to be done. It would take at least two months to get the rink completed, and as Patrick is thinking of getting his schedule started on December 12 the Eskimos would never be able to get ready by then. Sentiment here is very favorable to fast pro hockey, and probably next year a franchise will be sought for in the Sunset. Present indications point to a three team circuit this season, with clubs at Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, which will make a nice compact league.

KEPT PROMISE

The Patrick brothers have certainly lived up to their promise that they could entice the cream of the eastern hockey talent to the west, as their depredations to date have wrought havoc in the ranks of the National Hockey League teams. Splendid arenas with artificial ice plants have been built in Vancouver and Victoria, the former being the largest hockey rink in Canada, and with the coast fans just hungry for hockey, the games should draw immense crowds.

HOCKEY PLAYERS KICK ABOUT PENALTIES

Ottawa, Dec. 5—The Ottawa Hockey Club and its players differ in their opinions with regard to the abolition of the penalty system in the N. H. A. in favor of fines, suspensions and expulsions. President McGee, Vice-President Bate, and other executive members declare that it will result in the elimination of rough work, and the introduction of a faster and cleaner brand of hockey. The players, however, believe that the new system, if rigidly enforced, will cause intense dissatisfaction.

Percy LeSueur pointed out that the banishing of one star player might result in a win for the inferior team, but believes that if the association is firm in its interpretations of the new rules, they will remove the objectionable features.

HOOF BEATS

David M. Look will eventually place Mr. Stokes the yearling brother of Miss Stokes 2,082 at the head of his lately purchased Castleton Farm. Ross K. 2,014 is back in Dick McMahon's stable at Libertyville, Ill., fully recovered from the injury received more than a year ago at Dallas.

Gus Macey has shipped Colorado E Gold Dollar, C The Limit, and the other campaigners owned by George Estabrook to Denver for the winter. Charles Tappen of Attleboro is going to try and raise another Chatty Direct, 2,094. He has shipped Chatty Brook the dam of his good black trotter to Ohio to be bred in the spring to The Director General.

The 3-year-old Russell Allen 2,153 kids fair to add fame to his family. He is by Admiral Dewey out of Kara, a full sister of Kremlin, 2,574. He took his record in the old Montgomery Ala., running track and has trotted a quarter in 21 seconds.

The Horse Review has arranged a prize ballot contest to determine a popular votee the Ten Greatest Pacers of All Time. To stimulate interest in this unique and original contest, it has set aside the sum of $100 divided in seven prizes which will be awarded the successful competitors.

SOME AMUSING INCIDENTS AT OLD GLORY HORSE SALE

"Bill" Clarke met with a Slight Mishap—Breeding of Star Todd, Keros, Gertie Tipton and Melvetta—Local Horsemen Paid $30 per Ton for Hay

The breeding of Star Todd, the stallion bought by Mr. Roy W. Smith at the Old Glory sale, Keros, the stallion, and Gertie Tipton and Melvetta, mares, bought at the same sale by Mr. Wm. A. Clark, is given below. All four horses are exceedingly well-bred. Keros has been in this part of Canada before. The breeding is as follows:

STAR TODD.

Star Todd. Half brother of Bingara, sire of Belvasia, 2,064; Binvol 2,074, etc. Out of half sister of Queensland, 2,194, and Felita, (dam of Border Knight, 2,124). Foaled in 1908. Brown colt. OPPOSITION TO LYNCH
EXPECTED TO DEVELOP

New York, Dec. 4—Although it has been generally supposed that all was serene in National League politics on the eve of the annual meeting here, it became known in baseball circles today that a still fight to oust President Thomas J. Lynch is being planned by two or three club owners. The result promises to be a battle royal at the meeting next week, and it is questionable whether Lynch can be re-elected to the office he has held for the past two years.

Reports have it that the magnates who are opposing Lynch are Murphy, of Chicago; Ebbets, of Brooklyn and Fogel of Philadelphia. The scheme is said to involve the installing in the presidential chair of John D. O'Brien, former president of the American Association. Other names mentioned in this connection are Robert Brown of Louisville, and John Ward, of New York, who were suggested as candidates when Lynch was elected two years ago.

MURPHY BUSY

Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago Nationals, was in New York few days ago, and called on President Brush, of the New York Club. Mr. Brush, it is believed, is strong for Lynch, who, among his other supporters, numbers Herrmann, of Cincinnati, and Dreyfus of Pittsburgh. How Boston and St. Louis will line up is not known. Lynch cannot be ousted unless there are five votes against him.

The anti-Lynch faction, it is said, will help on the need of harmony among club owners as a reason for getting rid of their present chief of staff.

FUTURE OF STANLEY CUP UNDECIDED

Although it seemed to be generally understood after last Saturday's meeting of the N. H. A. that the Stanley Cup would be handed back to the trustees by the Ottawa Club, it is quite on the cards that the trustees may still keep the trophy in competition. Whether N. H. A. teams will ever take part in Stanley Cup games again, however, seems doubtful. The association has adopted the attitude that it is not to their interests to be compelled to defend any trophy at the whim of the trustees and a challenging team. Moreover, the six men aside rules now in force might lead to complications.

America, 2:10; Unko, 2:11; Andram (4), 2:14, etc. Dam, Grace Tipton, (4), 2:13, dam of Brenda Yorke, 2:04; Luther Moko, 2:15.

MELVETTA.

Melvetta. Pacer. Foaled 1908. Bay filly. Standard bred. By Melvo, 2:20; Dam, Lady Alcone.

AMUSING INCIDENTS.

Some amusing incidents have been reported by those who have returned from New York. "Bill" Clark, it is said, in his anxiety to view Star Todd on the track, put his head out so far that he was struck by the horse. Everyone in New York "had his hand out," is the report, and had to be bought for the seven horses which are being shipped to Fredericton, at the rate of $30.00 per ton. Anything about the "Garden" that was not nailed down was public property and after the horses were bought they had to be watched continually to prevent them disappearing. Master Walnut was taken from his stall but was secured again.

WELL PLEASED.

Jack Sullivan is well pleased with that horse. He bought him at the noon-hour when there was practically no person about and a lot of people who were after the horse made him some good offers. One included a horse that had gone a mile in 2:11. The arrival of the horses is anxiously awaited and it is hoped that they will stand the journey all right.

Mr. Sullivan has had Society Lad, one of his purchases, renamed Bunny B, out of compliment to Bun Beckwith, the well-known commercial man.

MAJOR LEAGUES WILL NOT REDUCE SALARIES

New York, Dec. 5—Although most of the minor league baseball clubs will reduce the salaries of players next season, there is no danger that the major leagues will follow suit. This authoritative announcement is made here today. The big league magnates will continue salaries on present lines, that is, scaled all the way from $1,500 to $10,000 for the season's work, as a matter of fact the major league clubs at present are paying higher salaries than ever before in the history of the game but they are reaping larger gate receipts, and any move to reduce salaries would mean rebellion among players and fans.

In 1889 a plan to cut salaries in the big clubs to a maximum of $2,400 brought about the brotherhood revolt that wrecked organized baseball and resulted in tremendous losses. No attempt to reduce salaries in the big leagues has materialized since that time.

The minor leagues have been paying so much money to players in recent years, however, that many of them have found it hard to make ends meet, and some very radical cuts in salaries appropriations will be made this year.

HOCKEY NOTES

The Alberta Hockey Association has gone on record as approving the formation of a Western Canada Hockey Association.

"Skinner" Poulin of the Canadiens was married at Winnipeg, Thursday, to a Calgary girl, Miss Marie McCaul. Mr. and Mrs. Poulin left for the Coast, where "Skinner" is slated to play with Lester Patrick's Victoria hockey team.

Has Bruce Stuart been signed to play cover for the Tecumseh "Mag" McGregor, the iron man of the Ontario Pro Hockey League last year, will play point and captain the team. Goalkeeper Lindsay has arrived in town with a franchise purchased from Renfrew.

Mark Toozie intends to turn out with the pro teams, and will try for the goal position. Harry Holmes, who played goal for Parkdale last winter and turned pro. for the lacrosse game, is also likely to be found in the nets of one of the teams. Harry played a nice game last winter.—Toronto News.
