

ADVERTISERS
When you don't advertise nobody knows that you are doing business, and it won't be long before you'll not know it yourself.

The Daily Mail.

THE WEATHER.
Maritime—Strong southwest
shifting to northwest winds, showery. Wednesday strong northwest winds, fair and cooler.

VOL. XV NO. 201

FREDERICTON, N. B., TUESDAY, AUGUST 29 1911

TWO CENTS PER COPY

LAURIER GREETED BY THOUSANDS

INJURIES WERE FATAL

Man Shot in Toronto
Street Row Died
in Hospital Last Night

Arthur Peachy Will Now be Called Upon to Face a Charge of Murder--
Two Others Injured

Montreal, Aug. 29.—Murder is the charge which Arthur Peachy will now be called to face. Emile Lisotte, injured on Friday night in a row, which started over a remark on the weather conditions, died in the hospital last night from the effects of a bullet fired by Peachy. Two others were also shot in the fight by Peachy after he had been badly beaten.

Lisotte on the point of death gave brief testimony yesterday to be used in the preliminary inquest. He could not identify Peachy as the man who had shot him and could only say he was shot by the man who was fighting with his friend Xavier Vivivier. He had tried to separate the men and just as he pulled Vivivier away, he saw the other man draw a revolver from his pocket and the next instant he was shot. He did not know the man who shot him and would not be able to identify the man if he saw him.

THE TORY ORGAN AT ITS OLD TRICKS

Editor of The Daily Mail:
Dear Sir—We, and I say we, for several readers of the Gleaner happened to come to the same conclusion, without having even discussed the matter together—were much amused at the letter written in the Gleaner office—and entitled "Mission and Notions of Senator Thompson" in the Saturday issue of this sheet and signed "Kingsclear". A rather clever trick, but old as the hills with the Gleaner people. Another pure piece of "intrigue," intended as is all their political matter to deceive and mislead, and the funny part of it is some people are sufficiently gullible to swallow this sort of "stuff" whole. If it were the opinion of anyone outside of these political "four-flushers"—who for goodness sake is fool enough to consider "wind" the criterion of a politician? If the majority of the voters of this county are so "veredent" as to jump to such transparent bait again, they will never learn wisdom. It is no evidence of political—or any other kind of knowledge—to block the government and add thousands of dollars to the cost of each session by getting up and "butting into" any and every subject simply to have this task rehearsed in the Gleaner. Why of course Mr. Crockett is most wise, but is he? Has Dr. Atherton ever done anything to indicate that he does not possess a most brilliant brain? Has Mr. Crockett ever in any way ever done anything to indicate that his thinking organ is other than "bump-tious" "egotistic" and a subject of political "brainstorm"? It is the general opinion that the Dr. possesses almost as clear a head as Mr. Crockett, and such "stuff" as this alleged letter from "Kingsclear"—is all intended to fool and delude the susceptible, unthinking ignoramus whose vote they always bank on getting any way.

Yours respectfully,
Fredericton.

P. S.—You will see that Dr. Atherton will accomplish more the first month he is at Ottawa than Crockett ever did in all the eight years of York County's neglected opportunity, in which we were supposed to be represented by the All-Wise Crockett.

BODY RECOVERED.
Chatham, Aug. 29.—The body of a man supposed to be William Keenan of Chatham was found in the river at Newcastle today. He was forty-three years of age and unmarried.

The body of the man killed on the B. and A. Railway near Davidson Me. has been identified as that of Joseph Currie, formerly of this place. He will be brought here for burial.

Political Demonstration at St. John in Honor of the Liberal Chieftain the Greatest in the History of the Province--Sturdy Voters from Every Coun- ty Paid Him Homage--Torchlight Procession and Great Mass Meeting in Victoria Rink--Premier Addressed Eight Thousand People

Some Plain Truths About the Reciprocity Agreement--Under it Trade Will Flow from Canada to the United States Like Water over a Mill Race--Tory Arguments Effectively Answered--The Annexation Cry an Insult to the Intelligence of Canadians--If Borden Will Answer for the Loyalty of the Tories Sir Wilfrid Will Answer for the Grits--Tory Loyalty Only in Evidence at Election Time--Hon. Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Lowell Warmly Greeted

St. John, Aug. 29.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's visit to St. John yesterday was marked by the greatest political demonstration in the history of New Brunswick. Every county in the province was well represented in the great throng which gathered to pay homage to the great statesman who has been the head of the government for upwards of fifteen years. It was truly a great day for Liberalism in New Brunswick and a day to be remembered by the people of this good old province.

The city was thronged with visitors and the hotels were taxed to their utmost capacity. Nearly every station along the line of the I.C.R. from Campbellton to St. John contributed its quota. There were nearly two hundred people from York County, fifty of whom came from Canterbury and over three thousand came in from Kings, Albert, Westmorland and Queens Counties, while Carleton and Victoria Counties sent a contingent of fourteen hundred sturdy voters, who travelled in a special train of sixteen cars. This contingent was accompanied by a brass band, which led a procession from the depot to the Royal Hotel. Mr. F. B. Carvell, the Liberal candidate in Carleton, and Mr. George W. Upham, followed the band in an automobile. The delegation was composed of sturdy farmers, and "We want reciprocity," was their motto.

A GREAT MEETING.

The mass meeting in the Victoria Rink in the evening marked the high tide of Liberal enthusiasm. The great building, which accommodates 7,500 people, was densely crowded and it is estimated that at least ten thousand people were turned away. Sir Wilfrid was escorted from the Royal Hotel by a torchlight procession and was repeatedly cheered by thousands of people along the route. Accompanied by Hon. Dr. Pugsley, Mr. James Lowell, Hon. Speaker Marcell and Chairman Knowlton, he entered the rink at 8.20 o'clock and made his way to the platform. His appearance was the signal for a great outburst of cheering, which was repeated when he reached the platform and took his seat.

The crowd which thronged the building one third of whom were standing had been waiting since 7 o'clock but displayed very little sign of impatience. They cheered prominent men on the platform including Hon. John Morrissey and Dr. Silas Alward, the last named gentleman having recently returned to the Liberal fold.

The hundreds standing in the gallery could see what was going on but could hear nothing and it is but natural that some of them should have become restless before the speech-making was half over. A sawdust covering on the floor would no doubt have made it easier for the people in distant parts of the rink to hear what was said.

HON. DR. PUGSLEY

was the first speaker and received a great ovation from the audience. He dealt with reciprocity agreement and its effect upon the lumbering industry and made the important announcement that Norton, Griffiths & Co., were the lowest tenderers for the harbor improvement at Courtney

HON. DR. PUGSLEY
Liberal Candidate in St. John City

Bay. The announcement was received with cheers.

CANDIDATE LOWELL

who followed the minister was given a great reception. His speech was brief and to the point. He dealt in an effective manner with some canvasses used by Hon. Robert Maxwell and predicted victory for himself and colleague on Sept. 21st.

Chairman Knowlton in introducing Sir Wilfrid Laurier paid a glowing tribute to his worth and supplemented his remarks by reading an address of welcome on behalf of the Liberal party of St. John.

When the prime minister arose to reply he was again greeted with long continued cheering, and waving of flags, which fluttered in every part of the vast auditorium. He was also applauded frequently in the course of his brilliant address.

Sir Wilfrid said it had been his experience in a somewhat long career to witness many demonstrations, and he had thought that in Quebec last week was the greatest in his experience, but he must pay his friend and colleague Dr. Pugsley, the compliment of saying that the demonstration in St. John surpassed in enthusiasm anything he had ever seen. His only regret was that after two weeks of hard work his voice might not reach to the limits of that vast audience. He had not come to the maritime provinces with the hope of adding anything to the Liberal side of the controversy. He desired, however to address himself to Conservatives, the best and brightest men of whose party Sir John Macdonald, Sir Leonard Tilley, Sir John Thompson and others were all in favor of an interchange of natural products with the United States. Again and again it was sought. Again and again they went on pilgrimages to Washington, but they went in vain. One of the first acts of the Liberal government was to send Sir Richard Cartwright to Washington but it was to no purpose.

"I regret," said Sir Wilfrid, "that we were not more successful, that our proposals were not received with favor; and I stated in parliament that there would be no more pilgrimages to Washington. If the question was to be solved, it must be from Washington and not from Ottawa. (Cheers)

A GREAT CHANGE

Sir Wilfrid next referred to the change that had occurred in fifteen years. In those former years during which the Americans did not treat us as we desired, Canada was not so well known. She was not even well known in Britain. But times are changed. Fifteen years ago, Canada began to come to the front. It was discovered by the world that there was another star in the sky, and that star was Canada. In the former years the United States was the magnet that attracted the world. But now Canada is the magnet, and on it is riveted the gaze of the old world. Go to any part of the civilized world and say "I am a Canadian," and hats are lifted and doors are opened. (Cheers)

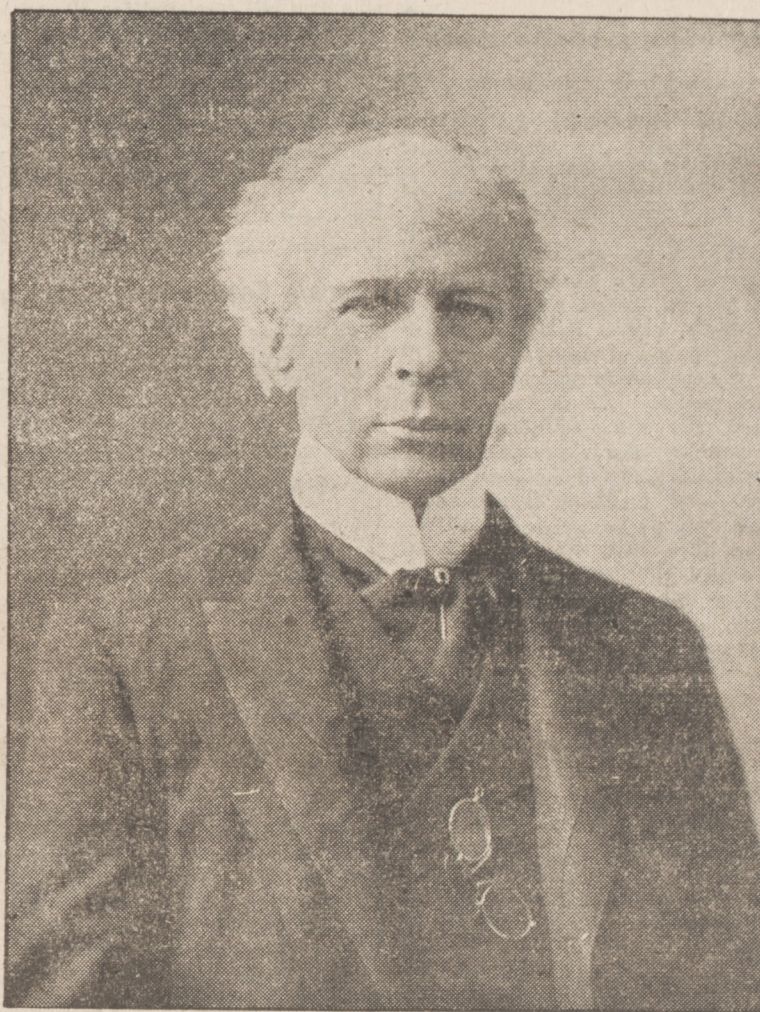

This is the change that has come between us and our neighbors. A new spirit has been born among them, and we are treated with respect; and there has been a pilgrimage from Washington to Ottawa. President Taft sent commissioners to offer to negotiate for the removal of the barriers of trade in commodities. Should we have received these overtures as our own were received in former years? Our opponents say so. Well, if they are built that way, we are not. To have so received them would have been a crime against Canada. (Cheers)

MR. JAMES LOWELL
Liberal Candidate in St. John City and County

ATTACKED BY TRUSTS

"We made an arrangement which had been sought by Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Leonard Tilley and other great leaders of the Conservative party. That agreement was attacked by the trusts and monopolies in the United States, who were afraid of Canadian competition. To the credit of the Democratic party it must be said that they stood up for the best traditions of their party and supported President Taft and the trade agreement. There was on their part a fine example of adherence to principles, but in Canada the opposition went back upon their principles and those of the great men who made the Conservative party."

RT. HON. SIR WILFRID LAURIER

Sir Wilfrid said that he had read that one of the Conservative speakers admitted that their great leaders had favored reciprocity, but that they are dead. True, they were dead, and he was sorry to say they had no successors. (Laughter.) The opposition had a perfect right to stultify themselves in this matter, but they also undertook to block the business of parliament, and prevent the vote being taken. Sir Wilfrid pictured his difficulty as leader of the government being forced to listen to the same speeches over and over again.

NO LIMIT TO OBSTRUCTION

"I am," he said, "saturated with speeches and figures submitted to prove that two and two make five instead of four. (Renewed laughter.) There was no limit to the obstruction, except in so far as the obstructionists might be reasonable men, and when they continued unreasonable there was no recourse but to appeal to the people. However, retribution always comes some time or other, and it would be meted out to these gentlemen at the bar of public opinion on September 21. (Cheers.) That would be the day of their chastisement, and the day of the last judgment for many of them. Instead of wasting unlimited time to try to bring them to reason, the government felt that it would be better to bring them before their masters and judges, who are also the masters and judges of the government, and let the latter decide whether or not the government should be upheld.

"If," said Sir Wilfrid, "you desire to uphold the government, then elect Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Lowell, and the Liberal candidates in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Quebec—and Quebec will do it, let me tell you, in spite of appeals to passion and prejudice—and as soon as it is settled on September 21, parliament will be called at the end of October or not later than November 1, and in three months there will be no barrier between Canada and the United States to prevent the flow of natural products from one into the other." (Cheers.)

OPPOSITION CAST DOWN

"But when the government adopted its course the opposition party became at once cast down. They said it was most unfair. On the contrary it is perfectly fair. As soon as the house was dissolved I gave to the people my reasons not only for dis-Sir Wilfrid Speech—TWO... solution but for our adoption of the trade agreement. That speech was criticized by Mr. Borden and Mr. Sifton and others, who averred that it offered no argument to the people for accepting the agreement. It is true I did not argue. I stated the case. That was all that was necessary. There are some things so self-evident that no argument is needed. You state that the sun shines, that rivers run toward the sea, that grain in the ground will germinate. These facts are self-evident. It is not necessary to argue in regard to them, nor is it necessary to argue that reciprocity will be of benefit to Canada. Such an agreement between two countries, one of which is stronger than the other, will be more to the benefit of the weaker because it will participate in the activities of the stronger.

"It is certainly very flattering to the government that there is said by our opponents to be no necessity for such an agreement—that we should 'let well enough alone.' But it is not good. Let well become better. We all desire to make well better than it is." (Cheers.)

To illustrate that point in relation to the trade agreement, Sir Wilfrid pointed out that the Canadian export of lambs, mutton, etc., would find it better not to be compelled to pay the duty when shipping them to the United States.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley said Sir Wilfrid had told them the beneficial effect which reciprocity would have on the Canadian producers in the matter of lumber. Let him make reference to some other items covered by the trade agreement. There is a duty of

(Continued on page four)

McGILLICUDDY WAS BUMPED

Author of Oliver
Charges Had A
Warm Time in Centre York

Former Alberta M. P. P. Throws a
Sidelight on the Issue--A Stormy Political Gathering

Toronto, Aug. 29.—Not in the recent history of Toronto politics has there been such a storm as occurred at Thunder Bay, York Centre, last evening when Daniel McGillicuddy, formerly editor of the Goderich Signal, then a government employee at Ottawa and latterly publisher of the Calgary News, discussed his charges against Hon. Frank Oliver minister of the interior. The meeting which drew a great crowd was marked by many disorderly interruptions, resulting in two men being violently ejected. At the opening of the meeting, John Galbraith, once a candidate for the Alberta legislature, and who yesterday declined the Liberal nomination for South York, was permitted to speak in defence of Mr. Oliver. He said that "Two Yankee carpet bagging crooks had gone to Alberta and secured a charter for a bogus road, the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway. Mr. Oliver's criticism had resulted in an investigation which drove Hon. Mr. Rutherford and Hon. Mr. Cross out of office. Mr. Cross was taking his revenge and Mr. McGillicuddy was one of his tools."

DONALD MORRISON AND T. W. BUTLER HAD NARROW ESCAPE

A message from Boiestown in the effect that Mr. Donald Morrison of Newcastle, the anti-reciprocity candidate in Northumberland and Mr. T. W. Butler one of his campaigners had a narrow escape from death last night at a railway crossing near Boiestown. They had been covering that section of Northumberland County by motor car. At about nine o'clock last night they attempted to cross the I. C. R. track in front of the Chatham express. Their car stuck inside one of the rails and had a wheel broken off. The occupants were compelled to leap for their lives and the car was considerably damaged.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER LEFT FOR DIGBY

St. John, Aug. 29.—Quite a number of people gathered at the D.R.A. wharf this morning to see Sir Wilfrid Laurier take his departure for Digby. Sir Wilfrid was accompanied by Speaker Marcell and upper province press representatives. He speaks at Digby this afternoon.

PARTNERS DISAGREE OVER POLITICS

St. John, Aug. 29.—There was quite a mixup in the store of McAvin & Kichham, Union Street, yesterday over a flag incident. McAvin is a Liberal and Kichham a Conservative. When the latter returned from dinner yesterday he found a string of flags displayed in honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He raised an objection and finally had the flags removed.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The city Reciprocity Committee will meet at the committee rooms, Pitts Building, York Street, tonight. Important business is to be transacted.