GIRL TRYING TO SAVE FATHER FROM GALLOWES

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 11—Not for many years has a murder trial caused so great a sensation and attracted such general interest in this section of the State as the trial to begin here in the Tippecanoe circuit court next Monday, of John W. Poole, a prosperous Benton county farmer who is charged with having murdered Joseph Kemper one of his German farmhands in December 1909. It is not morbid curiosity alone or a desire to have an opportunity to listen to the revolting details of a brutal crime that cause this general interest. The feature which more than any other appeals to the heart and sympathy of the people is the brave fight which Grace Poole the daughter of the accused man is making, to save her father from the gallows.

Grace Poole alone of all the members of the Poole family faithfully stands by her father and out of her meager earnings as a teacher in the Wheatfield public school defrays the cost of defending her father in the coming trial. Poole's wife and other daughter have turned against him and have absolutely refused to contribute to the fund for Poole's defense. His son, Emory Poole, who has been the prime accuser of his father and has left literally no stone unturned to find evidence against the old man, continues to maintain his attitude of extreme hostility and has openly declared that he would not rest until his father had been hanged.

John W. Poole was one of the most substantial men in Benton county. He owned several prosperous farms but owing to some financial trouble a few years ago he transferred the title to his wife. Joseph Kemper, with whose murder Poole is charged, worked for Poole during the summer and fall of 1909. He was last seen alive on December 10 or 12, 1909 and since then every trace of him was lost. It was supposed that he had left the farm to find work in the lumber camps of Michigan.

Nobody suspected that Kemper had been murdered until Poole's son Emory, informed the authorities in his belief that his father had killed Kemper and buried his body somewhere on the farm. The elder Poole was arrested on March 18, 1911 and charged with the murder of Kemper, but he was discharged on the same day, because there was absolutely no evidence against him at that time beyond the mere accusation of Emory Poole.

Young Poole apparently convinced that his suspicion was well founded and determined to find the necessary proofs for the guilt of his father continued to search for Kemper's body, exploring every part of the grounds with that object in view. His perseverance was apparently rewarded. In the middle of a big corn field, about half a mile from the Poole homestead, young Poole found the decomposed remains of a human body, mingled with the remains of a hog's carcass. He notified the authorities and although the remains of the human body were far beyond identification insisted upon his charge that the body was that of Joseph Kemper whom, he accused his father of having murdered.

John W. Poole was again arrested and brought to Fowler, Ind., where he was arraigned before Justice L. B. Stevens on May 4 last. The charge was preferred by Emory Poole who submitted practically all the evidence. Poole pleaded not guilty and was held to the grand jury without bail on a charge of murder. In due course of time he was indicted and his trial was set for next Monday.

Although Poole continued to maintain his innocence of having committed intentional murder he is said to have confessed that he accidentally shot and killed Kemper and then buried his body for fear of the consequences of his deed. Poole it is said claims that while he climbed over the fence of his orchard to hunt rabbits his shotgun was accidentally discharged and the full load struck Kemper in the head at close range, killing him instantly.

SICKLY BABIES CRY, HEALTHY BABIES SMILE

Baby's cry indicates distress—his smile health and contentment. The mother may be sure there never was a baby who cried for the fun of it. Baby's disposition is naturally a happy one and it is only distress such as may be brought on by a disordered condition of the stomach or bowels that can change this. So, mothers, to keep your baby happy you must keep him well—Baby's Own Tablets will do this. Concerning them Mrs. Chas. Potvin, Causapata, N. S., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets have proved an excellent remedy for my baby. I had been using syrups, but they failed to help him and he cried constantly. The Tablets cured him and now he is a fat, healthy child." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams-Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Elmore Barce has been engaged to defend Poole and it is believed that he will make a plea of insanity for his client. Fifteen years ago Poole was tried for having tried to shoot a man named Quiddy. The jury decided, however, that Poole was insane and he was sent to an asylum in Indianapolis where he remained several years.

Grace Poole, the prisoner's young daughter, came near losing her position as teacher in the Wheatfield public school where she has been doing good work for several years. Many of the parents objected to her because her father had been accused of murder, but the brave girl called a meeting of the parents and won their sympathy and support when she explained to them that it would be impossible for her to help her father should she be deprived of her position.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D.C., Nov. 11—The return of President Taft to Washington after an absence of two months will be the signal for the re-awakening of official life and political activity in the national capital. Though Congress will not meet for several weeks many of the members will be here for meetings of various commissions and official investigations. The President will begin work in earnest on his annual message and political leaders will drop in to consult with him concerning the preliminary work of the approaching campaign which it is generally agreed is to have an earlier beginning next year than is usually the case.

The first session of Canada's newly elected twelfth Parliament will open Wednesday. The proceedings on the first day will be purely formal and of routine character. The ceremonial opening by His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught will take place Thursday and promises to be an event of exceptional brilliancy. The duration of the parliamentary session and the extent and character of the business to be transacted are largely problematical.

Among the important gatherings of the week will be the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, at Atlanta; the annual convention of the American Road Builders' Association, at Rochester; the meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress at Kansas City; the convention of the American Association for the Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality at Chicago and the convention and exhibition of the American Apple Congress in Denver.

Other events of more or less interest and importance will be the annual banquet of the Canadian Club of New York, the dedication of the Massachusetts monuments on Petersburg battlefield and at Valley Forge, the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition in Chicago, the opening of the National Horse Show in New York, and the football games between Yale and Princeton, Michigan and Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin and Minnesota universities.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair. It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness to the scalp entirely disappear.

Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

That young man who thinks he is poor because he has no bank account little understands the value of God's free gift of health and strength, little appreciates the fact that the brightest and best of the country are self-made, and come to the notice of the world from just such beginnings. Not by idle musing that they are poor, but by going carefully to work perfecting themselves in their chosen pursuits and becoming so useful to those about them that their services are always in demand whether it be on the platform, in the shop or in the kitchen, for all are honorable alike.

FINE MOOSEHEADS

Two very handsome mooseheads arrived at Emack's this morning and have been much admired. One was from Carl Pessin, who has been hunting in Guide John Thomas' territory on the LeBreux. The other was from Mr. Robert M. Smith of Cork Station.
