

ALL DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION GOES IN FIVE MINUTES

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapiesin.

SHAWINGAN TO ISSUE STOCK.
It was announced today that Shawingang will issue $500,000 4½ per cent. debenture stock.

There is now 4,500,000 of this stock outstanding.

The shareholders will meet on December 27th to ratify the issue and decide upon the price.

This issue will complete Shawingang's new financing for a long time to come, and the shareholders now look forward to a period of big earnings, which will eventually lead to an increase in the dividend.

Shawingang now has the distinction of being the largest water power concern in the world, and develops new power at a cost so low that few concerns can touch it in that regard.

END CAME PEACEFULLY TO CANON ELLEGOOD

(Montreal Witness, December 3.)

After a lingering illness lasting some weeks, the Rev. Jacob Ellegood, canon of Christ Church Cathedral, rector of the Church of St. James the Apostle, senior clergyman of the Diocese of Montreal, and oldest army chaplain in the British empire, passed away peacefully at five minutes past eight o'clock yesterday morning at the age of eighty-seven. The death took place in the presence of five surviving relatives, the Rev. A. P. Shatford, his curate, and Dr. England.

The news of the death was immediately communicated to the various churches in the city, and it was announced from the pulpit in every Anglican church.

The aged canon had a splendid record of achievement, and the news of his death, although it was hourly expected, not only by his parishioners, but throughout the whole Anglican community. He was very highly esteemed by everyone who came into contact with him and in many churches touching remarks were made of him and his life work in the city.

The final arrangements for the funeral have not been made as yet. It is probable that the body will be placed in the Church of St. James the Apostle tomorrow. Holy Communion will be celebrated at eight o'clock in the morning, with the burial service conducted by the Lord Bishop of Montreal, and the Rev. A. P. Shatford at nine o'clock; the entire clergy of the diocese will be present and the Victoria Rifles Regiment, of which the deceased was the chaplain.

The canon's two favorite hymns were sung at St. James the Apostle at the morning service. "And now, O Father, mindful of the love," and "Jesus, Lover of my soul," while the hymns at the evening service were, "A Few More Years Shall Roll," and "The Saints of God, Their Conflict O'er."

IN EIGHTY-SIXTH YEAR.

Canon Ellegood was born on March 13, 1824, and is consequently approaching his eighty-sixth birthday. He was ordained in 1848, and became rector of St. James the Apostle in 1864. On his last birthday it was decided that it would be best not to have any celebration of the occasion as the rector's strength would not warrant the tax that would be necessarily imposed upon him. This decision was reached the more readily owing to the fact that just previously several celebrations had taken place in honor of the venerable minister. He was, however, the recipient of many congratulatory messages.

HONORED BY HIS PEOPLE.

One such celebration, that gave the congregation an opportunity to express their devotion and their high appreciation of their pastor, occurred on the evening of May 7, 1908, when a distinguished gathering of the clergy and prominent citizens attended the Church of St. James the Apostle for a special service held by Bishop Carmichael to commemorate the sixtieth anniversary of the ordination and the forty-fifth anniversary of the rectorship of Canon Ellegood, who, at that time, had served under four bishops and four crowned heads. In the course of his remarks the Bishop said it was the lot of few to follow the divine directing hand through so long a priesthood. The rector's ministry had been a faithful one. For him the church had not been a kaleidoscope picture shifting every now and then.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the service, when Canon Ellegood was presented with addresses by the clergy, the congregation and the 3rd Regiment, Victoria Rifles of which he had been chaplain since 1862, when it was organized.

The address from the clergy was read by the Lord Bishop and was, in part, as follows:

Your Bishop and your brethren of the clergy desire to offer you their warm and affectionate congratulations upon the sixtieth anniversary of your ordination to the sacred ministry of the church. Most thankfully we recognize the great work which your efforts have accomplished. We are not unmindful of the energy which characterized those strenuous years of your clerical life when the church in Montreal was not equipped as she is today; when you, with others, whose names are sacred to us, often with heroic self-sacrifice, have yourselves to the task of laying broad and deep the foundations of her work, which have stood the test of time so well—foundations upon which many of us are building to-day. We recall, with gratitude, the fact that from your earlier labors have sprung what are now five of the strong and vigorous centres of church life in this great and growing city. Of such a record any clergyman might well be justly proud.

Lieut.-Col. Starke read the address from the 3rd Victoria Rifles. After congratulating Canon Ellegood on the attainment of his diamond jubilee in the ministry, he said:

When our regiment was organized in 1862, from the gallant band that sprang to arms to defend our hearths and homes you were asked to take charge of their spiritual welfare, and you cheerfully acceded to their wishes. It is with feelings of profound gratitude and sincere affection that we today record the fact that ever since, in all the various changes through which the regiment has passed, you have been with us to encourage, sustain and strengthen us with words of wisdom or admonition, always coupled with a high and fervent patriotism.

The address from the congregation was signed by Messrs. H. Frost and D. B. MacPherson, wardens; Edgar Judge, S. O. Sherey, F. W. Hildyard, O. R. Rowley, G. R. Crowdy, E. J. Coyle, J. W. Marling, W. J. Fenwick, and C. E. Smythe. It was read by Mr. D. B. MacPherson.

PASSED THROUGH SHIP FEVER.

The Ven. Archdeacon Ker, rector of Grace church, Point St. Charles, preaching in the Church of St. James the Apostle, on May 13, 1906, on the occasion of the celebration of Canon Ellegood's ordination, referred to the canon's service in connection with the ship fever, as follows:

Although more than fifty years have elapsed since those days in 1847 and 1848, we sometimes meet with people who were friends and parishioners of the Rev. Dr. Ellegood in "Old St. Ann's." They tell of his devoted labors in seasons of flood and pestilence, how he stood by his flock through two visitations of cholera and through the terrible days of the ship fever; they tell how emigrants fleeing from Ireland were attacked by this fearful malady; how in what were then the green fields of Point St. Charles, the City of Montreal erected shelters for the stricken strangers; how between the quarantine station at Grosse Isle and the Point St. Charles sheds, seven clergyman of the

CONTRACTED HEAVY COLD

Was In Bed Two Months.

DOCTORS DID NOT SEEM TO DO HER ANY GOOD.

A cold, however slight, should never be neglected, for if it is not treated in time it will, in all possibility, lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or some other serious throat or lung troubles.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains the lung healing virtues of the Norway Pine tree, which, combined with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines, makes it without a doubt the best remedy for all coughs and colds.

Miss N. McCumber, St. Martin's N.B., writes:—"In January last I contracted a heavy cold which kept me in bed nearly two months, and the doctors didn't seem to be able to do me any good. I tried several proprietary medicines, but all in vain. One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and when I had taken three bottles I was completely cured, and I feel as well to-day as I ever did, and I am sure my lungs are once more sound, thanks to that wonderful remedy."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

Church of England died of fever, contracted in the discharge of duty; how the Rev. Father Dowd, the venerated priest of the Roman Catholic parish of St. Patrick (not long since called to the rest of Paradise), with great devotion and self-forgetfulness, consoled the dying and buried the dead, and how, with equal devotion and self-forgetfulness, Mr. Ellegood, then a young priest of the English church, walked in the midst of the plague, discharging the duties of his holy office.

In a report of the unveiling of the granite Celtic cross at Grosse Isle last August, in memory of the 12,000 Irish immigrants who perished by the ship fever in 1847 and 1848, it was stated:

Of the eye-witnesses of the scene that marked the ravages of the plague only one of the devoted clergymen who attended the stricken immigrants at the Point St. Charles shelter remains.

That clergyman was Canon Ellegood, at the time minister at "old St. Ann's."

The Rev. Canon Ellegood is the only clergyman who has served under all the bishops of Montreal. He was ordained a deacon when the diocese was formed, and was admitted to the

C.P.R. MAY ISSUE

MORE NEW STOCK

Montreal, Dec. 8.—Notwithstanding the weakness in C.P.R., said to be due to continued selling by German holders, there was what looked like a well-founded rumor that the company would take action in its contemplated new stock issue of $20,000,000.

Local people seemed to think that the European selling was due to an impression that the new stock will be issued at a premium of 50 per cent. Even if this is decided upon, the shareholders would have "rights" to the value of eight to ten dollars a share, based on today's market price for the stock.

If the company issue the new stock at the 50 per cent. premium, it will receive as much as $30,000,000 for its $20,000,000 of new stock. This will automatically reduce the dividend obligation on the new stock, to about 7½ per cent. instead of 10 per cent.

REV. A. P. SHATFORD'S TRIBUTE

Speaking at the morning service in the Church of St. James the Apostle, the Rev. Allan P. Shatford expressed his inability to preach a sermon, and substituted the following statement. He said in part:

We gather for worship this morning under unusually sad conditions. The priest who has guided our worship for nearly half a century has been called to his rest. God has wondrously led him through a long life and crowned his years now with reward and rest. As a congregation, our loss is an exceptionally heavy one. For forty-seven years he has broken to us the Bread of Life. Our
