ALLEGED POLITICAL FUND NOW TOTALS OVER $66,000

A.—Not at that time.
Q.—At any time?
A.—Yes.
Q.—When?
A.—About July 27.
Q.—What was it?
A.—I was asked to buy something over and above the bonus and I told him that I would not.
Q.—Did you tell him when he first asked you?
A.—No. He did not ask me.
Q.—Then how did you come to the refusal?
A.—Some one else asked me.
Q.—Who was that?
Mr. Carter objected to the method of examination, saying that Mr. Carvell was fishing.
Mr. Carvell—Well, I must say that the fishing has been good. (Laughter.)
Question allowed.
Q.—Who asked for the money?
T. J. CARTER APOLOGIZES.

There was some objection and side remarks by T. J. Carter and Mr. Carvell, turning to Mr. Carter, said, with some heat:

"Mr. Carter, you can investigate my character and reputation any time you like and I will raise no technical objection either. I will not stand for these insinuations."
At the request of the court, Mr. Carter apologized.

Q.—Did Mr. Berry say to whom the money should be paid?
A.—To Mr. Brankley or Mr. Sinclair.

Q.—Did you pay any money?
A.—No.
Q.—Or by your principals?
A.—Not that I am aware of.

Mr. Teed—Your licenses were renewed?
A.—Yes.
Q.—And your refusal did not affect your business?
A.—No.

J. W. BRANKLEY.

John Wilkyn Brankley's name was called and there was a rustle among the spectators as the man whose name has figured so prominently took the stand. Mr. Brankley, sworn, said he was manager of the Miramichi Lumber Company, a subsidiary company of the International Pulp & Paper Company. W. H. Sterns is president of his company.

Q.—Did you have any conversation with Mr. Berry?

A.—Yes. He came to my office for information about the lands and I turned him over to my superintendent of woods. This was early in 1913. I saw him several times after. The next time I saw him Mr. Berry wanted to know if my company would donate to a campaign fund.

Q.—Did he say how much?
A.—$15 a mile.
Q.—Did he say how much he wanted?

A.—Yes, he said $100,000.

Q.—What did you say?

A.—I said I could not put up a sum like that without consulting my superiors. That was about May or June.

Q.—Did you not give him any more comfort than that?

A.—I said I would fall in line with the others.

Q.—Did you not say that you, personally, were in favor of it?

A.—I may have.

Q.—Did you pay the money?

A.—No.

Q.—Did Berry make any other effort to get the money?

A.—Yes, he went to Portland.

Q.—How do you know.

A.—I went with him.

Q.—Mr. Berry saw Mr. Sterns?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did he get the money?

A.—No.

A.—And you returned together?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did Berry tell you the result of the conversation?

A.—Yes. He said Mr. Sterns refused to put it up.

Q.—Mr. Berry asked you to be treasurer of the fund?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did he tell you what was to be done with the fund?

Objected to.

Q.—Did he tell you to whom the money was to go?

Objected to.

Mr. Carvell protested that he was asking the only course as the principal witness had been spirited away.

Mr. Teed—Don't say that.

Mr. Carvell—But I do say it.

Mr. Fowler—Mr. Carvell seems to now a lot about Mr. Berry's whereabouts.

Mr. Carvell—Certainly. I know he is at the Parker House, Boston.

The question was allowed.

Q.—Did he tell you to whom the fund was to go?

A.—He told me that I was to pay it all to Mr. Teed of Woodstock?

Q.—Did he tell you Mr. Flemming had directed him to tell you to pay the money to Mr. Teed?

A.—No.

Q.—Did he say anything about Mr. Flemming?

A.—No.

Q.—Did he say who would give you instructions?

A.—He said he would tell me later.

IN FLEMMING'S ROOM.

"Afterwards he asked me to meet him in Fredericton. I did so and saw him in the Barker House. We went upstairs and went to Mr. Flemming's room. Mr. Flemming and Mr. Teed of Woodstock were there. Mr. Berry knocked on the door and we went in. We shook hands and passed the time of day and Mr. Flemming went out.

Q.—Did he say anything?

A.—Yes. He said, 'Anything Mr. Berry tells you about this man is all right.'

Q.—Whom did he mean?

A.—Mr. Teed, I understand.

Q.—Did he introduce you?

A.—No. He went out of the room.

Mr. Berry introduced me to Mr. Teed and said, 'This is the man you are to give the money to.' We talked in an ordinary way but I don't remember the details.

Q.—When Mr. Flemming made his remark did you understand him to mean about the money?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—You were taken to Fredericton to arrange about the money?

A.—To meet Mr. Teed.

Q.—Did you have any further conversation with Mr. Flemming before you left Fredericton?

A.—No.

Q.—This was the first time you had seen Mr. Teed?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Berry and Mr. Teed again after you returned?

A.—Yes. I saw Mr. Berry in Newcastle on June 26, the day of the lumbermen's meeting.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Teed afterwards?

A.—Yes.

Q.—At the time of the lumbermen's meeting?

A.—No. On the evening of June 27, in Newcastle.

Q.—What monies were paid to you up to this time?

A.—I could not tell them all off.

Q.—From J. P. Burchill?

A.—Yes.

Q.—How much?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—In what shape?

A.—A parcel.

Q.—From Mr. Stevens?

A.—Something in an envelope.

Q.—From the T. Lynch Co.?

A.—Mr. Robinson left a parcel. I suppose it was money.

Q.—A parcel coming from T. Lynch & Co.?

A.—I could not say from whom it came.

Q.—He said he did.

A.—Well, he ought to know. (Laughter.)

Mr. Carvell—You know I am interested in that money. I want to locate it.

Q.—From Allan Ritchie?

A.—Yes.

Q.—From James Robinson?

A.—I said I got something from him.

A.—Two parcels?

A.—I believe it was.

A.—From Sinclair Lumber Co.

A.—Yes.

Q.—From Louison Lumber Co.?

A.—Not that I know of.

Q.—Any others?

A.—From James A. Rundle.

Q.—It was put in the same place.

A.—Rundle brought it to my office.

Q.—From the Sullivans?

A.—No.

Q.—Any others?

A.—Dominion Pulp & Paper Company, W. B. Snowball and McLean of Bathurst, at different times?

Q.—But you don't recall the Louison Company?

A.—No. There was another parcel from some one but I don't know who it was. I did not check any of it.

Q.—You received eight parcels altogether.

A.—Yes.

Q.—What did you do with them?

Question changed to, How were parcels marked?

A.—Some were marked with the names of those who left them.

GAVE IT TO TEED.

Q.—What did you do with them?

A.—I gave them to Mr. Teed.

Q.—Do you see that Mr. Teed in the court room?

A.—Yes, that is he (indicating him.)

Witness—After this money was all paid in I took it over to Mr. Berry's room in the Touraine Hotel. Mr. Teed was there too. The money was in a newspaper parcel. I said, 'Here is the stuff' and put it on the bed. Mr. Teed opened the whole parcel but Mr. Berry took the envelope from Mr. Stevens.

Q.—Did you ever see those parcels again?

A.—Yes. I saw them in Newcastle that night.

Q.—You all went to Newcastle together?

A.—Yes.
