THE SQUARE DEAL GOVERNMENT

Premier Fleming in his reply to the delegation from the Temperance Federation which waited upon the government at St. John last week and asked for the enactment of a prohibitory law, is reported by the St. John Standard to have said:

"The government moreover adopted another amendment by which it grants prohibition. Under this amendment the governor-in-council on receiving a petition from the voters of any district may declare by proclamation that no license will be issued after a certain date, and as a result proclamations have been made closing the saloons in two parishes of Gloucester, in the parishes of Wellington in Kent, and in Madawaska and in a number of other places. In order to bring about a better enforcement of the law the government appoints sub-inspectors whose duty it is to assist the enforcement of the law under the new conditions created by the closing of saloons by proclamation. Under the amendments adopted by this government there has been a rapid change for the better and the licensed saloons have been abolished in many districts. You have been getting prohibition. This government made the amendments that gave the temperance people a square deal (Hear, hear.) I hope you will remember that.

As the amendment referred to in the above extract was adopted by the Legislature in 1903, five years before the "government of the square deal" took office, the public will readily see that the Premier was "going some" when he took to himself the credit for it. It is quite on a par with the action of the government in claiming all the credit for the splendid apples grown in this province in recent years which were as a matter of fact picked from trees planted long before Premier Fleming became a member of the House. The present Lieutenant Governor is generally regarded as the author of the license act amendment which gave the people a square deal. Premier Fleming surely has another banquet coming to him.

The Tory headsmen of York have been guilty of some mean acts, but the meanest of all was the dismissal on Christmas Eve of Mr. Herbert Jamieson from the position of preventive officer at North Lake. Mr. Jamieson, although a cripple, was a splendid officer and was popular with all classes. Although a Liberal, he took no active part in the recent election, other than to exercise his franchise. The indignation in the western end of the county over his dismissal is intensified by the appointment of Mr. Thomas Wetmore as his successor, over the heads of a dozen better men who were applicants for the job. Mr. Wetmore, it seems, was able to make the head-hunters believe that he was responsible for the Tory majority in North Lake last September, when as a matter of fact, he did not possess sufficient influence to secure his own election to the county council.

Hon. William Miller, the last of the senators appointed by royal proclamation in 1867, died at Ottawa a few days ago. He was born on Feb. 12, 1834, at Antigonish, and was called to the Nova Scotia bar in 1860. He sat in the N. S. legislature from 1863 until the union. He was a Conservative in politics.

Hon. George P. Graham told a Toronto News correspondent on the night before the election in South Renfrew that he would win by 300 majority. He must have had the situation sized up pretty accurately.

It looks as if the Borden government was already on the run.

Mr. Charles E. Tanner, the Tory leader in the Nova Scotia legislature, entertains views on the question of immigration which do not jibe with those recently expressed by Premier Fleming. In a speech in the legislature last week, Mr. Tanner said that "he agreed that the province should be made attractive to the people now in the province and then induce absent Nova Scotians to return. That he considered was a sound policy that was better than inducing new settlers to come in." Instead of offering ready-made farms to settlers let the government of this province direct its energies towards the repatriation of absent New Brunswickers. They are the people we want at the present time.

The Halifax Herald is the leading Conservative newspaper of the Maritime Provinces but it is not a hide-bound back organ. Here is the way it puts it up to the Borden government:—"We now have a government at Ottawa that can do things—if it wants to. It has proved the truth of this statement by its generous grant to St. John. We call upon that same government to do something for Halifax. This great, independent, political journal of the fireside, speaking for 1,000,000 readers, Grit and Tory, squarely puts this proposition up to Mr. Borden and his government. We ask for justice and fair play for our city and province and we are going to keep on demanding until we get it."

The proposal to offer the exhibition grounds and buildings to the Saint John & Quebec Railway Company as an inducement to locate the car-shops in this city, is one which seems to meet with hearty approval. The matter is one of great importance to the future of the city and must not be dealt with in a niggardly spirit. In these days of keen competition a community which gets something for nothing will as a rule get about what it pays for.

A correspondent wants to know how long it is necessary for a man to be a resident of Fredericton in order to possess the necessary qualifications to serve in the city council. If you are from a rural section of the Counties of York, Sunbury or Queens and are the possessor of $1000 worth of this world's goods over and above encumbrances, you are more than eligible. Go to it.

The Nationalists are still making all kinds of trouble for Premier Borden over the Manitoba boundaries bill. They threaten to bolt if their demands are not complied with. One thing sure they will not bolt to the Liberal camp as they were politely told some time that they were not wanted. If Premier Borden had any back bone he would call their bluff.

THE STOCK MARKET IS IN UNSETTLED CONDITION

(By direct private wire to J. C. Macintosh & Co., 204 Queen Street, Fredericton, N.B.)

New York, N.Y., Feb. 27.—The market opening was dull without material change in prices of active leaders. Outside of a few issues whose dividend outlook is not bright, suspension of distribution on Republic Steel and Iron, pfd., produced no effect, as it had been foreshadowed some time ago when intimations of the kind were given by Dow Jones & Co.

U. S. Steel and Reading opened unchanged, while Union Pacific and Amalgamated Copper were 1/4 up.
