Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry
Cured Him

Mrs. Fred Schoffp, Pennant, Sask., writes: "I used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry when my boy was not expected to live. We were 30 miles from a doctor when the little fellow took sick with diarrhoea. He at first would sleep all day, and at night would be in pain, and would have a passage every five or ten minutes. This went on day and night until he began to pass blood. I gave him the "Dr. Fowler's Extract" and after he had taken it for a short time he was relieved and up and playing with his toys, and is now as well as ever." There are a number of preparations on the market to-day, claiming the same curative powers as "Dr. Fowler's," and also called similar names, so as to fool the public into thinking they are getting the genuine. There is nothing that can take the place of "Dr. Fowler's." There is nothing "Just as Good." Price, 35 cents. The genuine bears the name of The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DR. SAENZ PEÑA

President of the Argentine Republic. Besides being a statesman of very superior ability, President Peña is a writer on many subjects, chiefly political topics.

A Royal Race

Among the fine old kings that reign Upon a simple wooden throne, There's one with but a small domain, Yet, mark you, it is all his own.

And though upon his rustic towers No ancient standard waves its wings, Thick, leafy banners flushed with flowers From all the fragrant casements swing.

And here, in royal homespun, bow His nut-brown Court at night and morn— The bronzed Field Marshal of the Plough, The Chancellor of the Wheat and Corn.

The Keeper of the Golden Stacks, The Mistress of the Milking Pail, The bold Knights of the Ringing Axe, The Heralds of the Sounding Flail.

The Ladies of the New-mown Hay, The Master of the Spade and Hoe, The Minstrels of the Glorious Lay, That all the Sons of Freedom know.

And thus, while on the seasons roll, He wins from the inspiring sod, The brawny arm and noble soul That serve his country and his God.

The writer of the above, James McCarroll, was an Irish journalist, who came from county Longford in 1831 and settled in Ontario.

Measured When Made

To save the use of a yardstick in stores some of the finer dry goods are being rolled at the mills with a sheet of paper on which measurements are printed between the layers of fabric.

Railways in Africa

With the completion of a new railroad in western Africa in the near future it will be possible to cross the Dark Continent from the Atlantic to the Indian ocean by rail and river routes.

SOME EXTRACTS FROM FLEMING'S EVIDENCE

Q.—Did you tell him to see Mr. Teed?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you tell him that you would see Mr. Teed?

A.—I don't say that I did not; I cannot say.

Q.—It is an important matter. You told Mr. Berry that he was not to take any part, surely you told him what he was to do.

A.—I cannot remember.

Q.—Did you tell Mr. Berry to tell Mr. Brankley that it would be all right?

A.—I don't remember.

Q.—Did you go to Mr. Teed?

A.—Yes; I told him what Mr. Berry told me and asked him to take charge of the fund if it was contributed.

Q.—Did you have any further conversation with Mr. Teed before you left Fredericton?

A.—Not that I remember.

Q.—How did Mr. Teed happen to be in your room that day?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Do you think Mr. Berry told him to be there?

A.—I suppose so.

Q.—Did you know that Mr. Berry sent for him?

A.—I cannot swear to it.

Q.—Didn't you know that Berry had sent for Teed?

A.—No.

Q.—And you think it possible that Berry brought Teed to the Barker House on this occasion and neither had ever spoken to you about it?

A.—I believe so.

Q.—Didn't Mr. Berry or Mr. Teed speak to you about it on this occasion?

Witness—If the counsel persists on examining me in this way I must refuse to answer.

Q.—Do you say you don't remember?

A.—I have no recollection.

Q.—Did you speak to Mr. Teed about it?

A.—Not that I know of.

Q.—You don't know whether on this important occasion you spoke of the matter to Mr. Teed or not?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Did you talk to Mr. Berry about it?

A.—I don't think so.

Q.—Did you know that Mr. Berry was coming on that day?

A.—I don't think so; I may have known.

Q.—Didn't you know?

A.—I am not sure.

Q.—Didn't Berry tell you he was coming?

A.—I could not swear that he did or did not.

THE INTRODUCTION.

Q.—When those two gentlemen came into your room, what did you mean by telling Mr. Brankley that anything this man would tell him would be all right?

A.—I had been told that Mr. Brankley would represent the lumbermen and I had designated Mr. Teed as the man to receive the money. I did not want to talk to either of them directly about it.

Mr. Carvell—Mr. Berry was an official of your department under your instructions?

A.—Yes, doing his duty.

Q.—Yes, and things that were not his duty as well?

A.—He did his duty very well, as the result shows.

Q.—Did you ever meet him in Fredericton?

A.—Yes, frequently.

Q.—After June 27, 1913?

A.—Yes.

Q.—After Teed told you of being in Chatham on that occasion?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did you ask him what he was doing in Chatham on that occasion?

A.—No.

T.—Did you ever ask him?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you ever talk to him after he took a hand in the collection of the money?

A.—No.

NOT REPRIMAND.

Q.—Did you ever reprimand him?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you ever threaten to discharge him?

A.—No.

Q.—Or to suspend him?

A.—No.

Q.—Well, will you swear that he disobeyed your orders?

A.—I could not swear that he did or not.

Q.—Go back to the time these charges were laid in the legislature. Do you know anything of a document having been drawn up to be signed by Mr. Berry that there was no truth in the charges and no foundation for them? Did you know that such a document was to be drawn up?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you know that Mr. Berry had been asked to sign such a document and do you know that such a document is in existence unsigned?

Witness asked permission to speak to his counsel and was permitted, and he then replied:

"I will not say I did not know, but I was told so by one of the counsel in the case."

Q.—Were you told by Mr. Berry?

A.—No.

Q.—Did he say he had been asked to sign this document?

A.—I am not very positive about that. He was in Fredericton at the time and he came to my room next day and we talked about the charges and he mentioned to me that he would be prepared to make an affidavit or a declaration, a sworn declaration in regard to the charges that they were not true. He seemed to have the impression at that time that if he did so it would be sufficient.

Q.—Did he mention Mr. Brankley's name?

A.—I don't remember.

Q.—Anyway, that if he denied and Mr. Brankley denied, you would get through without a committee?

A.—That is what he said to me.

Q.—Did not you know that the document was drawn up?

A.—I didn't know.

Q.—Do you know that Mr. Berry refused to sign?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Do you know where the document is?

A.—I don't know about it.

Q.—Have you heard that it is in the hands of his solicitor in St. Stephen?

A.—No, I never heard that before.

Q.—Did you talk about this document on your trip from McAdam to St. Stephen with him on June 3 last?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you know of a document that was signed by Mr. Berry?

A.—That is a pretty broad question?

Q.—Regarding the truth or otherwise of these matters?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you know anything of a statement by Mr. Brankley that there was no truth in the charges?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you hear on Tuesday, April 7, that Mr. Brankley had made a statement that there was no truth in these charges?

A.—I think I did. I think I heard that Mr. Brankley had been talking about it and had expressed the opinion that the charges were not true, but I don't know that there was a document or that he signed it.

Q.—Did you hear of it in the form of a newspaper interview?

A.—I think there was something published in The Gleaner.

Q.—No, it did not get into The Gleaner. It got into The Gleaner office but not into the newspaper.

A.—Speaking from memory I think there was something of Mr. Brankley being in the city and—

Q.—Did you hear that Mr. Brankley demanded the statement back from the persons?

A.—I never heard of it.

Q.—You never heard that he got the statement back before he went to bed that night and that Mr. Brankley had prepared a statement?

A.—No.

Q.—Did he suggest to you that you prepare a statement for the legislature and did you agree?

A.—I did not agree or disagree. He suggested it in conversation and he was in and out several times.

Q.—Did you agree to that or not?

A.—To prepare a statement?

Q.—Yes.

A.—I don't know that we made any agreement. The matter was talked over. He did not ask me to prepare a statement but I don't remember—

Q.—Did he say he would or not?

A.—He expressed himself as ready to prepare a statement that the charges were not correct.

Q.—And was that not prepared?

A.—I don't know.

WHY DENIAL WAS DELAYED.

Z.—This brings me back to the other point. Why did not you make an announcement in the legislature that there was no truth in the charges?

A.—I was going upon the impression that the proper time to refer to it and to deal with it was the Thursday after it came up. Had it not been for that I should have referred to it.

Q.—You don't think that under the rules of the legislature you had the legal right to refer to it before the Thursday?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you now think you had not?

A.—I do not know.

Q.—You still persist in saying that you did not know the rule of the house on that subject?

A.—I do not know that under a question of privilege it is different from the ordinary.

The royal commission adjourned at this point until Monday at two o'clock.
