CROSS OR FEVERISH HALF-SICK CHILDREN

Mean Their Bowels are Waste-Clogged; Liver Sluggish and Stomach Sour

Your child isn't naturally cross, irritable and peevish, Mother! Examining the tongue; if coated, it means the little one's stomach is disordered, liver inactive and its thirty feet of bowels clogged with foul, decaying waste.

Every mother realizes after giving delicious "Syrup of Figs" that this is the ideal laxative and physic for children. Nothing else regulates the little one's tender stomach, liver and bowels so effectively, besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

For constipated bowels, sluggish, liver, biliousness, or sour, disordered stomach, feverishness, diarrhoea, sore throat, bad breath or to break a cold, give one-half of a teaspoonful of "Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, sour bile, undigested food and constipated matter will gently move on and out of the system without griping or nausea and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

SUNBURY COUNTRY ROADS IN WRETCHED CONDITION

Highway Between McGowan's Wharf and Lakeville Corner Reported to be Dangerous--No Repairs made For Some Time

A well known man from Lakeville Corner, Sunbury County, had a long talk with the representative of The Daily Mail on Saturday afternoon, in reference to the roads. He said that he never saw the roads in such a dreadful and disgraceful condition as they are present.

The main road between McGowan's wharf and Lakeville Corner is not only disgraceful but dangerous. Although there is a tremendous traffic over it, it is not safe to drive over.
The other day while driving through, this man had to tie a barrel of flour on the team, in order to keep it from falling off and the horses were compelled to walk the entire distance.
There has been nothing done in the way of repairs on the road for a long time. The question which is causing a great deal of talk is where has the money intended for this purpose gone to? It is the fault of the so called new Highway Bill or the Tory leaders who are supposed to look after the public roads of the province? If some work is not done on this piece of road it is only a matter of a short time when it will be impossible to drive over it. As it is now a person is running the risk of his life to go any place on this particular part of the highway. It is not only in this section that these very same draw backs are met with, but the roads in all parts of the Province are nearly as bad, especially where there is much traffic.
The Gibson-St. Mary's roads are an example. They have been neglected so long that it will take a large amount of money now to repair them.

CASE AGAINST LIBERAL LAWYERS COLLAPSED

(Manitoba Free Press, Oct. 28.)

As quickly and as easily as the proverbial house of cards, the charges of Magistrate McMicken against two prominent barristers of Winnipeg were toppled over in the city police court on Saturday afternoon.

Without calling on a single witness for the defence, the charge of assault against E. J. McMurray was withdrawn by the counsel for the magistrate, J. E. O'Connor, K.C.

for the defence Magistrate Macdonald dismissed the charge of theft against Walter H. Trueman, after Mr. O'Connor had pressed the charge.

After hearing several witnesses for the defence, but not all, Magistrate Macdonald said that he dismissed the charge of assault against Walter H.
Trueman.

In doing so the city magistrate said that the charge which was averred to be proved was of such a light, trivial and technical nature that it was not worth consideration.
But at the same time it was disproved not only by witnesses for the defence, but by witnesses for the prosecution.

HOW THE CASE AROSE.

The case arose from the events which transpired in the provincial police court on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 19, when W. H. Trueman appeared in the police court with his client, J. J. Sullivan, asking regarding the standing of the case instituted against Sullivan when he was arrested during the recent Macdonald election at Carman. The magistrate said that the case was over, but handed the information against Sullivan to Mr. Trueman.
Mr. Trueman was inspecting the document when it was demanded back by the magistrate, who also tried to take it by force. Mr. Trueman said that as this was the first time he had seen the document he wished to make a copy. Then followed the trouble during which the magistrate with assistance from Constable David Brown and the C.P.R. and Automobile Inspector McNamara, took the paper from Mr. Trueman after a scuffle. The magistrate after the scene ordered the detention of Mr.
Trueman and E. J. McMurray, who was also present in the court. He had information laid against the former for assault and theft of a court document and against the latter for assault. The two were then allowed to go on bail in their own recognizance, the information being laid before Charles Forrester, a newly appointed justice of the peace.

THE INDIFFERENT CONSTABLE.

The case against the two barristers was given away right from the start when Constable John Part of the provincial police force, said that he was present in the court at the time and that he had not seen fit to use any violence or force on either of the barristers. He also said that he did not think that Mr. Trueman ever intended to leave the court with the document. He said that he saw no blow struck by Mr. Trueman or Mr.
McMurray on the magistrate and could not tell of any assault. He provoked laughter by his statement that he was merely waiting till the wrath of the magistrate cooled down and he saw no damage being done.

Only one witness stated that Mr.
Trueman laid hold of the arms of the magistrate and this was denied by six or seven others who said that this could not have taken place without their having seen it. The two who said Mr. Trueman laid hold of the arms of the magistrate were Constable Brown of the C.P.R., and Constable McNamara, who acts as automobile inspector. No one else admitted having seen anything of the kind.

MANY ADMISSIONS MADE.

Every witness who took the stand, both for prosecution and defence, admitted that Magistrate McMicken used violent and abusive and obnoxi-ous language toward Mr. Trueman and Mr. McMurray.

Every one admitted that Mr. Trueman made no attempt to leave the court with the documents and said that he merely wished to make a copy.

Every witness admitted that the magistrate was the first to use violence and started the fracas.

Several said that the only person who was in reality assaulted was Mr. Trueman and that Constable Brown acted toward him with much brutality, using the knuckle act on his hand. Brown denied this.

Several stated that Mr. Trueman was much provoked by the magistrate but that he took no aggressive part and acted with much calmness and restraint throughout. He showed all the respect due the years of the magistrate, but not that due his language and attitude. The former was shameful while the latter was most threatening.

McMICKEN NOT PRESENT.

Magistrate McMicken did not appear himself in the court during the hearing of the case and though his name was shouted through the corridors at the start of the hearing there was no response. Mr. Trueman objected to the absence of the accuser, saying that in all cases the accuser should be present in the court to face the man he accused. He said, however, that he wished to go on with the case but he would have his objection noted to the non-appearance of the plaintiff.

After the charge against him had been dismissed, E. J. McMurray asked leave to make a statement and said that he had been subjected to a most vile accusation of assault by the magistrate. He had all the respect due to a man of the years of Magistrate McMicken. He had while in the court been acting in the capacity of peacemaker more than anything else. He therefore, thought that the charge against him was all the more malicious and vile. He thought it arose from an action which was pending against the magistrate in the court of appeal in which he and Mr.
Trueman had a share.

There was a large crowd present during the hearing of the case and the evidence was followed with much interest by all present. At the close Mr. Trueman and Mr. McMurray were warmly congratulated by their friends on their honorable acquittal in an open court where all that was possible to be said was heard and borne testimony to from every point of view.

CONSCIENCE MONEY

Mr. F. E. Whelpley, cashier of the I.C.R., has received $100 as conscience money. This is the first sum received this year, but there are quite a few sums received ranging from $1 to $100, as conscience money from various persons.

Mrs. A. M. Rowan and Mrs. W. H.
Shaw of St. John are guests at the Queen.

AT LAST, HE IS FREE OF LUMBAGO

Because He Took GIN PILLS

Winnipeg, Jan. 6th.

"I have been a sufferer from Lumbago for some years past and during Christmas week had a very acute attack which confined me to the house. About the latter part of April, I met your Mr. Hill and mentioned my complaint to him.
He advised me to take GIN PILLS. I have been taking them at intervals during the early part of the present winter, and up to date have had no return of my old trouble—in fact, I feel better than I have for years and think that my old enemy has vanished for good and all."

H. A. JUKES.

GIN PILLS will protect your kidneys and bladder against the ravages of winter. No matter how much you may dread cold weather, because you have been subject to Rheumatism or Lumbago, you will be free of pain if you take GIN PILLS.

ANSWER TO, "GARDENS ON THE C.P.R."

You may sing praise of Aroostook of its gardens and its lands, Of its hills and plains and valleys That from point to point expand.
No matter how pretty your gardens may be

To excite admiration and talk, There may be as pretty a rose today In a garden at Pokioik.

Though our friends go to Aroostook You must always bear in mind, That they have a little longing For the place that's left behind.
They may be engaged in study Spending time in bonds and stock Yet they spend an idle moment Just to think of Pokioik.

The west may get out stalwart sons That are proud to die for their land And Aroostook too may yet be proud Of many a loyal band.

But no braver they I'm glad to say Than our men with hand on the stock Who will give their life and join the strife

Such are the men of Pokioik.

Here in by gone days those swarthy hunters

Caught the deer upon the hill,
And their evening chants together Chorus'd with each little rill.
And in treachery and blindness Ambushed by a tree or rock, Shot down each Canadian For their own fair Pokioik.

Our valley's wide our hills are here Each river and each stream, For which each clanish Indian died Before the blue steel's gleam.
Then why should we now be ashamed Beside its streams to walk, Where these noble sires bravely fell For our fair land at Pokioik.

While here in summer evenings 'Neath the pine tree's welcome shade Sits the lover and beside him Sits the blushing little maid.
All the words of love are spoken There no vain and idle talk Such as scarce the sweet voiced singers

From their haunts at Pokioik.

Oh east is east and west is west And every man here knows, There is pleasure and joy in living Where the St. John Valley flows.
And this ends my recitation And I now will leave the block Giving you a hearty invitation Come and call at Pokioik.
