HAZEN MAY RUN FOR YORK-SUNBURY IN NEXT ELECTION

Minister of Marine and Fisheries Now Feeling His May in the Matter--- Here Last Evening---Many Interviews

Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of railways, arrived in the city last evening and registered at the Barker House. A tip that he was coming had gone out and a number of Tory politicians and grafters were around to extend him the glad hand. Among those who conferred with him were Atty. Gen. General Clarke, Col. McLeod, M.P.; Titus J. Carter, M.P.P.; P. A. Guthrie, M.P.P.; Hon. J. E. Wilson, Hon. J. A. Murray and several others. "What are we going to do about it," seems to be the burden of the song of the delegation. The minister was very smooth and affable as usual, but it was quite plain to the casual observer that he was not in a happy frame of mind. Before leaving he is said to have arrived at the conclusion that the outlook for
