ODD THINGS ON TRAINS

Royal Autographs Are to be Seen on a Danish Car Window

On a mountain railway near Salzburg a railway carriage is actually fitted with a balloon. At the mountain top a tank below the car is filled with water, sufficient to counteract the upward pull of the gas bag, which the vehicle thus drags down with it upon the return journey.

Trains are frequently put to odd uses. The window of a railway saloon in Denmark forms a royal autograph album. Royal visitors scratch their names on one of the panes which now shows, among other Royal autographs, those of King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

The vestibule to the train belonging to the German Emperor holds several fine statues, the car belonging to the Viceroy of India is roofed with water tanks, which contribute towards coolness, and furnish water for domestic purposes on the train. Russia's important trains carry a car, above which rises a little belfry containing a chime of bells.

NERVILINE ENDS NEURALGIA
BRINGS RELIEF INSTANTLYNo Remedy Like Old "Nerviline" to Cure Pain or Soreness

That terrible ache—how you fairly reel with it—that stabbing, burning, neuralgia—what misery it causes. Never mind, you don't have to suffer—use Nerviline, it's a sure cure. Not an experiment, because nearly forty years of wonderful success has made a name for Nerviline among the people of many different nations. "There is nothing speedier to end Neuralgia headache than old-time 'Nerviline,'" writes Mr. G. C. Dalgleish, from Evanston. "It is so powerful and penetrating that it seems to eat up any pain in a minute. My family couldn't get along without Nerviline. We always keep the 50c family size bottle handy on the shelf, and use it to end chest colds, sore throat, coughs, earache, toothache and pain in the back. My wife swears by Nerviline. For its effect is astonishing and we believe it is better and speedier than any other household family remedy."

J. B. LEARMONT DEAD
AFTER OPERATION

(Montreal Mail.)

After rallying from a severe operation which he underwent at the General Hospital on Wednesday morning, Mr. Joseph Bowles Learmont, died yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, in his seventy-first year. Mr. Learmont was senior member of the firm of Caverhill, Learmont and Co., wholesale hardware merchants, on St. Peter Street, and was noted for his literary tastes having frequently lectured on literary and historical subjects. He was an early member of the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society, a collector of rare books and graph letters. Among the offices he held, medals, engravings and autographs, with great credit were: member of the committee of management of the Montreal General Hospital, member of the Board of Trade (for two years a councillor) member of the board of governors of the Victorian Order of Nurses, Montreal branch, director of the Charity Organization, member of the executive committee of the Lord's Day Alliance, treasurer of the Art Association, and councillor and treasurer of the local branch of the Archaeological Institute of America. As an author he was responsible for a paper on "Folk Lore," including Canadian folk lore, and for a paper "The Canadian Indian." A staunch Congregationalist, he was a member of Emmanuel Church on Drummond Street. He was a member of the St. James Club, the Mount Royal Club, the Montreal Club and the City Club. His employees regret the loss of a sympathetic and kindly employer, it being his policy to take every interest in their welfare.

TRUTH ABOUT CANADA

No Trouble Finding a Job "When Y Ken Y'r Business"

"I am going to close this letter with an example worth while," wrote an Englishman to his cousin in Canada. "I met a young Scotsman named Wilkie, hailing from Glasgow, the other day. Wilkie heard a lecture on Canada at the C.P.R. moving-picture show at the Glasgow Exhibition and became fired with Western fever. He landed in Winnipeg without a friend and with very little money. He had been in a piano house at home. Arrived, he applied at the McLean Piano Company on Portage Avenue. 'What salary do you want?' said the manager. 'It's work I'm thinking about, maister!' says the Scot. Within an hour he was ripping up an old tin-piano which had lost most of its heart and lost of its tone as well. But Wilkie went at the old rattle bang-thing in a way that showed he knew his business, and to be brief he stayed with McLean and Company one year. Then he saw that the mechanical piano was coming to the fore, but knowing nothing of the 'insards' of the machine, he took some of the money he had saved, went to Toronto, was engaged by a piano machine factory, worked there six months, went back to Winnipeg, found his place filled at Mac's, walked into Lindsay's piano house, and was taken on at an advance of five dollars per week over and above what he had been getting. In Wilkie's own words: 'My sister came out then, she got work at the big Massey-Harris house, office work, with good pay. We took a comfortable flat, we live there happy and contented; we have a fine piano and we'll be glad to have ye' call on us.' 'How does the pay for work compare with he Glasgow pay, Wilkie?' I asked. 'It's juist double,' he says. 'And how do you compare living?' says I. 'You pay more for luxuries!' says Wilkie, 'but otherwise I am thinkin' it's juist as cheap livin' in Canada, as anywhere else, an' I said he meanin'ly, 'there's no trouble about findin' a job when y' ken y'r business!'"

"Wilkie," says I, "can I tell you story to a newspaper?" "Aye," he said, "some of the Glasgow folk'll know me fine."

::: SPORTS OF ALL KINDS :::

In Covalleskie, Williams and Cavet, Manager Jennings of the Tigers, believes he has a trio from which a dependable southpaw pitcher will be developed.

The Brooklyn Nationals have re-earned Pitcher Herbert to the Toronto Club of the International League. He was drafted by the Superbas last fall.

After giving "Rabbit" Maranville the "once over" Johnny Evers declared that the Braves' shortstop is destined to be one of the greatest performers in baseball.

Manager Jack Hayden of the Louisville Colonels, will take a team of fourteen Clats AA players to Cuba immediately after the close of the championship season.

At the age of twenty-five Walter Johnson is the veteran pitcher of the Washington team. Doehring, Engel and Gallia, the other heavies, are barely out of their teens.

Arthur Davlin, former New York-Boston infielder and now manager of the Oakland Pacific Coast League team, has decided to play third base for his team this year.

The Philadelphia world's champions have sixteen pitchers under contract. It's a cinch that several of these fingers will never perform for the Mackmen.

The Chicago White Sox have knocked off training at Paso Robles, Cal., and started for home. The regulars are in charge of Kid Gleason, while Billy Sullivan is piloting the Number Two show.

Larry LaJoie, who has been detained in Florida several weeks by this illness of his wife, has joined the Cleveland Naps at Athens, Ga. The great second-sacker looks to be in tip-top condition.

Pitcher Gaddy, who is showing considerable speed, is the only southpaw with the Phillies at the present time. Eppa Rixey, the Phils' star left-hander, will not report until June.

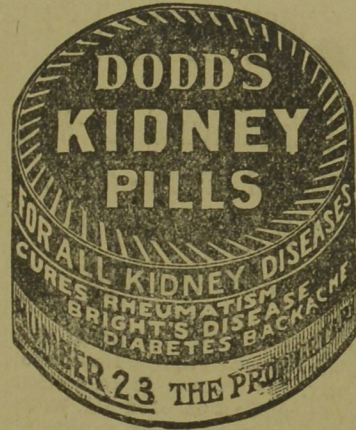

Miller Huggins, manager of the Cardinals, is tackling a big job in trying to develop a new infield. The outlook is far from bright, with Konech and Mourey gone and Hauser unable to play.

There may be two Class B championship series next fall. The Eastern Association and New England League have arranged a post-season series and the New York State League will probably meet the Canadian League in a similar series.

Manager "Lefty" Davis of the Winona team, is up against it in trying to sign his players. Davis won the Northern League pennant last season and now every man on the team is holding out for what "Lefty" calls a big league salary.

Jimmy Clabby and Billy Murray have been matched to box in San Francisco on April 2.

The Largest Chrysanthemum

There seems to be almost no limit to the size of fruit and flowers that plant-breeders can produce. They have doubled or trebled the size of some of the common vegetables, and many of the flowers that fill the florists' shops, but in no case, perhaps, have they accomplished more remarkable results than in that of the chrysanthemum. By removing all the flower-buds except the terminal they have produced the large globular heads with which we are all familiar. A French amateur succeeded in winning a prize for the largest chrysanthemum, with a flower that measured more than 64 inches in circumference. That is many times the size of the original flowerhead. What will happen when the same methods are applied to tomatoes, cherries and other fruits and vegetables?—Horticulture.

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance; but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
