Chicago in Line for Three Pennant Teams

TWENTY-ONE
INNING GAME
AT PITTSBURG

Giants Won 3 to 1 on Doyle's Home Run--A Great Battle of Pitchers

Pittsburg, July 17.—Berchers single and a home run by Doyle gave New York a 3 to 1 victory in at twenty one-inning pitcher's duel between Marquard and Adams today. From the close of the third inning until the opening of the twenty-first neither team was able to score, so effective was the pitching. Sharp fielding characterized the work of both sides. The work of Buras, Fletcher, Kelly and Mowery was brilliant.

In the first inning Burns hit a three-bagger when two were out. He did not score. In their half the Pirates scored their only run when Mensor was hit by the first ball pitched by Marquard, went to second on Mowery's sacrifice and scored on a three base hit by Wagner. The visitors tied the score in the third on singles by Bescher and Doyle and Burns' out. During the next seventeen innings

For the first time in several years Owner Bob Hedges of the St. Louis Browns is making the Easter trip with his team. In former years Hedges was afraid to take any chances by traveling with the Browns. Their ball playing was apt to cause some stranger to shoot the whole outfit.

It is said Marsans' Federal league contract called for $6,000 a year for three years. The sum of $9,000 or half the full amount, has already been paid to the Cuban.

Unless John McGraw's pitchers tighten up pretty soon we fear the Giants will not be able to spend any world's series money this year.

Record of 1906 May be Surpassed if Chifeds Keep up Their Work--White Sox and Cubs in Good Position at Present Time--Three Noted "Come-Backs" in Cree, Derrick and Kirke

Chicago, Ill., July 18.—Three baseball teams belonging to one city and all three in the thick of the pennant battles in their respective leagues. That's the situation in Chicago today. With the Cubs, the White Sox and the Chifeds all "up there," it is not to be wondered that the Chicago fans are staying awake nights, dazzled by the prospect of three championships falling to their city.

It was back in 1906 that Chicago established a record in the pennant winning line. In that year the Cubs and the White Sox capped the flags in their respective leagues and later met in the world's championship series. No other city has ever won two pennants in one season. Now there appears at least a chance that Chicago may boost her own record by closing the present season with three flag winners.

A month ago neither the Sox nor the Cubs were figured as a formidable contender for championship honors, while Joe Tinker's Federal Leaguers were rated as having only an outside chance to bring home the bacon. But about that time each of the teams started a winning streak, with the result that all three now see the winning in sight.

SOX THE BEST.

Of the three teams, the White Sox have been doing the best work, considering the material at hand. Outside of the pitching staff the Callahan crew started the season with every appearance of being a weak aggregation. The desertion of Harry Lord, followed a little later by Hal Chase's jump to the Federals, made the team look weaker than ever. It was freely predicted that the Sox would drop out of sight by the Fourth of July. But, contrary to expectation, the team took a decided brace and started their sensational climb. With "Big Ed" Walsh in a condition to pitch, the Sox now look to be a mighty hard team to beat out for the American League pennant.

CUBS WEAK IN BOX.

In direct contrast to the early season work of the White Sox, the weakness of the Cubs' game was found in the pitcher's box. The team put up a good game in the field and at bat, but the pitchers were not yet right. It took considerable time to round out the twirling staff, but when the slappers once caught the step the team started up the grade at a speedy clip.

The New York Giants look to be the team that the Cubs will have to beat out in the race for the National League championship. Whether the Chicagoans will be able to take the measure of McGraw's men is a question, but it's a sure bet that with a large slice of world's series coin staring them in the face every member of Hank O'Day's pastimers will play his head off to win.

"BABY" LOOKS GOOD.

The Chifeds, the "baby" of Chicago's baseball family, are setting the hottest kind of a pace in the Federal League. A short time ago Baltimore looked to have the Fed pennant cinched, but just when the race became good and hot the Terrapins cracked and the Indianapolis Hoosiers jumped into first place. After a few days at the top the Hoosiers were ousted from first place by the Chifeds and it is now up to the Tinkrites to stick around and hold their own until the curtain drops in October.

One disconcerting feature of the Chifeds' triumph (if they do any triumph stuff) is the fact that they will be unable to declare themselves in on a share of the world's series money. The National and American League pennant winners will take good care of the coin that comes from the big series. Still, the Fed moguls may fatten up the bank roll of their winning team, which would help some.

COME BACKS.

"Eddie" Cree, Claude Derrick and Jav Kirke are three of the most sensational "come backs" of the season. When this trio was cast adrift by major league clubs little or no attention was given to their fate. They had dropped out of the fast set and were headed for the minors. But now it's a different story. All three accomplished wonders with the teams to which they were sent and now they are back in the big yard again.

The New York Americans sold Cree to the Baltimore Orioles for $2,500, and gladly paid $5,000 to get him back. While with Baltimore Cree led the International League batsmen with an average of .353. Claude Derrick also was shipped to Baltimore by the Athletics, who figured that he was through in the big show. Derrick did great work in the field for

PETS PRESS IMPERIALS HARD IN LOCAL LEAGUE

Leaders Lost to Blues Last Night--
Score was 5 to 4--Melrose
Pitched Well

The Pets beat the Imperials five to four in a six-inning game last night and now are right on the heels of the league leaders. The game was the most interesting yet played and attracted quite a crowd. The Pets' heavy hitting against Melrose and the pitching of Bob Melrose, who went the whole route for the Pets, were the features of the game.

The baseball played in the early innings of the game made it look as if an errorless game would be played but both teams had misplays later on. The fans supporting the two teams were out in force and there was lots of routing. The Imps took a hand in the second inning when they scored two runs. In the fourth with the score three to two against them, the Pets came across with two more and took the lead. In the fifth the Imps scored, making the tally five to four. With one man on second, "Dudley" Coy went in as a forlorn hope, batting for Robinson. He failed to connect however, striking out.
