

THE KAISER BEHIND

HIS SCHEDULE

Paris, Aug. 13.—Commenting on the schedule found on German prisoners, showing that they are expected to reach Lille on Aug. 5, and Paris on Aug. 11, the Matin says that one letter was discovered which refers to an invitation by Emperor William to his staff to dine tonight (Aug. 13), at a well known Paris restaurant. The Matin adds: "We are afraid the dinner will be cold before they get here."

The Matin further emphasizes German miscalculations by giving details of the heroic conduct of Belgians on the battlefield. It emphasizes Trooper Bogartets, of the Third Lancers, who has already personally captured fourteen prisoners and killed three Uhlans, being himself un wounded.

At Tirelemont, a Belgian gennarm alone captured three dismounted Uhlans who, dropping their carbines, surrendered. The majority of German prisoners immediately demanded food, admitting that the commissariat service is very faulty.

ARTILLERY GO FIRST

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—Canadian troops in Canada's expeditionary army who go to the front will all be provided with the mark three Canadian Ross Rifle, declared by military experts here to be the latest and best military arm in the world. The department has enough of these rifles now available to give to each one of the twenty-five thousand men who will be assembled at Valcartier. Military units which have not already been supplied with this latest government rifle will be furnished with it on arrival at Valcartier.

Rush orders for additional rifles have been placed with the Ross Rifle Company, and in the event of a second or even third contingent, being sent abroad, there will be a sufficient supply on hand to meet all needs.

According to the reports of the enrolling officers throughout Canada, western Canada seems to be setting the pace for the rest of the dominion and the type of men who are offering are of the very best. It is probable that the number to be taken from western Canada will be somewhat larger than was originally intended.

The troops are to be given clothing, and equipment for a campaign of at least five or six months, and winter clothing will be sent along with the transports.

ROME, AUG. 12.—The Message says that the Italian ambassador to America who is in Rome has been instructed to start immediately for Washington respecting the offer of President Wilson to use his good offices is certainly one of the most disagreeable ailments which flesh is heir to. Coated tongue—bitter taste in the mouth—nausea—dizziness—these combine to make life a burden. The cause is a disordered liver—the cure Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They go straight to the root of the trouble, put the liver right, cleanse the stomach and bowels, clear the tongue and take away the bitter taste from the mouth. #### FORMALITY.

Biliousness

If there is one thing that a commercial traveller dislikes more than another it is elaborate ceremony; and if the spirit of his profession is in him he generally finds some way to let his prejudices be known. One evening a travelling salesman from Cincinnati happened to sit down at a hotel table in company with half a dozen state legislators, who talked with excessive formality.

It was "Will the gentleman from Harbin do this?" and "Does the gentleman from Franklin want that?" the ordinary form of direct address being carefully eschewed. For nearly ten minutes the commercial traveller suffered in silence. Then he turned to the waiter and said in deep, oratorical tones:

"Will the gentleman from Ethiopia please pass the butter?"

The remedy was effectual.—The Arsonaut.

New York, Aug. 13.—Bankers and Chamber of Commerce have recommended to Treasury Office at Washington that Federal Reserve law be amended to allow the National Banks to carry for a limited time bank notes as part of their reserve. Such an amendment would allow use of a part of gold now tied up in reserve to meet obligations of United States.

AMPHION'S CRUISE

SHORT BUT LIVELY

London, Aug. 10.—A Harwich despatch says that the survivors of the British cruiser Amphion, which was blown up by a German mine, say that hardly had the ship left Harwich when they were ordered to clear the decks for action. They had sighted the Koenigin Luise, the mine-laying ship, and, as she refused to stop, even when a shot was fired across her bows they gave chase. The German ship fired and then the destroyers surrounded her and sank her after a brief combined bombardment.

The captain of the Koenigin Luise was beside himself with fury. He had a revolver in his hand and threatened his men as they prepared to surrender to the rescuing ships. He flatly refused to give himself up and was taken by force. He could not control himself and as he was being taken away from here to the military prison he flung his bundle into the picket boat with a gesture of angry defiance. His men, on the contrary, appeared to be quite contented and laughed, chatted and smoked whenever they got a chance and betrayed eager interest in all things English.

THE AMPHION OFF AGAIN.

Then the smoke of a big ship was seen on the horizon and the Amphion gave chase, firing a warning shot as she drew near the vessel, which made known her identity as the Harwich boat, St. Petersburg, carrying Prince Lichnowsky, the German ambassador, to the Hook, Holland.

While returning to port came the tragedy to the Amphion. As she struck the sunken mine she gave two plunging jerks, then came an explosion which ripped up her fore-part, shot up her funnels like arrows from a bow and lifted her heavy guns into the air. The falling material struck several of the boats of the flotilla and injured some of the men aboard them. The Amphion's survivors are dreadfully burned and scalded and have marks on their faces and bodies which resemble splashes of acid.

IF!

This poem has been called by Albert Hubbard "The biggest and best thing in a literary way America has produced in a decade." Robert Underwood Johnson calls it "admirably written" and says "It has the war question in a nutshell."

By Bartholomew F. Griffin in The Boston New Bureau.

Suppose 'twere done!
The lanyard pulled on every shotted
gun;

Into the wheeling death-clutch sent
Each millioned armament,
To grapple there
On land, on sea and under, and in air!

Suppose, at last, 'twere come—
Now, while each bourse and shop and mill is dumb,
And arsenals and dockyards hum—
Now, all complete, supreme,
That vast, Satanic dream!

Each field were trampled, soaked,
Each stream dyed, choked,
Each leaguered city and blockaded
port

Mgde famine's sport;
The empty wave
Made reeling dreadnought's grave;
Cathedral, castle, gallery, smoking
fell

'Neath bomb and shell;
In deathlike trance
Lay industry, finance;
Two thousand years'
Bequest, achievement, saving, disappears

In deathlike trance
In widowed woe
That slum and palace equal know,
In civilization's suicide,—
What served thereby, what satisfied?
For justice, freedom, right, what wrought?

Naught!—
Save, after the great cataclysm, perhaps

On the world's shaken map
New lines, more near or far,
Binding to king or czar
In festering hate

Some newly vassal state;
And passion, lust and pride, more
satiated;
And just a trace
Of lingering exile on Satan's face!

POOR HORSE.

Sandy McNab had the reputation of being a canny man in trade. In fact he was "gey cautious." He once sold a gentleman of little experience a horse which was described as being "perfectly without faults." Next day the buyer came back in high dudgeon. He had found the horse blind of an eye. "You said this horse was faultless," he roared. "Look at him—look at that eye!"

How She Compels Others to Obey Her Will

100,000 COPIES OF REMARKABLE BOOK DESCRIBING PECULIAR PSYCHIC POWERS TO BE DISTRIBUTED POST FREE TO READERS OF 'THE FREDERICTON MAIL.'

"The wonderful power of Personal Influence, Magnetism, Fascination, Mind Control, call it what you will, can surely be acquired by everyone no matter how unattractive or unsuccessful," says Mr. Elmer Ellsworth Knowles, author of the new book entitled: "The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces."

The book lays bare many astounding facts concerning the practices of the Eastern Yogis, and describes a simple though effective system of controlling the thoughts and acts of others; how one may gain the love and friendship of those who might otherwise remain indifferent; how to quickly and accurately judge the character and disposition of an individual; how to cure the most obstinate diseases and habits without drugs or medicines; even the complex subject of projecting thoughts (telepathy) is explained. Miss Josephine Davis, the popular stage favourite, whose portrait appears herewith, declares that Prof. Knowles' book opens the door to success, health and happiness in every mortal, no matter what his or her position in life. She believes that Prof. Knowles has discovered principles which, if universally adopted, will revolutionise the mental status of the human race.

The book, which is being distributed broadcast free of charge, is full of photographic reproductions showing how these unseen forces are being used all over the world, and how thousands upon thousands have developed powers which they little dreamed they possessed. The free distribution of the 100,000 copies is being conducted by a large London institution, and a copy will be sent post free to anyone interested. No money need be sent, but those who wish to do so may enclose 5 cents (stamps of your own country) to cover postage etc. All requests for the free book should be addressed to: National Institute of Sciences, Free Distribution Dept. 1532 B., No. 258 Westminster Bridge Road, London, S. E., England. Simply say you would like a copy of "The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces," and mention The Fredericton Mail.

PERSISTENCY IN ADVERTISING

One stroke of a bell in a thick fog does not give a lasting impression of its location, but when followed by repeated strokes at regular intervals the densest fog, the darkest night can not long conceal its whereabouts. Likewise a single insertion of an advertisement—as compared with regular and systematic ADVERTISING—is in its effect not unlike a sound which, heard but faintly once is lost in space and soon forgot—Printing Art.

Breakdown Caused by Tea and Coffee

"I am satisfied," says a prominent physician, that coffee is responsible in a great degree for the premature breakdown of our active men and women.

"They suffer from caffeine poisoning.

"Of the truth of this there is not the shadow of a doubt. Our common sense tells us that the daily swallowing of caffeine" (the alkaloid in tea and coffee), "powerfully effecting heart and brain—is followed by nervous depression, and finally by more or less disastrous results.

"I believe if people in general would use a harmless, nutritious drink like Postum as a beverage in place of tea and coffee their physical and mental condition would be much improved."

Thousands, troubled with nervousness, biliousness, sleeplessness, headache and heart flutter, have done precisely what this physician advises—given up tea and coffee and adopted—
