

THE ONLY CURE FOR CONSTIPATION

Is "Fruit-a-lives"—That Wonderful Remedy Made From Fruit Juices.

AVON, ONT., MAY 14th, 1913.
"I have used 'Fruit-a-lives' for indigestion and constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. When I first started about six years ago to use them, I took four at a dose but gradually reduced the dose to one tablet at night. Before taking 'Fruit-a-lives', I took salts and other pills but the treatment was too harsh. I thought I might as well suffer from the illness as from these treatments. Finally, I saw 'Fruit-a-lives' advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them, and I have no hesitation in recommending them."
ANNIE E. CORBETT.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

A SMOKESTACK

DUMMY "SLAIN"

Amiens, France, Nov. 30.—A factory chimney of which there are many in northern France, makes an excellent observation post. There was one near Albert, which aided the French for several days. A captain climbed to the top, whence with a telephone he effectively directed the fire of the French batteries. The Germans probably saw the officer for they began to fire at the chimney. The first day they aimed about twenty shells at it with out result, for it is not easy to hit such a thin mark five or six kilometers (three to three and three-fifths miles) away.

The captain was ordered to descend but before doing so he installed in his place a life-size dummy with a gold embroidered cap. By the aid of a cord this dummy could be made to appear at will. The game caused much pleasure to the French troops for two days. Each time a German shell missed the chimney the dummy would appear in the summit as if to chaff the "Boches," but finally a shell struck the chimney squarely and the dummy perished among the brick.

The artillerist who told me this story was very tired a few nights ago and went to sleep with three comrades on top of a hayrick. There were three other men sleeping in another hayrick alongside. In the morning to see the three men in the second hayrick alongside. In the morning this artillerist was greatly surprised and burst and killed three near neighbors, but the men in the first hayrick were so tired and so accustomed to the sound of explosions that they had not been awakened.

FRANCE ISSUES

YELLOW BOOK

Paris, France, Nov. 30.—The French foreign office today gave out a yellow book, which recites from the standpoint of France the events which led up to the present war.

The book reviews at length the diplomatic exchange previous to the declaration of war. An abstract given out by the foreign office lays emphasis upon the responsibilities of Austria as the primal cause of the conflict and says that Germany persistently avoided every opportunity to adopt measures of conciliation and reach a settlement.

In its presentation of the case the French foreign office places the responsibility fully upon Austria and Germany and relates that Great Britain Russia and France were ready to adopt means of settlement, but that the Tauton allies would not consent. Germany's ultimatum to Russia is said to have precipitated the rupture. France, according to the yellow book, exhausted every possible avenue of conciliation before she decided to draw the sword to defend her very life.

A FUTURE ROCKFELLOW.

Senator LaFroette once said: "The trust creator reminds me of the little boy who entered the farmer's truck patch and said, touching a handsome cucumber on a vine:

"How much for this?"

"Ten cents," the farmer answered.

"I don't want to pay more than about two cents," said the boy.

"Well, here's one for that price," said the farmer, and he lifted up a very small cucumber that grew beside the big one.

"All right, I'll take her," said the boy. "But don't cut her off now. I'll call for her again in about two weeks' time."

Mrs. Thomas Bridges, Gorrie, Ont., writes: "I was so bad with a cold I gave up work, and I was in bed four weeks being unable to do anything. I thought the cold was turning to bronchitis, so I changed my medicine to Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I used three bottles, and they completely cured me, and I am as strong as ever. I highly recommend it to all sufferers."

The Germans have composed a rival to "Tipperary" called "It's a Short, Short, March to Calais." It is to be hoped that they can compose enough verses to last them till they get there.
