THINGS WE CAN DO

The Chicago Tribune, one of the great papers of the United States, has the following editorial:

"A wonderful wave of enthusiasm and loyalty is passing over India," said the Marquis of Crewe, secretary of State for India, in Parliament Friday.

"Native Indian troops will be employed in the war in Europe," is in substance, the declaration made by Earl Kitchener, war minister.

Indian troops anxious to fight in the war for Great Britain.

Irishmen, Ulsterites and Nationalists, ready to help the Empire!

Australia prohibiting the export of food anywhere except to the Mother Country!

Canada preparing to send a strong contingent!

The same story in England, Scotland, Ireland and all the Dominions and colonies!

What a queer, queer thing the British Empire is when you come to think of it!

In ordinary times you would naturally judge from the way Ireland and the Dominions and colonies talk about Great Britain that the poor old country didn't have a friend on earth.

In ordinary times some part of the British Empire is always berating the Home Government.

In times of peace everybody feels at liberty to assume a possible revolution in India, separation of the Dominions, and all sorts of other disastrous things.

In times of peace the Empire is always more or less "doomed," according to the statements of many gloom-laden British subjects.

But in time of war how suddenly things look up in that queer, queer British Empire!

"I haven't a thing to take back," says Ireland, "but under the circumstances kindly show me the enemy as soon as possible. I want to get at him."

"Yours of recent date received," says Canada. "Am sending men as fast as they can be gotten ready and transportation secured."

"Reserving for a more auspicious time any hatred a part of our population justifiably bears to England," says South Africa, "we are prepared to do our utmost in the present war."

"Serious local dissatisfaction will arise, sahib, unless Indians are permitted to give their lives for the honorable Empire, now that it is at war with a foreign nation," says India.

It's everywhere the same story. In peace, it's "Gonfound your stupid flat-headed, doomed, arrogant soul!" In time of need it's "Count on us to the limit!"

"Which is why we say that the British Empire is a queer, queer, institution!"

In reality there is nothing queer about it.

The undoubted truth of the matter is that the words "British Empire" stand for the greatest republic the world has ever seen.

The City of Fredericton should make a contribution to the patriotic fund, but what the amount shall be is for the members of the City Council to determine. They know the conditions of the civic finances better than most people. The size of the city grant should depend to some extent on the success of the movement now on foot to secure the collection of back taxes.
