

THE VICTROLA AND THE FAMILY—No. 7

Baby

says, "Baby like Victrola awfully much indeedy."

"It tells me lots of funny stories and sings pretty songs like Mamma and Mary and it lays music out like the big band does when the soldier boys go marching."

"Me like Harry Lauder best. He laughs so funny when he sings 'Stop Your Tickling, Jock.'"

"San'a Claus is going to bring me a Victrola for my very own this Christmas instead of those toys the naughty Germans make. One of those baby ones for $20 to go in my nursery so I can hear it when I go to bed at night just like the baby across the street does."

Victrola IV $20

With 15 ten-inch, double-sided Victor Records $33.50

Other Victrolas from $32.50 to $300 (on easy payments, if desired), and ten-inch, double-sided Victor Records at 90c for the two selections at any "His Master's Voice" dealer in any town or city in Canada.

SCHWAB SEES BUSSINESS BOOM RIGHT AT DOOR OF AMERICA

New York, Nov. 20.—"I believe we are near the turning point for a full return of confidence and prosperity in the United States," said Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, who returned today from Europe. "We are being favored by the war as no other nation. As an example, Germany normally produces from twelve million to fifteen million tons of steel annually, of which about eight million tons are exported. This is now shut off, and the advantage is in our favor."

"What is true of steel is true of other commodities, but it is not the war supply trade alone that is turning the tide. We are recovering from the shock of the war, legislation is such that capital has more confidence and business is being stimulated. At Bethlehem some time back we were forced partially to suspend operations, but we will soon be in full action again and we will increase our production."

This statement from Mr. Schwab was said by himself to be the first optimistic statement that had come from him in three years.

Mr. Schwab, who returned from London on the steamship Adriatic, was a passenger on the outward voyage on the liner Olympic, which rescued the crew of the dreadnought Audacious, but he declined to discuss the subject until England issued an official statement. He added, however, that "in so far as he knew, none of the passengers were pledged to secrecy."

As to his vision abroad he declined to go into details, saying merely that his company had a number of large contracts in force in Europe that were entered into before the war and conditions were such that his presence for a time was necessary. He denied, however, reports that the Bethlehem Steel Corporation had received a contract to build twenty-five submarines for Great Britain and had been made American purchasing agent for England.

THE KING LEADS A STRENUOUS LIFE

London, Nov. 25.—The part which King George is playing in the war is pictured in the Daily Express as follows:

"A continuous round of increasing activity, and a mastery of detail such as might alarm even a great financier comprise the present daily routine of his majesty, the king."

"Often soon after 6 in the morning the king is busy in his study, and by the time his advisers and helpers appear he has conned the despatches and documents of the early delivery, mastered their contents, and perhaps made numbers of marginal notes, in readiness for the forthcoming conference."

"The very sight of the contents of the numerous despatch boxes would intimidate most men. Admiralty, war office home office and Indian office—all contribute their daily quantum, while from the government comes a tremendous amount of pressing business which cannot be settled without the king's sanction, but, happily, controversial matters have sunk into oblivion and there are no difficulties of this kind to contend with."

"The problems continually arising about the war are many and great but nothing is too intricate for the king who insists on going into everything and seeing that the needs of the services are grappled with by business heads of the various departments. The number, qualification, equipment, and location of the new army are all well known to his majesty. In the same way he follows the fortunes of the auxiliary branches of the naval service, and he is also able to quote particulars of our Indian and colonial aids to the colors at a moment's notice."

"His majesty is also extremely solicitous as to the comforts of his fighting forces, and making continual inquiries as to the supply of food, clothing and the little extras that go to the maintenance of their health and spirits. The slightest hint to any special article of apparel is accepted and his majesty's invariable reply, when anything outside the scope of the admiralty or war office is named, is: 'I will tell the queen.'"

EASILY OVERLOOKED.

"These people may have culture," said Rev. Stanley Heflinger in a war discussion at the Cleveland Republican Club. "Their culture, though, reminds me of the ham sandwich. 'A messenger boy in a quick-lunch joint said reproachfully to the girl behind the counter: 'I don't see no ham in this here sandwich, lady.' 'Oh, you ain't come to it yet,' said the girl. 'The boy munched solemnly on. Then he said: 'Still no ham, lady.' 'Oh,' said the girl, 'you've bit over it now.'—Washington Star."

Doctor Said She Had Bright's Disease.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER.

Bright's disease is a term applied to one of the most serious of all diseases of the kidneys, the symptoms of which are often of a severe character.

Severe pains in the back appear at first and are followed by disturbances of the urinary organs which show that the urine contains a large amount of albumen. Dropsy is also another forerunner of the dreaded Bright's disease. On the first sign of any kidney trouble you should at once put the kidneys right by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The pill that cures kidney troubles only.

Mrs. C. A. Heistand, Mooswa, Alta., writes: "Last May I was taken down sick. The doctor told me I had Bright's disease. My kidneys got so bad I could not rest day or night. The doctor's medicine did not give me any relief. I used four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and they put me in good shape again."

Doan's Kidney Pills are the original kidney pill, so when you ask for "Doan's" do not accept any others with similar names. Price, 50c per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

SHE WAS CHATTY.

I was going to Toledo and I entered a Lake Shore car at our new Union depot. I noticed a pretty young girl seated beside an older lady who was reading a book.

I took a seat across the aisle from them and as I did so I caught the young woman's eye. She smiled friendly.

Between Cleveland and Elyria we did lots of smiling; at Elyria the girl came across and sat by me, which surprised me.

We talked of many things. Ere we reached Sandusky the young lady (who had told me her name, age, destination and religious belief) said: "I must leave you now."

I said goodbye. Then she said: "Well, aren't you going to kiss me?"

I rasped but made good. And as she left the train, she turned round and cried:

"Goodby, grandpa!"

Everybody in the car laughed but I didn't—Cleveland Plain-Dealer.

MAZERALL SETTLEMENT

Mazerall Settlement, Nov. 25.—We have about four inches of snow at present and everybody is taking advantage of the good sleighing.

Several of the farmers made a flying trip to the city on Saturday last. Mr. Nap St. Thomas has his cellar nearly complete.

Mr. Fred Mazerall who has arrived home from Missoula, Montana, is visiting his parents.

Miss Edna J. Mazerall is visiting her sister Mrs. H. Essensa of Harvey Station.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mazerall were visiting relatives at Harvey Station recently.

Mr. Sandy Mazerall paid a protracted visit to Nackawick a short time ago.

Our teacher Miss Augusta Mazerall is anticipating our going back to P.N.S. after Xmas.

Mr. George Soucie is engaged making a sled for Mr. John L. Mazerall.

DESCRIBING THE ANECDOTE.

"What is an anecdote, Johnny?" asked the teacher.

"A short, funny tale," answered the little fellow.

"Quite right," said the teacher.

"And now, Johnny, you may write on the blackboard a sentence containing the word."

Johnny hesitated a moment and then wrote:

"A rabbit has four legs and one anecdote."
