DEERING SEED DRILLS

DISK DRILLS HOE DRILLS
BROADCAST SEEDERS, 1 and 2 horse.

We especially recommend the Deering Disk Drill because the discs penetrate the soil best, pulverizing it and leaving it light and slightly ridged over the seed.

Deering Drills are built to give satisfaction.

A few of the good features are:- Angle Steel Frame very rigid, Self Aligning Axle Boxes, High Wheels, Wide Tires, Large Grain and Grass Boxes, Double Run Force Feed, Direct Gear Drive from Axle giving uniform feed.

The Feed Index is very accurate and you can put on the quantity of grain you desire.

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.

OXFORD RELAY TEAM WON FROM AMERICAN COLLEGES

New Record Made for Four-mile Race---Jackson the Wonderful Oxford Captain Beat McCurdy Out by One Foot---Great Finish---Twenty Thousand People Present

Philadelphia, April 25—Oxford University of England won the four-mile college relay championship of America from the University of Pennsylvania this afternoon in the most sensational finish ever seen in that event in the seventeen years the race has been run on Franklin Field. The English team had to fight all the way and won the remarkable race by a scant foot.

The wonderful Jackson, Olympic 1,500 metre champion, the anchor man of the English team, was pushed to the limit of humane endurance by McCurdy of Pennsylvania, the two-mile intercollegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the tape.

The race was run in a heavy rain and the time, 13 minutes, 5 seconds, broke the four-mile record for Pennsylvania relays. The American and world's record is held by Cornell, 17 minutes, 55 seconds. The track was very heavy and experts believed it to be about 5 seconds slow to the mile.

WON BY A FOOT.

So close was the race between Jackson and McCurdy that it was several minutes before the spectators could learn who had won. The two men came into the home stretch shoulder to shoulder. Thirty yards from the tape McCurdy led about a foot. Captain Jackson made a last desperate effort to take the lead and just managed to shove his shoulder ahead of McCurdy. In this way they ran, amid intense excitement. When Jackson got the width of his shoulder in front of McCurdy he swerved slightly in toward the pole and the shoulders of the two men were almost touching, with Jackson's in front. This was their position at the tape.

As the two runners came down the stretch, stride for stride, Pennsylvania supporters thought McCurdy would win and excited spectators rushed on the track. But splendid work by policemen who clubbed back the crowd, kept the way clear. Otherwise the two men would not have been able to finish.

As the two men fell across the line an excited spectator rushed at James E. Sullivan, the referee, and wildly protested that McCurdy had been fouled, but Sullivan waved him away and declared the English team the winner. There was not the slightest ground for a protest, the referee said.

As the two men finished several thousand persons rushed on the track and surrounded the runners and officials and it was with difficulty that the winner could be learned.

A "WONDERFUL FINISH."

After the race Referee Sullivan said: "It was the most wonderful finish I ever saw in a relay race in more than twenty-five years of athletics. Pennsylvania ran a great race again—"

Men of Law will get some Good Pickings---Various Suits Over Players
Present some Strange
Angles---Interesting Developments Expected

New York, April 25—One hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars is asked for in the damage suits now pending between the National and Federal leagues resulting from the jumping of players. This stunt of the big league moguls in rushing into court with damage suits and injunction ploys is something new in baseball warfare. With the single exception of the Lajoie case which was taken into court in Philadelphia, the war of a dozen years ago between the American and National leagues produced no soft money in the way of fees for attorneys. The two old leagues kept out of the courts and used their coin as bait for players.

The present war among the big is being fought along different lines. When a player a flop his old manager loses no time in hot-footing into court with a plea for an injunction in one hand and papers for a damage suit in the other.

In connection with the numerous law suits already file, there are some strange and peculiar angles. To the trained lawyer they may not seem out of the the ordinary, but to the everyday fan, they look very much like the "bunk."

President Gaffney of the Boston Braves asks twenty five thousand dollars damages from the Baltimore Federal league club on account of Pitcher Jack Quinn deserting the Braves and signing with Baltimore. Quinn's record shows that he did good work for Rochester after falling with the New York Yankees. He also showed up fairly well after joining the Braves last Fall. But to declare that Quinn is worth twenty five thousand dollars on his past performances seems like juggling figures to the limit.

The Federal league is seeking $15,000 damages from Killifer of the Phillies and Blahding and Kohler of the Cleveland Naps. Ten thousand dollars is sought by the league from Baumgardner and Williams of the St. Louis Browns, and $25,000 from Hamilton of the same team. In these cases the players and not the clubs are the defendants. The claim of the Federals is based on the refusal of the players to live up to the contracts they are said to have signed with the new organization.

In the opinion of the lawyers the Federals will have to establish that the players have deprived the Federal league of extraordinary services, or in other words services that could not be performed by others. If the Feds are compelled to make their claim good along this line, they doubtless will center the fight on the case of Bill Killifer, who is the star of the whole outfit that has been drawn into court. Killifer is ranked as one of the leading catchers of the big show.

As a counter action to the suit of the Federals against the officials of the Chicago club of the Federal League, Baker asks twenty-five thousand dollars damages and an injunction restraining the Federal league from interfering with the players of the Philadelphia club.

With Blanding, Kahler, Hamilton, and Baumgardner, the other defendants in the damage suits filed, by the Federal league, ranking nineteenth, twenty-ninth, thirty-first and thirty-fifth, respectively in the 1913 records of American league pitchers it is difficult to see how the Federal league can obtain any damages for the loss of their services.

With court decisions and three pennant races to follow the baseball fans will find plenty to keep them busy during the remainder of this season. And incidentally the lawyers will gather a nice bundle of change and learn more about the national pastime than they thought it possible to know.

BRUNLEY WON FROM LIVERPOOL AT SOCCER

London, Eng., April 26—A crowd numbering 100,000 people and which was 20,000 less than last year attended the Crystal Palace Saturday afternoon and witnessed Brunley defeat Liverpool in a football match. The match was more notable than usual by presence of King George who presented the trophy to the winners after the match.

FREDERICTON HIGH LOST TO ST. ANDREW'S TEAM AT ST. JOHN

Basketball Score on Saturday Was 42 to 31---Close Game in the First Half

St. John, April 27—St. Andrew's basketball team, champions of the Church Intermediate League, closed their season by a trip to Fredericton last Saturday, on which occasion they defeated Fredericton High School by a score of 42-31. The game was closely contested as the score of 16-15 in favor of St. Andrews at the end of the first half will show. In the second half, however, five baskets shot by Dykeman put the same on ice for St. Andrews. White and Christie also starred for the winners, while Thompson and McLauchlan showed class for F.H.S.

The teams lined up as follows:

St. Andrews	Forwards	F.H.S.
M. White	K. McLauchlan
E. Dykeman	F. Thomson
	Centre
A. Christie	G. Bridges
	Defence
F. Myles	S. Young
L. Caldwell	R. Johnson
Vanwart	refereed very satisfactorily.

The St. Andrews boys have come through the season with twenty-three victories and five defeats and only St. John High School has a better average. The lateness of the season, however, prevents a play off between the two teams.
