

ARE YOU

IN THE THICK OF THINGS OR THE THIN OF THINGS?

It takes the steady nerve, the elastic step, the energetic body to meet modern conditions, and the quick mind grasps the fact that body and nerves must be properly nourished.

Weak, hesitating, doubting natures are those who lack vitality. Their kingdom is the crust or outer edge—the thin of things.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is the vitalizer for all ages. It feeds nerves, body and brain with pure, wholesome food-tonic. It does not stimulate—it nourishes.

CANADA'S GROWTH BEING RETARDED

Montreal, Jan. 31.—Sir Edmund Walker was the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Canadian Club at the Sailors' Institute today. The Toronto banker spoke on "Some Canadian Assets and Liabilities."

Sir Edmund said Canada had disadvantages to contend with in her progress, one of which was the great cost of working in the winter. He hoped that the West Indies would have the good sense to come into the confederation, as it could supply us with foodstuffs that we could not grow.

Continuing, Sir Edmund said that those who contented themselves with simply making and eating their daily bread and took no active part in the development of the country were a species of fools. If they all never saved money they would lose the country.

AN EXTRAVAGANT PEOPLE.

"We have," said Sir Edmund, "passed from a country noticeably moderate to one of feverish speculation and extravagant expenditure in the cost of living. This is almost as destructive to the fibre of a nation as crime. The country that believes that permanent success is represented by money will not survive. We must have respect or else we become simply one of those hateful oligarchies which disturb the stream of civilization."

The remedy, said Sir Edmund, must be applied by our children, and our universities and schools must teach it to them. The western institutions are putting the eastern universities to shame in this respect. It is to be hoped that the time will never be reached when we sink so low nationally that men of wealth can escape the results of wrong-doing by the use of their own power.

DUTY OF UNIVERSITIES.

"Let the universities study political science," exclaimed the great financier, "and learn to desire the removal of patronage from national politics. Take it out of the civil service, too, by reform."

Sir Edmund then tackled the newspapers, and stated that if they would stop reviling one another and begin to appeal to the people on great issues it would be better.

CANADA'S CREDIT IMPORTANT.

The speaker dealt last with Canada's credit abroad.

"Remember," he remarked, "the credit of Canada in England is all important, for it is there that we must borrow the necessary millions to accommodate the vital immigration. Every foolish operation in Canada's finance impairs that credit. We must play the national game like gentlemen, and both political parties here must explain that game to newcomers, and tell the British and non-British settlers that Canada is destined to share in and pay a share towards the perpetuation of the British empire forever."

DANTE'S INFERNO AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Following is a short explanation of the origin of Dante's Divine Comedy which is to be produced at the Opera House on Saturday evening.

The Divine Comedy of Dante one of the greatest monuments of human genius owes its origin to a little girl who had barely reached the age of nine years, when she became its inspiration. Dante when a boy of nine attended a festival in his native city of Florence. Children were always deeply interested in these festivals in which flowers and prayers formed a prominent part. At this festival the boy Dante met a little girl and was immediately ravished by her angelic beauty. It is said by the writer of the story that the beauty of Beatrice or as she was often called "Bice" was strikingly spiritual and the sentiments it produced in the heart of Dante was of the purest kind, untainted by even the remotest suggestion of any sensual affection. It appears that Dante only saw Beatrice a few times and then only for brief moments but so deep had been her sweetness and purity that her image never left his mind and he early resolved to make her immortal in a way never before attempted. In this we all know, he succeeded. Beatrice has become the embodiment and symbol of pure and uplifting womanhood to all who have ever in the course of centuries heard the poem. Beatrice died at the age of 24 in 1290 and it was then that the plan of Dante to immortalize her took definite shape.

The great poet places her in Paradise where she dwells in floods of crystal light among the blessed. When he is lost in the wild forest Beatrice sends Virgil a pious pagan poet of the olden days to be his escort through the Inferno (Hell or the Underworld) until such time as she herself will become his guide through the other portions of the created universe. So much for the Origin of the Divine Comedy.

The picture of this great work so closely followed the words and ideas of the poet that in describing the same we cannot help depicting the other.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

SUCCESSFUL BANQUET AT MEDUCTIC

Mr. W. S. Tompkins was the Guest of Honor—Enterprising Village in Line for a Boost Meductic, N. B., Jan. 27.—W. S. Tompkins was entertained this evening at an informal dinner at the Aberdeen Hotel by the Meductic board of trade. Covers were laid for thirty.

The tables were tastefully decorated and the service was beyond criticism.

After the good things were disposed of and the cigars were passed around the toastmaster, George L. Porter, with a few opening remarks stating object of the occasion, namely, to show their respect for the guest of the evening, proposed the following toasts:

The King—Song, God Save the King.

The Governor-General—President H. B. Scott.

The Dominion Government—G. P. Oils.

The Village of Meductic—H. M. Edwards.

Our Guest.

Our Hostess—B. E. Dow Fred Bragdon.

The Valley Railway—Simon Bragdon.

The Board of Trade—Geo. McCloskey.

The Car Shops—Judson Heilman.

The Agricultural Industry—Arvid Tompkins.

Our Future Prospects—Segee M. Grant.

Following the toast to the guest H. M. Edwards read an address to Mr. Tompkins, in which the guests of the evening were warmly praised.

Mr. Tompkins in replying to the address, spoke very warmly of those who were doing him honor. He said that other towns which were attempting to secure the car works of the Valley Railway and become a division point would find that the Meductic board of trade had not been idle. Meductic had many advantages, had acquired the land necessary for the car shops at a heavy expense, and we are offering it and winter privileges free to the railway. Mr. Tompkins went on to say:

"We are pleased to see in this stack of correspondence your secretary has placed in my hands the number of inquiries for land and location for industrial purposes. I realize that this branch of your work is unprovided for. In fact your imaginations never expanded to the tune of fifteen letters in one week from people who want to secure a location here for manufacturing purposes. Prompt attention to these requests for information will necessitate a responsible official who will have to be paid. I know you will not hesitate in providing a fund for this purpose."

"This large number of applicants you have placed before me tonight is but the advance party preceding the rush by hundreds of people who want to participate in the many advantages we have to offer."

"I am pleased to notice in this bunch of applications the large number of woods factories from Ontario who want to come here. We have room for all of them, with cheap power and an unlimited supply of hardwood."

"It is not news to most of you that we have in course of organization a company incorporated for the purpose of colonizing the agricultural lands lying at the rear of the river lots. This company is making plans to settle ten families a year for ten years. They have selected Meductic as a base of their operations and have already secured options on large tracts of land, suitable and well adapted for agriculture. They will clear the land, build a house on each lot, set out an acre of fruit trees and provide roads and schools."

He advised them to appoint officials to arrange for the laying out of streets, and to secure from real estate men stated prices on building lots and larger areas to extend over one or two years, in order to be able to offer reasonable prices as an inducement to newcomers."

Mr. Tompkins was heartily applauded.

Doctors and Medicine Failed To Cure Him.

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly what their trouble is. As a rule it is improper circulation of the blood, owing to not just taking proper care of themselves. All they want is a good tonic to build up the system and put their blood in proper shape, and for this purpose there is nothing to equal Burdock Blood Bitters. It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system. Mr. Murdock A. Morrison, Tarbot, N.S., writes:—"I am now writing to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last Summer I was all run down, and doctors and medicine failed to cure me. At last I decided to try a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking one bottle I began feeling better, and after I had taken the remedy for two months I was completely cured. I can safely recommend your remedy to anyone."

in Cash Prizes for Farmers

Your Photograph May Win a Prize

AMONG the prizes we are offering in our big Prize Contest is one of $100.00 (Prize "C") for the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with a photograph showing the best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement. For this prize, work of every description is included.

Now just as soon as you finish that new silo, barn, feeding floor or dairy, that you've been thinking of building, why not photograph it and send the picture to us? The photograph doesn't necessarily have to be taken by a professional or an expert. In fact, your son's or your daughter's camera will do nicely. Or, failing this, you might use the kodak of your neighbor's son nearby. In any event, don't let the idea of having a photograph made deter you from entering the competition. Particularly as we have requested your local dealer to help in cases where it is not convenient for the farmer to procure a camera in the neighborhood. By this means you are placed on an equal footing with every other contestant. Get the circular, which gives you full particulars of the conditions and of the other three prizes. Every dealer who sells "CANADA" Cement will have on hand a supply of these circulars—and he'll give you one if you just ask for it. Or if you prefer, you can use the attached coupon—or a postcard will do—send it to us and you'll receive the complete details of the contest by return mail.

If you haven't received your copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete," write for that, too. It's a finely illustrated book of 160 pages full of useful and practical information of the uses of concrete.

Write us to-night, and you'll receive the book and the circular promptly.

Do not delay—sit right down—take your pen or pencil, and fill out the coupon NOW.
