MRS. WAKEFIELD'S SECOND TRIAL

New Haven, Conn., July 14.—The case of Mrs. Bessie Wakefield, charged with the murder of her husband, William O. Wakefield, came up for its second trial in the Criminal Superior Court here today. At her previous trial Mr. Wakefield was convicted of first degree murder and was sentenced to die on March 4 last, with James Plew who was adjudged guilty of Wakefield's murder. Plew was executed by the Supreme Court granted the appeal of Mrs. Wakefield for a new trial.

MAGGIE'S ANSWER.

A Hartford family recently secured the services of a new maid, a girl under a treasure. They also enjoy her wit.

"Me cousin Maggie came over with me on the boat," she said. "Sure she is the bright girl. A man came around when we got off the ship and said: 'Where did you come from?' and Maggie said, 'From Ireland.'"

"What part?" said he.

"Sure, all of me," said Maggie, "and himself did not bother us no more after that."—Hartford Courant

Javanese Marriages

A marriage among the Javanese is quite a lengthy ordeal. Such a thing as courtship is practically unknown. The parents choose partners for their children, although the latter are consulted and their consent obtained. The parents discuss among themselves the terms of the marriage, and then the girl's parents give a betrothal pledge to those of the bridegroom, who soon after offer the purchase price for the bride in silver, jewels, stucco, food, and so on. Each of the girl's parents also receives some special personal gift. On the day when the presents are delivered all the relatives and friends on both sides are invited to a series of festivities and banquets, which last several days, being furnished first by one side and then by the other. The eve of the actual wedding, which usually takes place a week later, is spent by the future husband and wife in a vigil, without which it is thought that great ill-fortune would follow. Next day the happy couple, with their parents and friends, appear before the priest, who duly unites them.

A healthy person must eat healthy food. Do you know how to distinguish healthy from unhealthy food? For instance, a good egg will sink in water. Baked eggs which adhere to the shell are fresh. The shell of a fresh egg has a lime-like surface.

Locomotor ataxia is a chronic, progressive disease of the nervous system. It affects the spinal cord particularly. On this account it interferes with muscular co-ordination. It causes the gait of the patient to be irregular and uncertain.

The British coast is so well protected with lighthouses that if a ship sailed right round England, Scotland, and Ireland by night, only on six occasions would it be where it could not see the flash of a lighthouse lantern.

Try This at Ottawa

A protest has been raised against the amount of public money which American legislators spend on baths. The sum expended by the House of Representatives last year was $6,200. But the free bath is not the only privilege the representatives of the American people enjoy. They can get a free shave and a free hair-cut as often as they have a mind to. They can even get their faces massaged and their hands manicured at the public cost.

Liked the Chorus

They were leaving a theatre, where a musical comedy is now playing.

"That show is like a course in astronomy," declared the young doctor.

"What do you mean?"

"Well, there are two or three stars and a whole group of heavenly bodies."

His Italian Boss

Father X, a well known member of the Roman Catholic Church, is famous for his wit, but a laborer on the railroad got the better of him one day. The laborer, one of the good father's parishioners, was laying asphalt paving under the superintendence of an Italian foreman, and the priest smiled and said: "Well, Pat, and how do you like having an Italian boss?" Pat smiled back as he quickly answered: "An' faith, father, an' how do you like havin' one yourself?"

Obedient Instructions

Marjorie was a little girl and very polite. She went to play with a little friend, and had been carefully instructed how to behave.

"If they ask you to dine with them," papa had said, "you must say, 'No, thank you; I have already dined.'"

It turned out just as papa had anticipated.

"Come along, Marjorie," said her little friend's father; "you must have a bite with us!"

"No, thank you," said the little girl with dignity; "I have already dined."

DIARRHOEA and VOMITING

ATTACKED HER LITTLE BOY

He was Cured by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry

Mrs. Wesley Pringle, Roblin, Ont., writes: "It is with great pleasure I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. When our little boy was 3 years old he had the worst attack of diarrhoea and vomiting I ever saw. We called in our doctor, and he came eleven times from Tuesday morning until Saturday night, but still no change. We expected each moment to be the last of his suffering, as the doctor said he could do nothing more. Mr. Pringle was going up town Saturday night and was advised to try your great and wonderful medicine. He got a bottle, and about 9 o'clock the first dose was given, and was kept up as directed, and when the doctor came on Saturday he said, 'what a wonderful change. Why, your little boy is going to get better!' Then we told him what we had given him. He said, 'keep right on, he is doing well.' I often think, as I look at my boy, growing to be a man, what great thanks I owe to Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."

It has been on the market for 67 years, so you do not experiment when you buy it.

Insist on having "Dr. Fowler's".

There is nothing "Just as Good."

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

are not a new and untried remedy—our grandfathers used them. Half a century ago, before Confederation, they were on sale in nearly every drug or general store in the Canada of that day, and were the recognized cure in thousands of homes for Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Rheumatism and Kidney and Liver Troubles. Today they are just as effective, just as reliable as ever, and nothing better has yet been devised to
