VIOLENT FIGHTING ON THE RIVER AISNE

the Oise to Rheims, very violent attacks by the Germans have been made at several points, some of them being at the point of the bayonet, but they were all repulsed. In many places the French and German trenches were not more than one hundred meters apart.

"Second—In the centre from Rheims to Souain the Prussian guard has undertaken unsuccessfully a vigorous offensive, being hurled back in the region of Barry-Au-Bac (eleven miles northeast of Rheims and about twenty-five miles east of Soissons) and Negent L'Abbesse (three miles due east of Rheims). From Souain yesterday the enemy made an unsuccessful attack between the highway leading from Somme to Chalons-sur-Marne and the line of the railway from St. Menchould to Vouzier. At the end of the day our troops regained the ground that they had lost.

"Between the region of the Argonne and the Meuse the enemy has not manifested any activity. On the heights of the Meuse nothing new has developed. In the southern part of the Woivre district the Germans occupy a front which passes by St. Mihiel and to the northwest of Pont-A-Mousson.

"On our right wing in Lorraine, the Vosges and Alsace there has been no important change."

NOT MAKING ANY CLAIMS.

Berlin, Sept. 27.—(By wireless telegraph to Sayville, Long Island)—The following statement was received from the headquarters of the German general staff last night and made public today:

"The enemy are using their railroads in a general attack on the extreme end of the right flank of the German army.

"At Bapaume (in Pas-De-Calais, fourteen miles southeast of Arras) an advanced French division was repulsed by a smaller German force.

"In the centre of the battle front we have made slight gains.

"The forts under bombardment to the south of Verdun have withdrawn their fire and our artillery is now engaged with forces which the enemy brought up on the west bank of the Meuse.

"Elsewhere the situation remains unchanged."

7,000 GERMAN BODIES.

London, Sept. 27.—A Paris despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company says:

"Wounded who have arrived at Monacuon give details of the siege of Fort Troyon, near Verdun. They say that while the Germans were bombarding the commander of the fort did not reply. The enemy, believing that the fort had been evacuated, approached in order to destroy a redoubt.

"The commander of the fort then set fire to two cartloads of straw inside the structure, and the Germans convinced that their shells had started the fire and that they could easily take the place, advanced in close formation.

"The French suddenly unmasked their mitrailleuses, which opened a deadly fire. The number of German bodies abandoned on the slopes around Fort Troyon is estimated at seven thousand."

ENGLAND WILL FIGHT TO A FINISH.

London, September, 25.—Speaking today at a meeting of his neighbors held at Criccieth, Wales, Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George made the declaration that the war was quite unexpected.

He never dreamt that it would occur, he said, until a few days before hostilities commenced. He never thought any country could be so devilish as to pretend great friendship and at the same time make elaborate arrangements for attack. Indeed, he thought war was so far away he made arrangements to spend August and September at Criccieth.

It took fifteen years to break Napoleon, the Chancellor continued. He said he did not think it would take anything like as long to vanquish Emperor William, but long or short, England was going to see it through.

LINER CAPTURED.

London, Sept. 45.—A despatch from Queenstown to the Pall Mall Gazette says that the Holland-American liner Amsterdyk, which sailed from Philadelphia Sept. 10 with a cargo for Rotterdam, was captured by a British cruiser and was taken to Queenstown. After a number of German reservists the vessel proceeded to her destination had been removed from the Amsterdyk. London, Sept. 25.—Lt. Commander H. E. De P. Rennick, reported among the missing from the British cruiser Hogue, was in Captain Robert F. Scott's ill-fated Antarctic expedition, having been second in command to Lt. Evans, on the Terra Nova. He leaves a bride of twelve months.

U.S. STEAMER CAPTURED.

New York, Sept. 27.—Sir Courtenay Bennett, the British consul general here, announced this afternoon that the steamer Lorenzo, registered as a United States merchantman, and the Norwegian steamer Thor, had been captured by British cruisers in the act of coaling the German cruiser Karlsruhe at sea and had been taken to St. Lucia to await disposition by a prize court.

Sir Courtenay added that the German cruiser had made its escape. The two steamers were captured over the West Indies, he said.

AUSTRIANS RETREATING

Petrograd, Sept. 27.—An official communication, issued from the headquarters of the general staff today says that in the region of Bruskenaky, the Russian troops engaged the Germans on September 25.

The Austrian army is now retiring westward, utilizing the railroads leading to Cracow.

After defeating two regiments of Honveds the Russian troops occupied Lurka.

HELD ENEMY SINGLE-HANDED.

London, Sept. 27.—The Paris correspondent of The Daily Mail tells of a gallant feat performed by a single Highlander in the fighting at Soissons last week.

It appears that one hundred and fifty Highlanders, who had been detailed to hold a bridge over the Aisne were threatened by an overwhelming force of Germans, who gradually were approaching nearer the Highlanders. Their Maxim had ceased fire, all of its crew being killed, when the Highlander got up from cover, lifted the Maxim on his back and amid a storm of German bullets carried it, tripod and all, at a run across the bridge to the far side.

There he put the gun down, the Maxim being still charged, opened a hail of bullets on the advancing Germans, who wavered and then broke and fled to cover, leaving scores of dead behind.

At this moment the Highlander himself was killed but he had checked the German advance, and, British reinforcements arriving, the Germans abandoned the attempt to capture the bridge. Afterwards it was found that the Highlander's body had thirty wounds.

RUSSIANS ARE ACTIVE

London, Sept. 27.—The Russians on Saturday occupied the greater part of the city of Przemyśl (Galicia), according to a message from Vienna, says the Rome correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company. His despatch continues:

"The Russians approached the city from the southwest, forcing the Austrians to take shelter in the eastern forts where the entire garrison is now concentrated and is preparing to make a final resistance. The situation of the garrison is critical as it is entirely surrounded.

"Russian troops are advancing from Grodek on the Austrian positions while the right wing continues to attack from the north. Troops are being poured into the city of Przemyśl to press the attack from the southwest."

The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Telegraph has forwarded the following semi-official statement regarding the operations in Russian Poland:

"The movement of German troops from East Prussia in the direction of Warsaw has come to nothing. In the government of Suwalki (Russian Poland), the Germans have suffered a serious repulse. The left flank of the Russian army has defeated the troops under the command of General Von Hindenburg near Suwalki.

"At the same time our troops won a complete victory at Mariampol and the attacking Germans were thrown back ten miles across the River Scheschna with a loss of many guns and prisoners. On the right flank at the Niemen river the battle ended in success for us at Sredniki, where a German attempt to cross the river was repulsed with great loss."
