SUBMARINE PAID MOST DARING OF EXPLOITS

water and Germany the shallow water and the sand, oceans of sand.

"That is one reason why the Germans want to acquire two ports, and why, if they won, they would probably find some excuse for taking permanent possession of Rotterdam and Antwerp."

The Morning Post's naval correspondent says:

"Mines are only moored at a depth of fifteen feet, from the surface and are anchored to the bottom with a mooring rope. A mine fuse will be four or five feet high, therefore the submarine must sink twenty feet and several feet more to allow for clearance. From the bottom of the hull to the periscope is about thirty feet, so that it might have been possible for the B-11 to keep her periscope above water."

"The presence of mines could be detected by the crew of the submarine by the noise of the rubbing of the mooring rope of the mine along her side. It is a familiar sound to the officers and men of British submarines who habitually incur the dangers of a mine field."

PROVES BRITISH EFFICIENCY.

New York, Dec. 15—A London cable to The New York Herald this morning says:

"Even greater than the rejoicing which followed the victory of Vice-Admiral Sir Frederick O. D. Sturdee in the South Atlantic last week was the measure of enthusiasm throughout the United Kingdom yesterday which greeted the official announcement of the daring exploit of the British submarine B-11."

"With the stealth of a panther and daring which surpasses everything hitherto recorded in British naval history, commanded by Lieut. Commander Norman B. Holbrook of the Royal Navy, braved destruction by five separate chains of mines laid in the most treacherous of currents and sent the Turkish battleship Mesched to the bottom of the Dardanelles."

As a just reward for such intrepidity Lieut. Commander Holbrook and his crew escaped in their submerged craft, running the gauntlet of heavy gunfire from other warships of the Turkish fleet and the shore forts. Elusive as a living thing, the submarine dived, manoeuvred, came to the surface and dived again, finally escaping unharmed from the guns, pursuing destroyers and difficult currents.

"The feat of the B-11 has served to convince the British public of one fact concerning which there might have been a lingering doubt. It is that the efficiency of the British submarine is as great as that of that of the German, and that when opportunity presents itself the British commanders may be relied upon to dare as great dangers as have hitherto been dreamed of."

STRONGEST MENTNILI IN 100 YEARS BELT FOR EITHER MAN OR BEAST

Nothing for Family Use Can Compare With It.

RUB ON NERVINE

When you have been exposed to wet and cold and your muscles are full of pain, nerves are jumping with neuralgia, then you should have ready at hand a bottle of Nervine. It robs pain of its terrors, gives relief to all suffering, brings ease and comfort wherever used.

No care or expense has been spared to secure for Nervine the purest and best materials. It is prepared with a single aim to restore the sick to health. This cannot be said of the preparation that an unscrupulous dealer may ask you to accept instead of Nervine, so we warn you it is the extra profit made on inferior goods that tempts the substitutor. Of him beware.

Get Nervine when you ask for it, then you are sure of a remedy that will cure all aches, strains, swellings, and the pains of rheumatism, neuralgia and lumbago.

In the last hundred years no liniment has been produced that can compare with Nervine in strength, its penetrating power, or in curative ability.

For nearly forty years it has been Canada's household remedy and mothers will do well to follow the advice of Mrs. Jessie Beggins of Stella, P. O. Ont., who says:

"Very frequently there are ailments in the family that can be cured by Nervine. It is handy. When my children come in from play with a cough or had cold, I rub them well with Nervine, and they are well almost at once. Nervine is fine for earache, tooth ache, chest colds, lumbago stiffness, rheumatism or neuralgia. In fact there is scarcely a pain or ache it may or beast it won't cure quickly."

The large 50c. family size bottle is the most economical; trial size 25c.; at all dealers, or The Catarrhzone Co. Kingston, Canada.

There are many things that may interfere with a man's appetite, but love isn't one of them.
