

DIZZY HEADACHES CURED IN ONE NIGHT

If Troubled With Head-Fullness, Ringing Noises, Specks Before the Eyes the Stomach is at Fault

QUICK RELIEF AND CERTAIN CURE
CAME FROM DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS

"I had terrible pains in my head. My appetite faded away and when I did eat anything it disagreed and made me very sick for hours after each meal. The pains in my stomach and the dizzy headaches I had to endure almost set one wild. Sometimes attacks came on so severely that I had to go to bed. I would feel so worn, depressed and utterly miserable that for hours I wouldn't speak to my family. My system was poisoned with wastes and nothing helped me till I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Without this grand system-cleaning remedy I would still be sick but each day brought me better health and spirits. I was cured and made strong, ruddy and healthy and will always use and recommend Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

REID BROTHERS

TRIP ON THE RIVER ATTRACTED MANY

"Queen's weather" quoted the holiday maker on Monday and the good people of Fredericton enjoyed the day in many ways. Automobiles flashed hither and thither, smart traps bowled merrily along the level roads and motor-boats vied with each other in repeating "Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers" on the river. But of all these none more thoroughly enjoyed the day than those who boarded the Victoria for a trip down our noble river. No dust, no heat, the ever-changing panorama, were its especial advantages. The trees just leaving out presented to the eye all the infinite shades of green while the giant willows which line the banks, now in full bloom, painted the landscape here and there with great blotches of yellow and waited on board their delicious perfume.

The two or three hours interval gave ample opportunity for strolling about the quaint old village, resting in the cool shade and enjoying games or a paddle on the river.

The "toot, toot" of the Purdy sent all in haste to the wharf and on the way up river.

SIR DOUGLAS C. CAMERON
Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba.

BRAINS MAKE VALUE

Turn Your Raw Material Into Saleable Product

Germany's motto is: Unite and Conquer.

Our motto is: Dissolve and Retreat. The country that sells raw material will always be poor, just as the farmer who sells corn and not hogs will never lift the mortgage.

If you have a forest and can work it up into tables, chairs, bookcases and violins you will make a deal more money than if you sold firewood.

We take paper, glue, leather, copper, steel and make a "Kodak." The value of the raw materials that go to make a "Kodak" is, say, 20 cents. The consumer in South Africa, England, Japan or Germany pays five dollars for the machine, and counts it a bargain. It is brain that makes value.—The Philistine.

DONT GROW BALD

It's Quite Needless. Nourish the Hair
Roots--Remove Dandruff--
Use Parisian Sage--

If your hair is getting thin, losing color, or has that matted, lifeless and scraggy appearance, the reason is evident—dandruff and failure to keep the hair roots properly nourished.

Parisian Sage applied frequently for a week and then occasionally is all that is needed. It removes dandruff with one application; almost immediately stops falling hair and itching head; cleanses, cools and invigorates the scalp and makes dull, stringy hair soft, abundant and radiant with life. Equally good for men, women or children—everyone needs it.

This refreshing hair tonic can be had at any drug or toilet counter in fifty cents bottles only. J. A. Ryan always sell it with agreement to refund the money if you are not satisfied.

Get a bottle at once. Delighted users say Parisian Sage is the best and most invigorating hair tonic made.

BIG SHIP READY FOR LAUNCHING

Boston, Mass., May 25—Arrangements have been completed at the Fore River shipyard at Quincy for the launching there tomorrow of the big freight steamer Atlantic, the first of the vessels to be built for the Emery Steamship Company's proposed service from Boston to the Pacific Coast ports by way of the Panama Canal. The second ship for the new fleet, the Pacific, will be launched at the Fore River yards next month.

USES OF EXPLORATION

Cost of Last Polar Expedition Saved in Three Years by Magnetic Work

"I have often been asked what is the good of Polar exploration," said Sir Ernest Shackleton to the Pilgrims, by whom he was entertained at dinner at the Savoy Hotel. "If anyone were to offer to defray the cost of this expedition if I could point to any single economic fact of value, I would reply that the cost of the last expedition had been saved in three years by the magnetic work accomplished. We have been able so to correct previous scientific suppositions that every ship crossing the ocean is able to save about two hours on the voyage."

Sir Ernest also dwelt on the beneficial results that had followed their meteorological achievements. They found that certain weather conditions in the Weddell Sea were reflected in other parts, so that they could almost safely prognosticate the type of weather that would ensue in Argentina and in Brazil.

As the result of a wireless installation between Australia and the Antarctic, they had been able to give warnings of blizzards, which were of the greatest value to mariners, and there was no estimating what it had saved in life and ships.

With regard to the expedition, sentiment was the driving force of it, as it always had been in the good work that had been done in the world.

With them on this expedition would go a sixty cent Union Jack, and cheap though it was, they were determined to carry it along the Antarctic trail.

CAN THE TITANIC BE RAISED

Proposal to Lower Around Hulk a Number of Powerful Magnets

A scheme is on foot to raise the "Titanic," the $10,000,000 liner that struck an iceberg and sank with immense treasure. A noted engineer has elaborated a plan by which he thinks the giant boat could be brought to the surface.

In some steel mills electric magnets lift masses of steel and iron weighing as much as 150 tons. Why not adapt this idea to the "Titanic?" says the engineer.

His scheme is to lower all round the sunken vessel a large number of powerful magnets operated from small steamboats, one boat to each magnet. These magnets, energized by electric currents, would be forced against the side of the steel ship, and when power was applied and the cables attaching the magnets to the smaller boats wound up, the "Titanic" would be lifted clear of the ocean bed and permit divers to make any necessary repairs, pump the water out of the vessel, and get her afloat again.

Placing the magnets in position would be the work of divers descending in an electrically-controlled submarine.
